KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

The election of officers for the Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Church, took place last Friday evening in the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clendaniel with the following result:—President, Mrs. J. W. Urie; Vice-pres., Mrs. Elias T. Othoson; Sect'y, Miss Emma Shafer; Treasurer, Mrs. James Weer, Sr.; Organist, Mrs. E. Linwood Redmile; Assistant Organist, Miss Lula Vandyke. During the election of officers Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux was called to the chair. All the officers were elected by unanimous vote of the society. The president, Mrs. Urie, proposed that steps be taken to secure new members, and that greater interest be manifest to make the regular monthly meetings more attractive. A large amount of important business was transacted in a most harmonious manner.

The new Baldwin canning factory is doing a lively business and it needs to hustle very vigorously to use up the wagon loads of fruit which are now daily pouring in by the hundreds. The new and up-to-date machinery, clean and sanitary, is working beautifully.

The State road men, working between Kennedyville and Locust Grove, are forging ahead, making a most splendid road-bed.

Just at this time our farmers are much pushed by their work, picking tomatoes, cutting off corn and preparing the soil for sowing the wheat crop.

Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield, of Chestertown, spent Monday of this week with Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux, at the M. P. parsonage.

Miss Maggie Harper, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington, and with the latter attended church service Sunday morning last in the M. P. Church.

Services for the M. P. Church for Sunday next will be as follows: 9.30 a. m., Sunday school; 10.30 a. m, Sermon by the pastor, topic, "The Day of Small Things." Everybody most cordially invited and all members of the Aid Society are urgently requested to be present. Song service and brief sermon in the evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Mr. John Medders and Miss Annie Weer are elected as delegates to the Eastern Shore Sunday School Convention, to be held in the town of Easton, Sept. 27th and 28th. All pastors are members by virtue of their office.

THE BITTER CAMPAIGN IN CANADA

The campaign in Canada against reciprocity has degenerated into a wild, unreasoning attack on the United States and Americans in general. Rudyard Kipling's cablegram in which he pleaded with Canada not to barter her soul for trade with a murderous nation is not one whit more ridiculous than some of the statements of Canadian orators and newspapers. "Taft's Plot to Annex Canada" is exposed time and again. The American trusts are pictured as waiting the word to come across and gobble up Canada's factories. Though we on this side of the line know that the trusts oppose reciprocity, the Conservatives circulate the report that they are spending immense sums to carry the agreement in Canada, and a Montreal newspaper advertises $25,000 reward for the discovery of those who have given this corruption fund. The $25,000 is safe enough, for the Laurier American campaign fund exists only in the imagination of politicians. The Toronto Mail and Empire prints these startling headlines:

Two Million Men Out of Work in States—They Look Hungrily at the Good Jobs of Canadian Industrial Workers Taft's Scheme Will Help Them to Capture—Will You Hold Your Job?

The article that follows begins thus:

Hundreds of thousands of men are walking the streets of American cities vainly looking for work, and hundreds of thousands more are working half time. James J. Hill, who is an authority on industrial affairs, says that many thousands more in American centres will lose their jobs. The dark cloud of depression overhangs the country. Hard times are upon it, and this winter the soup kitchen and bread line will be as familiar a sight as they were in 1907, the year of the last panic

Canadian newspapers are filled with such misleading statements; with assertions so manifestly false that only the densely ignorant or supremely prejudiced could believe them.

The Canadian leaders know, as well as we Americans do, that there is no danger whatever of the annexation of Canada by the United States. Yet they are circulating by the millions articles, from minor publications almost unknown in the States where they are published, advocating annexation, as expressions of the sentiment of this country. They have seized upon annexation as the issue, and have used it to fan the fires of hate against Americans.

When Parliament was dissolved on July 29 the Government had 133 votes in the House; the opposition, 88, a Liberal majority of 45. In order to defeat reciprocity and overthrow Laurier, the Conservatives must gain 23 seats. They are pushing the campaign in every district, from Nova Scotia to Yukon. The Conservatives declare they will gain 38 seats; the Liberals hope to hold their majority. Both are expecting an extremely close election, with the result to be determined only by the final count. Sir Wilfrid Laurier professes confidence in the outcome, but there is no doubt that he is fighting for his political life.

Death of Mrs. Dan M. Cochran.

Mrs. Adaline Lusby Cochran, wife of Dan M. Cachran, and daughter of Alexander Wilson, died at her husband's home Tuesday evening after a lingering illness, aged 60 years. Mrs. Cochran was born in Cecil county, Md., and married Mr. Cochran on January 29, 1873. Mrs. Cochran had been in poor health for some time but had apparently grown much better and her death was quite unexpected. She was a remarkable woman and had many warm friends, all of whom sympathize with her bereaved family. Besides her husband she is survived by eleven children as follows: A. Wilson Cochran, of Sassafras, Md.; Mrs. Nellie Lockwood, Mrs. Mabel Horsey, Mr. Dan M. Cochran, of Middletown; Mrs. Addie L. Crawford, of Warwick, Md.; Richard L. Cochran, of Middletown; Mrs. Jennie Woodall, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ethel Price, A. Woodall Cochran, and Misses Alice and Mary Cochran, residing at home. Funeral services were held at her late residence Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Percey L. Donaghay, rector of St. Anne's Church officiating; interment in Forest cemetery.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
