SATURDAY MORNING.....JULY 21, 1883

HAD A GOOD MEMORY.

A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand, whom he was trying to brow-beat. It was an important issue, and in order to save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that Mr. A. should impeach the witness.—He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:

Lawyer—How old are you?

Witness—Seventy-two years.

Lawyer—Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?

Witness—I do not know but what it is.

Lawyer—State some circumstances which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how well you can remember.

Witness—I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner; it is insolent.

Judge—You had better answer the question.

Lawyer—Yes, sir; state it!

Witness—Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago you studied in Judge B.'s office, did you not?

Lawyer—Yes.

Witness—Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me: "Mr. D. my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you could lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a new suit of clothes." I remember, also, from that day to this, he has not paid me that sum.—That, sir, I remember as though it was but yesterday.

BALKY HORSES.

A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals recommends the following rules for the treatment of balky horses:

1. Pat the horse upon the neck, examine the harness carefully, first on one side and then on the other, speak encouragingly while doing so, then jump into the wagon and give the word go; generally he will obey.

2. A teamster in Maine says he can start the worst balky horse by taking him out of the shafts and making him go round in a circle. If the first dance of this kind does not cure him, the second will be sure to do it.

3. To cure a balky horse simply place your hand over the horse's nose and shut off his wind till he wants to go; then let him go.

4. The brains of horses seem to entertain but one idea at a time; thus continued whipping only confirms his stubborn resolve. If you can by any means give him a new subject to think of you will have no trouble in starting him. A simple remedy is to take a couple of turns of stout twine around the fore leg, just below the knee, and tie in a bow knot. At the first check he will go dancing off; and after going a short distance you can get out and remove the string to prevent injury in your further drive.—Indiana Farmer.

GIRLS OF THE BLUE GRASS REGION.

The women here, says a correspondent of the Cincinnati News-Journal, have gorgeous nature to build on and high art to improve it with.—When the Bona Dea, out of her bounteousness, makes a Blue Grass woman, she takes care never to spoil the job. A soft, white, warm body, translucent with divine light and curving to lines of beauty as naturally as the tendrils of the vine, is the groundwork upon which nature limns the human angel. Eyes softly bright, but luminously intense; cheeks like the damask rose, with buttercups of dimples, in whose honeyed heart sly Puck or Oberon might sleep, lips like ox-heart cherries at the centre, but flexible as a smoke wreath and fading away into the cheek like the heart's blood of a strawberry into a luscious cream; a chin fairly fashioned as the golden apple that blushing Paris gave to Venus, who trembled with delight at taking it; the brow of Juno and the bust of Hebe; the sea nymph's springy step—these are a few of the charms that nature gives the maidens of the Blue Grass.

"A RATHER AMUSING STORY," says the editor of the Eastern Virginian, "was told at Drummondtown a short time ago by a distinguished limb of the legal profession. It seems that a love-sick swain, who lives near that place, had a sweetheart whose personal beauty was marred by the fact that she had lost her teeth. Wishing to increase the charms of his Dulcinea, he procured a new set of artificial teeth for her; but no sooner had she possessed herself of them than she gave her lover the 'grand bounce.' Feeling outraged at such treatment, he determined to deprive her of her teeth by force of arms if necessary. In the scuffle that ensued he got his finger in his faithless sweetheart's mouth, but she bit him so savagely that he was glad to give up the struggle and acknowledge that he had been both duped and whipped."

"WILL I have time to step off and get some refreshments?" asked a drummer on a Texas railroad, of the conductor, as the train stopped at a station. "You will have plenty of time." The drummer stepped off and the train went on without him. The next time the drummer saw that conductor he took him to task very severely for his conduct, complaining that he had to lay over at that station seven hours. "Well," replied the conductor, "you asked me if you would have time to get some refreshments, and if you could not get all you wanted in seven hours, it seems to me you are a hog." Verdict for the conductor and no appeal.—Texas Siftings.

MRS. MCKAY, of Yreka, Cal., is said to possess more courage and presence of mind and strength combined than any other schoolmarm in the world. While on her way to school through an open field she was attacked by an infuriated steer. To have turned and run might have been fatal, and no gallant young man was near enough to rush to her rescue. She therefore, did the only thing that could save her—literally took the bull by the horns, and so held on to him until help arrived. She is regarded in the vicinity of Yreka with much admiration.

"WHERE are your kids?" a society man asked, looking at the bare hands of a poor, but deserving editor at Vanderbilt's party. "At home in bed," was the indignant reply. "Do you suppose I'd bring my children to a party like this?"

RUSKIN says no couple should marry until they have courted seven years. This would lead one to think that Ruskin runs a soda fountain.

And is a sure cure for DEBILITY resulting from any cause, thinness or sluggishness of the blood, derangement of the Digestive Organs, Diseases of the Nervous System, Typhus, Typhoid and Intermittent Fevers, Ague and Fever, and is the very best counteracter of malarial influences and cure for malarial diseases, and as a nervine and sedative, quieting the nervous system, and inducing Refreshing Sleep, it has no equal. It is endorsed by medical practitioners here and is frequently prescribed by them in their practice, and is considered one of the very best remedial agents known for the diseases for which we recommend it. We challenge the closest scrutiny into its composition and virtues. Read the following:

EXPLANATION OF THE ABOVE MEDICINE.

PHOSPHORUS—Means light, and medically imparts strength and vigor to the system, as the rays of the sun do to animal and vegetable life.

IRON—Is a purifier and enricher of the blood, the most important of the constituents of the human body.

QUININE—Is the Tonic of Tonics, and exercises a powerful and healthful influence upon the digestive organs, and finally STRYCHNIA—In very small proportions (as in this combination) is a most excellent nervine, acting upon and regulating the entire nervous system. Ask your physician about the above formula, and he will say it is good.

Price in large bottles $1; Trial bottles 35c. Pills in boxes $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sent by mail to any point, free of charge, upon receipt of price. Prepared and sold by

DAVIS & MILLER,

No. 12 N. Howard St., Baltimore.

A pamphlet of full explanations of the above medicine, and treating of its composition and administration, and stating the diseases to which it is applicable, will be cheerfully given to any one who may call on me, it will be sent free to any address furnished by postal card, and will also hereafter accompany each bottle. o21y.
