SATURDAY MORNING.....SEPT. 22, 1883.

CHESTERVILLE AND VICINITY.

Messrs. Editors: — As noticed last week in your obituary columns, Capt. Edw. B. Woodall died at his residence, after a long illness, on the 13th inst. The deceased was well and favorably known throughout the county, especially in his own neighborhood, and died possessed of an estate worth probably $20,000. His remains were interred at St. Denis' Church, near Lambson's station, on Monday morning last, and the funeral cortege was one of the largest ever seen in this neighborhood. "Captain Ed," as he was familiarly called, was a brother of Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, and although never, to our knowledge, occupying any public position as a gift from the people, yet he was one of our most prominent and highly respected citizens.

The rainfall last week was barely sufficient to enable farmers to plow fallow. Several miles east of us, in Delaware, the fall was heavier.

"Crumpton Lane," since widened, is one of the prettiest and best roadways in the county.—It ought now to be called Crumpton avenue.

Judging from the noise, bustle &c., on Saturday nights in Chesterville, now-a-days, we should incline to the opinion that there are spirits in the air.

Our elderly friend, Esquire Wm. Medders, of Spry's Gate, seldom, indeed, gets beyond the confines of his own county; but a notion struck him recently, and it struck him so hard that he actually made a ten days' trip to the capitol of our nation—Washington. Accompanying thither that prince of good fellows, his young and genial nephew, Mr. Joseph Ireland, of Washington, the 'Squire was very soon introduced to numerous lady friends, with whom he visited all the public buildings, and "did" the capital generally. He even extended his visit to Mt. Vernon, and beheld the last resting place of the "Father of his Country" with one, two or three beautiful nymphs in crinoline as attendants. "I never felt better in my life," said he, in describing his trip to your humble correspondent, "and would rather live in Washington than any where else on the face of the globe." But too much honey will make any one sick, and our friend was no exception to the rule. Having "done" Washington, he turned his face homeward, and, concluded to take in Baltimore, also. Here, too, "Joe" placed him in the best society, and while escorting a trio of angelic beings, or, rather, while a widow and two lovely damsels were escorting him through Druid Hill Park, the 'Squire suddenly began to shake, [Is it any wonder?] and the more he endeavored not to shake "the more he shook the faster," until crystal fountains, lovely roses and angelic nymphs, all, all sunk into utter insignificance before the icicles forming up and down his back and extending down his limbs. Reluctantly, indeed, did he acknowledge to his fair escorts the grip the old norther had taken on him, and still more reluctantly did he bid them a hasty adieu to get "Joe" to roll him in blankets and iron him with irons, and place hot bricks to his feet until the freeze was over. But a thaw set in, and, in the interim, our friend landed safely on old Kent's healthful shore. All in all, after an absence of thirty-eight years, his visit to Washington was most enjoyable; but like many a younger child, too much sweetness and variety made him sick, and forced him to the more quiet shades of rural life on the banks of the Chester.

"Jeems the Original,"—poor "Jeems!"—his health is very poor, and his former self is being transformed into a far more serious self. Life with him now is not as it was when his friends knew him best. "Original" still, but not as in days gone by.

"Papa, what is a shote?" asked a little girl of her paternal ancestor the other day. "A shote, daughter, is a young porcupine, larger than a pig and not as large as a hog—the boys and girls of swine, dear. And so you are my shote."—"And, so, you are my hog then," quickly retorted the hopeful. The gentleman was speechless.

The sermon of Presiding Elder Martindale in the Chesterville M. E. Church last Sunday evening from 1st Samuel, 4, 13, is very highly commended, and it is to be hoped these seeds of Gospel truth fell into good ground. That of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Townsend, in the afternoon, was excellent, and was termed by the members a "home shot." Such discourses, surely, cannot have been delivered in vain. WALTER.

P. S.—A sentence in our "Observations" last week was intended as a foot-note, and the latter "Camile" should have been so printed. Then, too, if that nonsense had followed all the other items, as requested, no one could have imagined us at all personal, as we did not intend to be.

The Republican Party and the People.

At no time since the second election of Gen. Grant has the Republican party enjoyed the confidence of the nation. At no time during these many years has it been supported by a majority of the voters of the country. Five Houses of Representatives have been elected within the last ten years; only in one of these five the Republicans secured a majority of the members—a majority so slender that at one time it was doubtful whether they could organize the House without outside help. In one of the last two Presidential elections the Republicans were defeated, but by unprecedented frauds retained the position of power which the people had denied to them, while the last Presidential election was carried by wholesale corruption. The feeling of a majority of the nation toward that party is not merely one of distrust, but it is a feeling of utter disgust. This once popular party has become the greatest public nuisance of the country. It is widely felt that its expulsion from power is the first condition for reform and progress. Its removal from the position retained against the popular will does not require any great changes in the popular vote. If the States which for the last twelve years have been more frequently Democratic than Republican declare for the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1884 he will be elected by a large majority.—Buffalo Courier.

