What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

SPRING FASHIONS IN NEW YORK.

Millinery—Flowers—Shapes—A New Sailor—Plumage—Striped Wools Cotton Voiles—Silk Mull—Bordered Fabrics.

Nothing appeals to the feminine heart so strongly as the Spring hat. Flowers are the favorite garniture, particularly roses of all dimensions used in large sprays with their foliage, or in conjunction with lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas, hydrangias, pansies, wisteria, maline, ribbon or fine-quality plumage. Leghorn flats almost covered with flowers, are a repetition of last season's styles, small hats however will have a goodly showing and a shape of moderate size, turning up at one side, will be a favorite.

A NEW SAILOR.

A new sailor is of special interest, the brim at sides and back being much wider than at the front. These (so far) are trimmed by large ribbon or taffeta silk bows, usually two or three very broad loops, the ends lying flat over the crown. As a matter of course, the silk is draped around the crown and wings are often an addition. In some new hats, the bow is less aggressive, and is placed at the side where the brim is attached to the crown. No mistake can be made by banking a Leghorn or Milan flat with the flowers above mentioned, and shaded leaves may be added. Indications are that Mohair braid or lace straws will be in the minority. Very pretty straws in delicate colors are trimmed by a wide bias band of black velvet around the crown, over which is laid fancy gilt ribbon (often colored) and a large cockade of black lace, or wings and velvet at one side.

The above design is by the McCall Company, of New York.

WINGS IN PROMINENCE.

These are used in all classes of millinery. More particularly with tailor suits and on the "ready-to-wear" hats. A large Leghorn was trimmed entirely by small black and white wings. Feather cockades in white or black, are considered very smart on plain straw hats, and Panamas with scarfs around the crowns are pretty and simple, a relief from the overloaded hat. Fancy gilt ribbon is very effective when employed with refined taste; for example on a pale blue gossamer straw trimmed by blue wings, two bands of gilt ribbon laid partly over the crown, gave the finishing touch.

SPRING WOOLS.

The fabrics intended for the first tailor suite usually indicate what is to be the leading fancy of the season, and this year it will be stripes of every sort. Plain stripes in contrast, cluster stripes, herring-bone stripes, chevron stripes, floral stripes, the latter admitting of a thousand varieties, silk stripes, and silk embroidered stripes. Two or three shades of gray in various blendings constitute the principal showing in wools, but it is in light weight materials that beauty of coloring and design are apparent. Cotton voiles, silk mulls or embroidered batiste include an infinite variety of floral stripes, coin and ring dots, bouquet patterns, pin-head dots, or cluster dots.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Lee Kendall Webb, who died one year ago February 6th, 1907, and our dear mother and grandmother, Mary A. Urie, who died February 16th, one year ago.

Friends may think we will soon forget thee
And our wounded hearts be healed;
But they little know the sorrow
That's within our hearts concealed.
BY HIS PARENTS.

You are not forgotten, Kenie, dear,
Or ever will you be,
For as long as life and memory lasts
We will always think of thee.
SISTERS.

Alone in the silent graveyard,
'Neath the sod and the dew
Never one moment forgotten
In sorrow we still think of you.
BROTHERS.

In remembrance of our darling baby, Harry Conyer Kay, who departed this life two years ago today. Age 10 months, 18 days.

The litle chair is vacant
The playthings laid aside,
Our darling little boy has gone to rest
With the angels by his side.

The little cradle is empty now,
The little clothes laid by
A mother's hope a father's joy
In death's cold arms doth lie.
BY MAMMA.

Put away those little dresses
That our baby used to wear
He will need them again, no never
He has climbed the golden stair.

Put away those little playthings
That filled Papa's eyes with tears
He will need them again, no never
He has climbed the golden stair.
BY PAPA.

CASH OFFER FOR A HUSBAND.

A Detroit girl, member of a wealthy family, recently offered a married woman $5000 cash for her husband, and the offer was accepted. This fact developed aside today in a divorce suit. The name of the girl is suppresed for the sake of her family. The husband is the plaintiff in the divorce suit, and according to the story which reached the ears of the judge today, the wife had agreed not to contest the case. She was to receive for this $5000 in cash to be furnished by the girl whose marriage to the husband was to follow the divorce.

Pin Money At Home.

Your call for articles on pin money brings to mind the efforts of one girl who not only earned money through her own efforts to give her schooling for 2 years, but also helped at home during her father's illness.

During a visit to a general store, a lady was making inquiry for ferns. The dealer said he had frequent calls for ferns, but was unable to supply them, as few people cared to take the responsibility of their raising. This was the start she needed. Writing to her uncle, she explained her plan and asked the loan of twenty dollars. The answer came, full of encouragement and accompanied by the draft. Not a few hours were spent in studying fern catalogs, which resulted in an order for 150 plants, at ten cents apiece. The express on them amounted to a dollar and a half, and the remainder was invested in jars. Seventy-five plants were potted at once, the rest being left bedded in tubs. She tended them carefully, keeping sufficiently moist and occasionally added emulsion. A notice was inserted in her home paper, the same bit of information given those of the neighboring towns to the effect that she would take orders for ferns to be distributed the first of September. The best of success rewarded her first efforts, sixty-seven dollars being cleared. By this time she had had considerable experience and on the next growth she netted even more. This particular girl went, from this small beginning, into something larger in floral culture.—From The Girl's Own Circle of The Circle for February.

Seams Opened.—Captain Bachelor in command of Captain E. W. Emory's schooner loaded with lumber for W. S. & A. M. Culp, this town, was caught in the storm of Thursday but fortunately returned to the city without much damage. The terrific wind caused the vessell's seams to open some but no loss of cargo was encountered and Capt. B. expects to arrive here in a few days.
