SAD DEATH OF W. S. ELLISON.

William S. Ellison, well-known in upper Kent county, met a sad and tragic death last week in Philadelphia. He and family on Sunday, June 11, went to his brother's, James S. Ellison, the owner of the Penn Button Works and Factory, 1042 Ridge Ave., Philadelphia, for dinner, at the home of this brother, 1917 Poplar street. On returning in the evening he left his seat in the trolley car to assist an old lady whom he did not know but was always kind to the aged, near Girard Avenue and Broad street, and in seeking the car again and his family the conductor started the car too quickly and he was thrown backwards to the pavement striking his head with such force he fractured his skull and died without regaining consciousness in the Presbyterian Hospital on Monday evening the 12th at 6 25 o'clock from concussion of the brain and fractured skull. His family are grief-stricken over his terrible and untimely death and that meeting with such a tragic death and should be taken so young, so bright, so useful. It's all too sad. Mr. Ellison was manager and interested in the Atlantic Coal Company and with his office on Washington Ave., Philadelphia. He was beloved by all who knew him, he had a heart as soft and as gentle as a babe. An exceptionally fine man, he leaves a wife who was Miss Lucy Boulden, the daughter of the late George Boulden, near Glasgow, and two lovely sons, one daughter, and a devoted brother, James S. Ellison, a prominent and well-known business man, of Philadelphia, and four sisters, Mrs. Lenette A. Ford, formerly of Ford's Landing, Mrs. Joseph B. Fletcher, of U. S. Navy Yard, Portsmouth, New Hampshire; Mrs. P. N. Brooks, 3806 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Alexander T. Laws, of Sassafras.

Short Crop of Cow Peas

PRICES GOING UP

The enormous demand for Cow Peas last year carried the price very high, and as the crop is very short and the acreage is rapidly extending there are many indications which point to much higher prices as the sowing season approaches.

Whip-Poor-Will Cow Peas.

The Whip-Poor-Wills are generally prepared in the Central and Southern States. They are bush form, early maturing and especially desirable for Peas.

New Era Cow Peas.

New Era's are a little earlier and make more vine than the Whip-Poor Wills.

Wonderfuls, Clay and Mixed Cow Peas.

For hay. The Wonderfuls or the Mixed Cow Peas are more productive, they should always be planted with an occasional grain of corn, sorgum Seed, Kaffir Corn, etc., which will prevent the vines from getting damaged by coming in contact with the ground.

Black Cow Peas

Black Cow Peas are a little later in maturing than Clays, they make a good growth of vine, are exceptionally good for medium or poor land and will stand almost any amount of wet weather without injury. We can supply Shinny Peas, Red Rippers, Blackeye Peas and Soja Beans.

Remember Bolgiano's Cow Peas are best—If your local merchant will not supply you with Bolgiano's Cow Peas—Write us direct and we will tell you where you can get them.

FREE—Send us 5c in stamps to pay postage, and mention the name of this paper, and we will send you free a 25c package of "My Maryland Tomato Seed, also our 1911 Catalogue of Seeds and our 1911 Poultry Supply Catalogue.

YACHTING NOTES.

Some of The Launches Which Hail From Chestertown Harbor—A Fine Fleet—Local Builders.

Chestertown can boast of a fine fleet of launches all fitted up with engines and of varying speed. Many of them were built at this place.

"Old Nancy," owned by Capt. Louis K. Stam, is a dead rise speed boat, 19 feet overall, and equipped with a 12-horse power Ferro engine. This boat is rebuilt from the Nancy which took fire in Chesapeake bay after having won the silver cup at Oxford. She can make 20 miles per hour.

The "Sarah," owned by C. W. Kibler and son, is a dead rise boat, 22 feet over all and equipped with 12 h. p. Ferro, and makes over 16 miles per hour. Her builder was William T. Duyer, of Chestertown.

Dr. J. Roy Micou has become a lover of the sport and had Mr. W. T. Duyer build him a 22 foot dead-rise mahogany launch which can make at least 14 miles per hour. It is equipped with a new type of 8 h. p. Ferro engine with Bosch magneto.

Wm. E. Moody was one of the first to turn his attention to speed boats and has a varied experience. He has finally had built by Percy G. Rawleigh a "dandy." It is a 30-foot dead-rise launch equipped with a 25 horse-power engine and has great speed possibilities. There are none who enjoy the river more than Mr. Moody but he does not allow his boat to interfere with his business.

New recruits to the ranks are Philip A. M. Brooks and Dr. E. J. Clarke. W. T. Duyer has built them a cruisiug boat, 30 foot dead-rise, trunk cabin, and one of the most comfortable family boats in the harbor, and equipped with 15 h. p. Ferro. This boat has been christened "Subert" after the wives of the owners.

Then there is our retired shoe merchant and successful business man, Thomas G. Wroth, who loves the water and has turned the "Red Devil" into "White Wings." It is a steel boat with 8 h. p. Ferro engine and goes along at a 9 or 10 mile clip. Mr. Wroth uses his boat especially to visit fine estate on Chester river opposite "Riverside."

Frank E. Duyer finds time from a busy life to enjoy a spin in the "Evelyn," a 30-foot dead rise launch of his own design and equipped with a 21 h. p. Grey racing engine. It is a family boat capable of about 12 miles per hour.

Allan A. Harris has a 22½ foot stern launch equipped with 8 h. p. Ferro and gets much pleasure from taking his friends for a spin. His son, Allan, is chief engineer.

Hynson Rogers is not content except with the best and when he is through with the "Mary I" he will have the best launch on the river. She is a family cabin cruiser, 9 h. p. Knox engine and being fitted with electric lights, etc.

Eben F. Perkins has a compromise dory with 2 cyclinder 5 h. p. Knox engine and goes along at a 9 mile clip.

Fred. Robinson launched a few weeks ago a boat built by himself known as a hunting cabin cruiser, dead rise, with 9 h. p. Knox engine and can glide alooig at about 9 mile per hour.

The "Taxicab" owned by Capt. L. K. Stam hauls people everywhere. It is a 30 foot torpedo stern launch with 9 h. p. Lackawanna.

Chas. S. Smith has a 23 foot beauty with 5½ h. p. Ferro and makes 9 miles per hour.

The "Club" boat, Capt. F. H. Russell, gives pleasure to its owners during the summer and plods along at a 8 mile gait. It is equipped with a 3 h. p. Knox engine.

R. H. Collins and brother own a family-taxi canoe equipped with 5 h. p. Hubbard engine and carries large parties up and down the river.

W.C. A. Thompson owns the "Relief," the old reliable, which often goes to the help of others and tows them to harbor.

Frank A. Greenwood owns a natty little launch which has possibly held more fish than any other pleasure boat on the river. Some call her "Pumpkin Seed" but she also has another name.

Father Heavey owns the "Ave Marie" a dead rise boat with 5½ Ferro and makes 8 miler per hour.

Then there are Capt. Edw. W. Emory's beauty, Geo. Kirby's bateau, George V. Byron's 20 foot bateau with 3 h. p. Ferro engine, Jones & Hancock's 16 foot steel boat, Raymond Wilkins' "Lillie Ann," Caples Bros.' 18 foot launch the noise of which wakes the town as she comes and goes at all hours, Douglas Foster's yacht, Howard Hadaway's lean hound and others.

Capt. Thos. Ware expects to have a flyer having copied Capt. Stam's model.

Chestertown is proud of its fleet of launches and there should be a Launch Club started so that more pleasure and sport could be afforded. "In union there is strength."

Capt. Louis K. Stam entered the "Nancy" in the Cambridge races and reports that the judges gave him a bad deal.