SEEKING HARMONY.—The warring democratic factions in Cincinnati, having exhausted themselves in abusing each other, now talk of harmonizing. A conference of the leaders of the factions was held Monday evening and the situation discussed, with a view of adjusting differences and uniting on one ticket. Nothing positive developed except a disposition in the direction of peace, and the conference adjourned, to resume its labors the next evening. In the meantime Senator Pendleton, on whom the Cincinnati Enquirer has ceased to pour its abuse, has taken the stump, and is exciting more enthusiasm than has heretofore been developed during the canvass on the democratic side. At Akron, Saturday night, Mr. Pendleton made an eloquent speech, in which he said he believed in the principles of the democratic party and in the fidelity of its members.—He believed in their devotion to principles, but also to its discipline as the means by which it shall be made effective to carry out those principles, and he "had an abiding faith, wherever local disturbances exist, that good faith, good temper, patience, devotion to principle, devotion to discipline, will before the day of election heal them all, and that the democratic party will present a united front to enter into that great contest in October with a confident hope of victory everywhere." Within the past few days the democratic outlook in Ohio has brightened considerably, so far at least as the State ticket is concerned.

RESULTS OF DREDGING.—Col. Wm. Henry Legg, a member of the State Oyster Commission, in speaking of the oysters to the tongmen of Winchester a few evenings ago at Thomas' schoolhouse, said that upon one occasion during the examination of the beds of the Chesapeake and tributaries, that after hauling a dredge for a hundred yards or more there was caught but one oyster. He also stated that during the same haul a large quantity of shells was taken. This haul was made upon a once prominent bar, but like many others had been totally annihilated by the merciless teeth of the destructive dredge.—Centreville Record.

THE buggy business is about to be revolutionized by a new invention — a single-wheeled buggy. A single wheel is attached to shafts, behind a horse, and a seat is arranged behind the wheel. The buggy can't tip over unless the horse does, and it can go anywhere that a horse can. It looks feasible, but a man riding such a thing will look odd at first. The whole lay-out will look as though a man on a bicycle had run his vehicle on to a horse behind and the two had become telescoped.

A CORNER-STONE OF STATES.—While a condemnation jury of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad were viewing the Morrison property in Cecil county last week they came across, at a point 200 feet south of the railroad line, a three-cornered stone, about three feet high, with the letters M, for Maryland, on one side, D. for Delaware on another, and P. for Pennsylvania on the third. Also marked "Refixed by H. G. S. Key, of Maryland, S. P. Eyre, of Pennsylvania, Geo. Reed Riddle, of Delaware, commissioners in 1849."

STRYCHNINE FOR FOXES.—Farmers in St. Mary's county, Md., whose hen roosts have been robbed by foxes, have resorted to strychnine. Mr. E. H. Posey placed bits of chicken, poisoned by strychnine, in paths in his corn-field where the foxes by their tracks were known to frequent. The result was that on the following morning the carcasses of four were found.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of Friday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry $1 14@1 18; Fultz $1 10@1 13 for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 59@; 59yellow, 63@64 OATS, Maryland, 37.

GEN. GRANT TALKS.—The St. Louis Republican says: Grant the silent has disappeared, and we have in his place Grant the loquacious. To your correspondent this afternoon he spoke freely and positively about political matters and political candidates. He freely declared that he would rather see Conkling President than any man in the United States; that he thought the Democrats had so good a chance this time that he wanted them to make a good nomination, so as to assure a good President if they were victorious; and that, of the Democrats prominently talked of, he thought Randall would make a good, safe President, if the country had to take a Democrat. Asked what he thought of Bayard, he finally declared that he would rather see any other man in the country President. Speaking of Tilden's candidacy, he said if he got elected and delivered his inaugural he would never give his Vice-President any chance of the succession, but would keep himself before the country as President for his full term of four years, even if he died the day after the inauguration. About the part he took in coming to the rescue of Garfield after the nomination, he admitted that it went greatly against the grain, in consequence of Washburn's and Garfield's coquetting with the convention while pretending to serve other interests than their own.

