ADAMSON'S ADVENTURES

Going High-Hat By O. JACOBSSON

Caveman Style
A woman who was having a house built detected one of the bricklayers halving the bricks with his trowel. With a triumphant gleam in her eyes she approached him swiftly and said: "Isn't that rather a primitive way of cutting a brick in half?"
The man looked up, smiled and said: "Lor' bless yer dear heart, lidy, there's a far more primitive way than this, believe me."
"Really, and what's that?" she inquired.
"Biting it, lidy, biting it."
Useless Clock
Pat always was late for work, and the foreman advised him to buy an alarm clock. The Irishman did so, but still he continued to put in a belated appearance at his job.
"Why can't you turn up at the right time, Pat, now you've got an alarm clock?" asked the foreman.
"Bedad," replied Pat, "it's no good; it goes off when I'm asleep."
—Exchange.

Two Things

There are two things which grow stronger in the breast of man, in proportion as he advances in years: the love of country and religion. Let them be ever so much forgotten in youth, they sooner or later present themselves to us arrayed in all their charms, and excite in the recesses of our hearts an attachment justly due to their beauty.—Chateaubriand.
