SATURDAY MORNING.....APRIL 30, 1887

Written for the Kent News.

LENT.

"And He was there, in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan, and was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered unto Him."
—ST. MARK, chap. i, verse 13.

March winds sigh and moan over this waste of creation;
Cold is the air and sad is the aspect of nature;
Above, the sad-eyed stars look down on this desolate country.
Here, in the silence and shadow, away from the din and confusion,
Wanders the Lord's anointed,
Wanders the Paschal Lamb without shelter.
Alone in the midst of the desert,
Sadly the night-winds moan and sweep over the sand heaps;
Sadly the stars shine in the heavens above Him.
In silence and mystery and sorrow He is working and praying for others,
For the sins of the ages gone and the sins of the coming ages.
"The birds of the air have their nests, and foxes their holes in the ground,"
But He is without home in the desert;
Around in the night creeps the stealthy step of the panther,
Or loud on the stillness the shriek of the jackal breaks silence.

Away, on the western horizon, glistens the Holy of Holies,
And Jerusalem sits in her pride, high on the tops of the mountains.
Yonder in Herod's palace there is dancing and music and feasting,
Light and joy and gladness
Measure the season advancing;
Beautiful faces from the voluptuous courts of the Cæsars;
Men of distinction in rank and high in the world's estimation;
While from the Sanhedrim, the loftiest pride of Israel,
Proclaims the law, and the prophets,
Authority and pride swing hand into hand together,
Forging the chains that will rivet their final destruction;
Planning the crucifixion of Him who is praying and fasting,
Praying for them and all others, alone in the midst of the desert.

Over the waste of rocks and sand in the silence
When Jesus is weakened by fasting
Comes the Spirit of Darkness, the tempter,
Robed in the garments of sin and its radiance around him,
Conceit and vain-glory encircle his forehead,
His vestments are heavy with the perfumes of earthly enjoyments;
Falsehoods, intemperance, dishonors form his train of attendants,
And are gliding to and fro in the shadows
With obeisance profound and a smile of winning persuasion
He approaches the kneeling Messiah,
And there, in the desert, apart from mankind in the secret recesses of nature,
Two forces approach, the spirits of goodness and evil,
And THERE, for all time it is proved, the power of good OVER evil.

If thou be the Son of God "make bread of these stones," he whispers.

Over the solitude drear falls the calm, sad tones of the Saviour;
Words that ring through the cycles of time
And penetrate down to the Present—
"Man cannot live by bread alone, but by God's word"
It is written—
And from the deep caves and abysses echo repeats, "It is written."
Worship me, worship me," persuades Satan, "and all power on earth I will give thee."
Hush! all about in the air is singing a chorus of angels—
An invisible chorus of angels;
Prayer has caught wings and returns with its comfort—
"Get thee behind me Satan, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only."
And from the deep caves and abysses echo repeats, "It is written."
Baffled and balked where he meant to devour,
Went heralding the Spirit of Evil;
Down into hidden chasms he fled among vanishing shadows;
While over the weary "Messiah" angels of light
Swung their censers and poured consolation upon Him
Are there not times in all lives when we welcome the Lenten season,
When we long to retreat into shadow and commune undisturbed with the spirit,
When there art is o'ertaxed with emotions and we need ministrations of angels,
When by fasting and prayer we can resist the temptations around us
And aim to a life of perfection.

THE fact is, that while most women like to be as well-dressed as their means permit, they would save enough out of the "waste" of a bachelor's income to clothe themselves neatly and keep a good table in the bargain.—Balt. Herald.

Remarkable Success!!

—THE—
IMPERIAL BURNER!

I herewith annex a few testimonials:

I never could find a lamp which would give a satisfactory light until I was furnished with the Imperial by Mr. Stam. W. J. SCOTT.

Eight burners light my Hall brilliantly. They give more light and less trouble than any burner I have ever used. COLIN F. STAM.

Mr. L. K. Stam—Dear Sir—The Eight Light Chandelier purchased of you, with the Imperial Burner has given perfect satisfaction, lighting up the entire hall, and was commented upon favorably by all present.
Yours, &c., T. A. HULME.

I am delighted with my lamp; never had so much satisfaction with light before. H. W. VICKERS.

I have tried several different kinds of Burners in lighting my store, and find the Imperial excels them all; it gives more light and greater satisfaction than any I ever used. M. T. GOSLEE.

Reference is also given to any one using the burner. It is not necessary for me to say any more regarding this burner, though I give the simple and only directions needed:

DIRECTIONS.—The Burner when sent out is wicked and properly trimmed. After that it needs no trimming whatever, or further attention than occasionally wiping off with a soft cloth. In lighting, never use paper. When the Lamp is lighted, turn up the wick gradually until the chimney is heated, then turn to full height. The chimney requires no wiping or other cleaning than rinsing in cold water, and allowing it to drain and dry.

These burners can be bought at the Paint Store next door to Goslee's Shoe Store.

YOU can be cured

of RHEUMATISM by using
RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

It is not a cure-all. It cures nothing but Rheumatism, but it is a safe and sure cure for that disease. Thousands who have been cured will testify to its reliability.

MR. G. B. ULMER, of 1621 N. 12th St., Philada., wrote four months after he had been cured by the Russian Rheumatism Cure (waiting to see whether it would not return), saying he was bedridden with the disease, and thought he would lose his reason from the agony he had to endure; and inside of two weeks he was cured by this remedy, although he had his house physician, and used other remedies without result, previous to trying this wonderful remedy.

MR. CHAS. A. COX, American and Morris St., Phila., said: "My wife was bedridden, and her condition made me despair. 4 Doctors and everything else failed. The Russian Rheumatism Cure cured her in one week."

"DEERING"

and we take great pleasure in announcing to our farmers that the DEERING ALL STEEL BINDER is superior to all others in LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT, MECHANICAL CONSTRUCTION and DURABILITY, having been thoroughly tested in other sections and having been the VICTOR in every field trial in this country.

There are 119 Deering Binders at work in Kent county and all of them are settled for, and have harvested 10,000 acres of wheat, while every purchaser is delighted with the machine.

Do not buy until you have examined the Deering all Steel Binder, and I am sure you will have no other. Sample Machines can be seen at my shops in Galena, as well as at H. H. Hyland's shops in Chestertown.

No Boiling, No Scalding Of Clothes.

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

Ask Your Grocer For It.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.
WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