TRAVEL ON THE BIG BRIDGE.—So far travel over the Brooklyn bridge has not realized the expectations of its projectors. Accurate reports of each day's receipts show that the travel from Brooklyn up to 6 A. M. is about 50 cents an hour, and from that hour until 9 o'clock it gradually increases till it reaches $12 or $13. Then from 9 to 11 o'clock it drops to $6 an hour, and continues to drop until 2 P. M., when it averages $3. The sightseers come along about that time. From 7 to 8 P. M. the average is from $5 to $6 an hour, and from that hour to 10 o'clock it runs down. From New York the travel up to 8 A. M. is about 50 cents an hour, and then it begins to pick up and runs up gradually till at noon it averages $6 an hour. At 3 P. M. the average is $4 50, and then, as the Brooklyn men begin to return from business, it starts up and keeps an average of $15 an hour to between 6 and 7 o'clock. Then it gradually drops till 8 o'clock, when it reaches $3. The evening travel from New York averages $5 an hour, dropping to next to nothing at midnight.

A RIVAL FOR MAUD S.

Jay-Eye-See, the plucky little five-year old, owned by J. I. Case, of Racine, Wis., trotted a mile on the Narragansett Park track on last Saturday in 2.10¾ beating his previous record of 2.14, for a purse of $2,000 and coming within a half second of Maud S.'s 2.10¼ record, the best ever made. He trotted the mile evenly and without leaving his feet. The effort is a remarkable one for a five-year-old, and in two more years on the track the black gelding will throw a shadow over the best efforts of Maud S., St. Julien, Clingstone and Edwin Thorne. Jay-Eye-See's sire was Dictator.

THERE are living the north end of Gainesville, Georgia, two young men named John and Sam Pasco, who are twins, and look and dress exactly alike. Two or three years ago they married twin sisters, who look and dress exactly alike. The boys built two cottages that look exactly alike, and each lady has a child about the same age, who look very nearly exactly alike. All are in excellent health, and last week the whole party came to that city behind a span of beautiful mules that were nearly exact matches. The boys are partners in the mercantile busines, and are prosperous gentlemen.

DID NOT WANT A BOAT NAMED FOR HER. — The daughter of an oysterman had a tiff with her lover because she would not allow him to name his new boat for her. "Why do you stand out ag'in it?" asked her father. "Well," queried the girl, "do you think it such a great compliment to hear every few weeks that Matildy Slocum's up for repairs, Matildy Slocum's in the dock to be scraped, or that Matildy Slocum's lost any of her fixin's generally? Well now, if you do, I don't; and that's got to settle it!"—Cambridge Chronicle.

PHILADELPHIA is to have four assistant superintendents of schools—two men and two women. The men are to be paid $2,500 a year and the women but $1,800. The Philadelphia Times says the reason for the difference in compensation is "simply the old and inevitable law of supply and demand," and that "a man fit to be an assistant superintendent of public schools can get more than $2,500 at some other business, while, as things go, $1,800 is a large salary for a woman."

THE largest cattle ranch in the world is said to be that of Charles Goodnight's, at the head of the Red River, Texas. He began buying land four years ago, securing 270,000 acres at thirty-five cents per acre. In the meantime the price has advanced from $1 to $2 per acre, but he is still buying, and controls 700,000 acres. To enclose his land possessions 250 miles of fence is required. On the range he has 40,000 cattle.

A PITTSBURG jury gave a verdict against a railroad company for the amount of money stolen from a passenger in a sleeping car. "Since the defendant," the Judge charged, "sold a ticket for $2 in addition to the regular rates of passage, offering the facilities of sleeping as an inducement to pay the extra money, it bound itself to protect its patrons while they were asleep and for the time being helpless."

THE Chicago Daily News publishes a large number of letters from physicians of that city in answer to a circular asking their opinions as to the probability of a cholera epidemic in this country next year or within the next few years. Most of them anticipate more or less cholera in this country next year, and urge the necessity of a thorough observance of sanitary precautions.

THE widow and daughter of Bayard Taylor have declined a purse of $30,000 subscribed by the ladies of New York. They are supporting themselve. This is the right kind of independence. A country with such women can do almost anything.

JAY COOKE has not only paid dollar for dollar his vast indebtedness, but is now worth a million dollars at least, fortunate mining speculations in Colorado having made him again a millionaire. The other members of the old firm have also done well.

EX-PRESIDENT POLK'S widow was made the recipient of a large flat bouquet, skillfully arranged with the figure 80 in the centre, on the eightieth anniversary of her birth. It was from her neighbors in Nashville.

THE candidates for Governor of New Jersey are Leon Abbott, democrat, and Judge Jonathan Dixon, republican. Both are said to be able and popular.

