It was Theodore Roosevelt who said "Chautauqua is the most American thing in America"—an admirable way of saying that it magnifies social, moral and political harmonies. In its audiences the rich and poor elbow each other—its program is patriotic, but nonpartisan—its platform is clearly moral, but never sectarian. Without regard to class or creed or party or social stratification, its gospel is always that of genuine uplift and of broadening vision.

JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA A TREAT FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS

Special plans for the children in connection with the coming Chautauqua include the usual good time of the regular Junior Chautauqua, with its games, thrilling stories, its good time songs and the most wonderful of all the junior plays, "Good Fairy Thrift," written especially for them by Mrs. Nan Oppenlander Eberle, the founder of Junior Chautauqua.

Tamaqua (Pa.) Children Who Took Part In the Play Which Was on the Program the Closing Day at Each Chautauqua.

Pyramid Builders, Junior Chautauqua, Shelburne Falls, Mass.

In addition to these usual preparations, however, are two extras, put on the program for good luck. "In the Village of Ding-Dong-Bell" is a Mother Goose fantasie prepared for the children and staged by members of the "Chimes of Normandy" cast. Paul Fleming, the magician, is the second of these extras for the children.

"Seven Joyous Days."
(From Shamokin Daily Dispatch, April 20, 1917.)

Chautauqua's "seven joyous days" in Shamokin are over for this season.

The programs presented have been of high character, entertaining, enjoyable, educational and helpful. It is doubtful if more that is really worth while could be crowded into one week at so small a cost as has been given by Chautauqua. Dr. Forbush, the platform superintendent, made many warm friends while in town and will be cordially welcomed if he should be identified with Shamokin's future Chautauquas.

It is to Shamokin's credit that there has been so urgent a demand for another session next year. Shamokin could not afford to drop out of the Chautauqua circuit, and the sentiment for its continuance shows an appreciation for something that is worth while.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol.

Order of Publication

George E. Wright, Father and next friend of Edmund M. Wright, and George E. Wright, Jr., Infants; Emma C. Wright, Martha J. McWhorter, John D. Urie, Trustee, versus

Thomas H. McWhorter, Adult; Edmund M. Wright and George E. Wright, Jr., Infants; Non-resident Defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity. No. 2011.

THE object of this suit is to secure the sale under the decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Md., in Equity, of the lands and premises designated as No. 2, and containing 172 acres, 2 roods of land, described in a deed of trust from Martha J. McWhorter to Robert J. Catts, dated February 25th, 1902, and duly recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 6, folio 216, &c., of the Land Records for said Kent county, which farm is located in the First Election District of said Kent county, state of Maryland.

The Bill recites that by said deed the said Martha J. McWhorter conveyed to one Robert M. Catts in trust the said farm, along with other lands and premises, this farm being designated in said deed as No. 2, for the use and benefit of Emma C. Wright for life, with remainder over in fee to her two children then living, the above entitled infant defendants, Edmund M. Wright and George E. Wright, Jr., and on their death before their mother, then to the brothers and sisters of the said Emma C. Wright, of which brothers and sisters the said Thomas H. McWhorter is the only survivor.

That subsequent to the said deed Ola J. Catts, the only surviving sister of Emma C. Wright and Martha J. McWhorter conveyed to the said Emma C. Wright by deed, a certified copy of which as Exhibit No. 2, is filed with said Bill as a part thereof, two thirds of the net income of the said farm and all the contingent interest of the said Ola J. Catts therein, and in which deed said tract is designated as No. 2.

That John D. Urie, Esq., one of the above entitled plaintiffs is Trustee by appointment of this Honorable Court in succession to the said Robert M. Catts.

That said property by reason of the dilapidated condition of the buildings and fencing and depreciation of the land is almost untenantable and may become quite so upon a fall in the price of farm products and that it would therefore be to the material advantage, benefit and interest of the said infants remainder holders as well as of all others having an interest in said farm and premises that it be sold and the proceeds invested and further depreciation in said remainder interest be arrested so as to produce an assured income for the future for those thereto entitled while the said farm can be sold as cultivatable and tenantable.

That there is no money with which the required improvements and repairs can be made in the Trust Estate.

To the end therefore:

That the said farm and premises may be sold under the decree of this Court and the funds derived therefrom invested under the control of said Court and that the plaintiffs may have such further and other relief as their interests may require, it is prayed that the above entitled defendants, Edmund M. Wright and Geo. E. Wright, Jr., infants as aforesaid, who reside at 139 W. Fishers Avenue, Olney, in Philadelphia county, State of Pennsylvania, with their parents, the said George E. Wright and Emma C. Wright; and Thomas H. McWhorter, who also resides in the State of Pennsylvania, but whose address is unknown, are non-residents of the State of Maryland, are prayed to be proceeded against as non-residents of the State of Maryland by order of publication as against non-residents.

It is thereupon this 3rd day of August, A. D., 1917, by the Circuit Court of Kent County, State of Maryland, in Equity, ordered that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 3rd day of september A. D. 1917, give notice to the said Edmund M. Wright and George E. Wright, Jr., the non-resident infant defendants, who reside at No. 139 W. Fishers Avenue, Olney, Philadelphia County, State of Pennsylvania, and Thomas H. McWhorter non-resident adult but supposed to reside in the State of Pennsylvania, but whose address is unknown, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 20th day of September A. D. 1917, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as praved.
