LOCAL NOTES.

BRING your pretty flowers to Firemen's Hall next Wednesday and help make one of the fineest "shows" ever seen in town. Let's all enjoy each other's flowers on this occasion.

THE Flower Show in Firemen's Hall next Wednesday evening will be free, Everybody is invited to bring or send a bouquet of roses, dahlias, chrysanthemums or a potted plants. Luncheon will be served from 5 P. M., for 25 cents.

THE Chestertown Electric Light Co. expect to operate from their new plant on the river next Monday. It is equipped with modern machinery and able to give better service than ever before. Supt. Russell has made good time in making this change.

THE deal for the Centreville Light, Heat and Power Company's Plant in Centreville has been closed and the purchaser is Mr. A. H. Burns, a Philadelphia capitalist. The plant has already been turned over to the purchasers and it is now being operated under their supervision. Mr. Edgar B. Ward, the former Superintendent for the receivers, will be retained.

THE NEWS is in receipt of a Democrat mule from a good friend in Baltimore, who says: "He has been well fed and watered and I think he will stand the journey to old Kent; treat him right and he will help you roll up that 300 majority. Take good care of him and treat him kindly for as you can see he is full blooded." We shall take care of him.

THEODORE KRAMER, an acrobat of the Robbins circus, in an attempt to cross the Pennsylvania tracks at a grade crossing at Bristol, Pa., on Wednesday, was struck by an express train and instantly killed. The show was scheduled to give its last performance of the season. Kramer was an expert wire performer, and his marvelous tricks while in Chestertown were watched by thousands.

IN an attractive adv. in the KENT NEWS, Mr. H. H. Beneman, the dry goods and clothing merchant of Millington, who has been offering the public such great bargains in the past, announces his line of stock for fall and winter buying. The public is cordially invited by Mr. Beneman to call and inspect his lines, in which will be found excellent quality, correct styles and popular prices.

THE Delaware College football team, still smarting under the defeat by Haverford, took revenge on Washington College of Chestertown, Saturday afternoon and won easily by the score of 24 to 0. The game was played on a field of mud and water, and most of the time in a drizzling rain. Delaware scored a touchdown and kicked a goal in each of the four ten-minute periods. It was principally through the fine punting of Fullback Porter for Washington that the score was not much higher. Porter's all-around work featured the game.

FAIRLEE GRANGE held its regular meeting Wednesday and the ten contestants brought in their corn. The result will be announced next week. Mrs. Fletcher as ceres had a very interesting program, including a solo by Mr. Frank Crow, readings by Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, Mrs. E. A. Corey, etc. Methods of seeding wheat, planting and saving corn, address by Mr. J. T. Anthony were also features as well as a splendid supper. William G. Smyth spoke on the origin, selection and breeding of wheat. Mr. J. A. McClary's speech was the feature of the evening, full of beautiful and uplifting sentiment.