PARTRIDGES, it is said, will be plentiful this Fall, and our sportsmen anticipate some fine shooting.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined sections of the registration law, which bear particularly upon the rights of the citizen and the powers and duties of the Register:

SECTION 3. And be it enacted, That each of the said officers of registration shall have, in addition to the other powers conferred upon him by this Act, or which may be hereafter conferred upon him by law, during the respective times of his appointed sittings, under the provisions of this Act, the powers of a Justice of the Peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands, at or around his place of registration—to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed, to prevent and suppress riots, tumult, violence and disorder and all other improper practices, at, around or near to his place of registration, tending to intimidation, or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or of the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters or poll-books, hereinafter referred to, while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him, while sitting as an officer of registration, for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office, by summons and attachments; he may, while sitting as such officer of registration, commit for trial, any person committing, at or around his place of registration, any offence forbidden by this Act; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments, when sitting in any county of this State, to the Sheriff of said county, or to any Constable thereof; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a Judge of a Court of Record, having jurisdiction of the subject matter, or by a Justice of the Peace, exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions; the Sheriff or Constable, in any county of this State, who shall serve any of said processes, shall receive the same fees, and in like manner, as it is, or may be by law provided, that he shall receive fees in other State cases; but no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this Act, except such as is provided by this Act.

SECTION 34. And be it enacted, That if any officer of registration shall fraudulently register, or fraudulently permit to be registered in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as officer of registration, any person who is not entitled to be registered therein as a qualified voter, or if any other person not authorized by the proper Judges or Judge, shall inscribe the name of any person as a qualified and registered voter in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters, or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently refuse or omit to register, or shall fraudulently misspell in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any person entitled under the provisions of this Act to have his name inscribed in such registry of voters, or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters, or from any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any qualified and registered voter entitled to remain inscribed upon such registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters, or if any person not authorized by the proper order of the Judges or Judge, shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters, or list of qualified and registered voters, the name of any person therein inscribed as a qualified and registered voter, or if any officer of registration shall enter the name of any person as a qualified voter in any registry of voters in his charge, as an officer of registration, at any time, except on a day appointed by this Act for one of his public sittings as an officer of registration, and except between the hours appointed for such public sitting, or if any officer of registration shall do any act which is by this Act forbidden to be by him done, or shall omit to do any act which is by this Act required to be by him done, such officer of registration, whether he be a principal or assistant officer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a competent Court, shall be punished by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid.

SECTION 35. And be it enacted, That if any person shall fraudulently register, or attempt to register, in any election district, or election precinct, in this State, in the name of any other person, living or dead, or under any fictitious name, or shall fraudulently cause himself to be registered, or attempt to cause himself to be fraudulently registered in any election district, or election precinct in this State, knowing that he has not the right to be registered in such election district, or election precinct, or shall, by force, threats, menace, intimidation, or other unlawful means, prevent or hinder, any person having a lawful right to register, from duly exercising such right, or who shall compel, or endeavor to compel, by any such means, any officer of registration to admit to registration any person not legally entitled thereto, or who shall unlawfully interfere with any officer of registration in the discharge of his duties under this Act, or who shall make any assault and battery, or incite or create any riot or any breach of the peace, at or near to any place of registration in this State during the sittings of any officer of registration provided for by this Act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a competent Court, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or by both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid.

SECTION 21. And be it enacted, That each officer of registration appointed under this Act, shall, within five days after each of the several sittings, in the year 1882, make and publish in hand-bill form a complete list of all persons registered at said several sittings, and shall, in the year 1883, and in each year thereafter, within three days after the expiration of his September sitting, and within the same time after the expiration of his October sitting, make complete and publish two alphabetical lists, one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names of those persons whom said officers have stricken from any registry of voters, or list of qualified and registered voters, delivered to said respective officers by said respective Clerks of Courts; and the other, one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names and residences of the persons whom said respective officers of registration have newly registered as qualified voters in their respective election districts, or election precincts, at their said preceding sitting, and also the names of the persons whom the proper Judges or Judge, acting under the authority conferred by this Act, have or has ordered to be registered in said election district, or election precinct; the said respective officers of registration shall cause said respective lists to be published by hand-bills, posted in such public places as they may respectively select, in their respective election districts, or election precincts

SECTION 24. And be it enacted, That no officer of registration in this State shall register any name in any registry of voters, of which he may have the custody as an officer of registration, or strike any name from any such registry of voters, or make any other entry in such registry, except upon a day appointed by this Act, for a public sitting of such officer of registration, nor except between the hours appointed by this Act, for his sitting on such day, except by or under the order of the proper Judges or Judge, as in this Act provided.
