William Greenwell against
Joseph Parsons Exors
of Clement Parsons

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the first day of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety five the Plaintiff by Philip Barton Key his Attorney sued out of our General Court the Writ of the State of Maryland of Scire facias directed to the Sheriff of Saint Marys County, in the words and figures following, to wit — The State of Maryland To the Sheriff of Saint Marys County Greeting whereas William Greenwell lately in our General Court on the second Tuesday of May in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety two and by Judgment of the same Court recover against Clement Parsons late of Saint Marys County planter, otherwise called Clement Parsons of Saint Marys County and State aforesaid the sum of sixty two thousand one hundred and two pounds of Crop Tobacco a certain Debt and also Eight hundred and thirteen pounds of Tobacco, his Damages, which he had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of that Debt as for his Costs and charges by him about his Suit, in that behalf expended, whereof the said Clement Parsons is convicted, as it appears to us of Record. And whereas on the second Tuesday of October seventeen hundred and ninety three then it was adjudged in our said General Court that the aforesaid William Greenwell should have execution against Joseph Parsons Executor of the Testament and last will of the Said Clement Parsons who is since deceased for the Debt Damages and Costs aforesaid as also the quantity of Five hundred and forty three pounds of Tobacco which was then and there adjudged for his Costs and charges by reason of the delay of the Execution of the Judgment aforesaid, whereof the said Joseph Parsons Executor as aforesaid is convicted to be levied of the Goods and chattels which were of the said Clement Parsons at the time of his death in the hands of the said Joseph Parsons to be administered; And now on the behalf of the said William Greenwell we have in our said Court, before us understood, that, although the Judgment thereof is given, yet execution for the Debt and Damages aforesaid still remains to be made for him, wherefore the Same William Greenwell hath implored us to grant him a proper remedy in this behalf; and we being willing that what is just in this behalf should be done, Command you, that by good and lawful Men of your Bailiwick, you give notice to the said Joseph Parsons Executor as aforesaid that he be before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May next, to shew if he hath or can say any thing for himself why the said William Greenwell ought not to have his Execution against him for the Debt and Damages aforesaid, to be levied of the Goods and Chattels which were of the said Clement Parsons at the time of his death in his hands to be administered being, if so much thereof he hath, according to the force, form and effect of the recovery aforesaid, if he shall think fit, and father to do and receive what our said Court shall then and there consider concerning him in this behalf, and have there then the names of them by whom you shall give him notice, and this writ, Witness the Honorable Samuel Chase Esquire, Chief Judge of our said Court, the tenth day of February Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety five. —

(to)

Issued the 1st day of April 1795. (P. B. K.) John Gwinn Clk.
