BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

HOWARD AND LEXINGTON

MEN'S FALL UNDERWEAR OF UNUSUAL GOODNESS

The men's underwear business is a plain everyday business—but we have lifted it out of the rut by handling it in an unusual way.

First, we have an unusually wide range of styles at each price; and, second, we have the out-of-the ordinary sizes which most of the stores do not handle. So, if you are extra-tall or extra-short, or for any reason require underwear outside of the standard scale of sizes, you can be practically sure of finding it in the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Men's Store.

As a result of our policy, our men's underwear business has grown steadily; and as a result of this growth, we can purchase in quantities sufficient to secure to us every possible price advantage. You are sure to get from us the best men's underwear that your money can possibly buy.

RECOUNT IS REFUSED

The Court Of Appeals Decides Kent County Application.

As announced in the NEWS last week the courts cannot be resorted to for an election contest under the provision of the new Primary Election law was the decision of the Conrt of Appeals Tuesday in the cases of Garrett Foxwell, the defeated Democratic candidate for the State Senate from Kent counnty, and other candidates in the recent primaries in this county. The appeals were taken from orders of the Circuit Court for Kent county, which denied the petitioners the relief sought, and Judge Pearce's ruling in each is sustained.

The other petitioners, in addition to Mr. Foxwell, were William C. Townsend against Charles F. Crow and Jesse H. Usilton, and the Board of Election Supervisors against James Bramble and a majority of the State Central Committee for the county. In the Foxwell against Beck and Townsend against Crow cases the Election Supervisors were made parties defendant to each appeal.

The petitioners sought to have a recount of the ballots, alleging that the returns as canvassed by the Supervisors were false and illegal.

Cases Were Hurried To Hearing.

In dismissing the amended petition of the appellants the lower court took the view that neither the General Election laws nor the Primary law enacted in 1910 provides for such contested election cases. The fact that the cases were advanced on the Court of Appeals docket, because of the importance of the questions involved and the desire to secure an early decision, the court filed per curiam orders, affirming the judgement of the lower body, stating that reasons for the action will be set forth in opinions to be filed later.

Lawyers say this decision can have no effect on the situation now before the grand jury of Baltimore city, because it relates to a civil contest while the jury is proceeding under its broad powers as the grand inquest of the State to hunt for evidence of fraud and corruption anywhere it can be found.

In the Foxwell-Beck case, which was regarded as the most important of the four, the per curiam order of the Court follows:

"The order for appeal filed in this case states that it is from an order dismissing the original petition and also from the one dismissing the amended petition of the appellant, who sought to contest the nomination of William W. Beck, as the candidate of the Democratic party for the office of State Senator from Kent county, but it was stated at the hearing that appellant relied on the appeal from the order dismissing the amended petition.

"Later an opinion will be filed giving more fully our reasons for the conclusions reached, but we will now state that in our judgement Chapter 741 of the Acts of 1910, being known as the Primary Election law, makes no provision in terms for such a contest in court, and the provisions for contested elections in other parts of Article 33 of the code are not applicable to this case. The orders will, therefore, be affirmed."

Upholding the right of the State Central Committee to fill the vacancy in candidates for the Orphans' Court because of the tie vote for Bramble and Nicholson the Court says:

"The candidates for the office of judge of the Orphan's Court of Kent county were duly nominated at the Democratic primaries in that county, but there was a tie for the third between James Bramble and John P. Nicholson. The lower court directed the Supervisors of Election to place the name of James Bramble on the official ballots to be voted for at the election to be held on November 7.

"Two of the three members of the Democratic State Central Committee of Kent county, who were elected at the recent primary election, named James Bramble as the candidate of the office of judge of the Orphans' Court on the theory that there was a vacancy by reason of the tie vote. The lower court so held, and we will affirm its order for reasons to be shown in opinion to be hereafter filed."

GALENA ITEMS.

Mrs. G. E. Hicks spent a part of last week with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell went to Philadelphia on Tuesday to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Mr. John Murphy.
