Walter Dallas, and Wm Buckingham Severally make Oath on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God that they Read such part of the Old Books from whence the Contents of this Book were Transcribed, that they were Employed to Read, Carefully, Deliberately and Distinctly, to the best of their Ability to Mr Rachel Denton who Examined the Same. And the Said Rachel Denton Likewise Makes Oath on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God that he faithfully, Deliberately, Diligently, and truly Examined and Compared the Contents of this Book with the Old Books the Said Contents were Transcribed out of into this and that the Contents hereof Agree Exactly with the said Old Books, But that Such Blanks as are left in this Book are for words Defaced or otherwise not Legible in the said Old Books, to the best of his knowledge

Sworn to this Sixth day of October 1725 before me the Subscriber One of the Justices of his Lordships provincial Court of Maryland

Thos Addison

Present Thos Bradley — Rachel Denton

Jon Beale — Wm Buckingham

Jn Pulaney — Walter Dallas