The Deposition of Robert Lake of the Ile of Kent Planter aged Twenty one years or thereabouts. taken by the Commander Feby 22nd 1639.
This deponent saith that during the sickness of Henry Crawley deceased and Two days or thereabouts before his departure being in perfect sence and memory made his last Will and Testament Elizabeth Smith the wife of John Smith being present with the said Crawley when he entered these words. That if I die I doe give all my whole Estate unto Katharine Smith my God Daughter save only my long gown and that I give unto John Flautham if he return to the Island. which words being spoken by the said Crawley this Deponent came unto the Chamber and the aforesaid Elizabeth Smith desired him to bear witness of this his Will. then this deponent asked the said Crawley if that were his Will and he answerd is was saying If I die I give all my whole Estate unto my God daughter Katharine Smith save only my long Gown which I give to John Flautham if he return to the Island again and further he doseth not.

Signed Robert Lake.

Taken before me
Signed William Brauthwaitt.

The Deposition of Thomas Kid Planter taken concerning Henry Crawleys Disposall of his Estate at his death March 9th 1639 as followeth 1o he was present when Crawley made a disposall of his Estate
2o When Crawley did it he was in perfect memory.
3o That before this deponent to him and others present he said that if he died he did give to Kate his God daughter all his Estate. Except the Long Gowne which he gave to John Flautham if he returned.

4th That this deponent knows of no other mention made by Crawley concerning the disposure of what he had

5th That he never heard nor knew of any revocation of the Gift of his Estate from that God daughter of his

Thomas Kid his mark

Taken before me this day and year afore written.

Lignis Gilds Breit.

Cecilius &c To all Psons. Know yee that we upon the oath of Robert Howell Thomas Howell and William Wisbrock certified unto us