Special Notice to Ladies

Our large purchase of Ladies' Suits for this season are now completed and the final lots have arrived, and are ready for selling. These Suits are just what you are looking for. Our strong argument is that you get them just a "little cheaper" than elsewhere. These specials should sell at sight.

Prettiest Wash Fabrics

We say prettiest, for surely there never were any prettier Wash Fabrics than these we are showing. Organdies, Dimities, Batistes, French Ginghams, Lawns and Voiles crowd each other for room, and when you consider that the prices are so very low the goods become very tempting.

Embroideries : An Endless Variety

There are All-Overs, Edgings and Insertions—baby width, medium widths and flounce widths. Patterns from a fraction of an inch to a half yard, with unusually liberal margins. The designs are beautiful, artistic and diversified. Neat exquisite effects for baby clothes and women's lingerie, dainty styles for trimming waists and showy elaborate combinations for flounces and ruffles.

Mr. George's Will.—The will of the late Joseph George, one of the wealthiest men in Queen Annes county has been admitted to probate, and its main features are as follows:

He leaves his daughters, Mrs. Merrick, and Mrs. Roe, each two farms.

His son, Mr. John E. George, receives the Wye farm, which came to his father by the will of Mr. John E. George's grandfather.

To his invalid son in Cecil county is left the proceeds of four farms during his life.

The balance of the farms, about 30 in number, are left to his widow for life, then to go the children, except the home farm, which he bequeaths to his grandson, Dudley G. Roe, on condition that he go to live with his grandmother.

Mr George also left the income from a number of shares of bank stock for the maintenance of St Luke's Parish, which includes St. Luke's, Church Hill, and St. Andrew's, Sudlersville.

Yachts in Kent Waters.—Members of the Maryland Motor Boat Club arrived at Chestertown Sunday morning on their way to Millington, Md., where they are spending a few days. The boats left the Baltimore club on Saturday afternoon, July 29th. During their cruise they expect to visit Love Point, Chestertown, Millington and other points, returning home about August 15th. The Maryland Motor Boat Club is the most popular boat club on the water front and boasts of having some of the finest yachts on the Chesapeake, and the members are having a great time.

Among the yachts on the cruise are the Esther, Capt. Ambrose Vogt, Joseph A. Vaeth, Ed. A. Weilier, Wm. D. Hoofuagle, Geo. F. Vaeth; Alapa—Capt. H. Wirt Steele, Mrs. H. Wirt Steele, Miss Catherine Edwards, Mr. Frank L. Vaeth; Starhawk—Capt. Walter Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Steir, Miss Nellie Defalco, Miss Catherine Shott; Sea Nymph—Capt. Authur Jenkins, Mr. Percy Hains, Mr. John Hains, Mr. Frank Semler. Owing to a slight misunderstanding in the schedule, Capt. George Townsend, of Millington, who was to meet them at Chestertown and pilot the yachts up to Millington, did not arrive as was expected, and Mr. Mulford Peterson, of Chestertown, was prevailed upon and gladly consented to pilot them up the river where they met Mr. Townsend. The yachts made the trip to Chestertown Tuesday with a large party of Millington ladies and gentlemen as their guests.
