Sale of valuable Property

On the ninth day of November next, if fair, if not, the next fair day:—

THE Subscriber will offer at public sale, a part of the personal property of the late James Hollyday, Esq. consisting of certain articles of household furniture, books, &c. a handsome Pleasure Boat with a compleat awning—some cattle, and valuable stock of young blooded horses. The said property will be exposed to sale at the Upper Farm of the subscriber, where the late Michael Blackiston acted as overseer, on a credit of six months upon all sums above ten pounds, the purchaser giving bond with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

SUSAN HOLLYDAY, Adm'rx.

Queen Ann's county, Oct. 27, 1807. 3

500 dollars reward.

BROKE Jail in August, 1806, in Snow Hill, Worcester County, JOHN WORRILOW, who was committed on a charge for burglary, or house breaking, and has been seen several times in the county since, and also in the City of Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, and Richmond, and has threatened the lives of several persons in the county. It is supposed to be the same person that shot JUDGE ROBINS, near Denton, in Caroline county, in consequence of his having been active in apprehending him, for the above charge.

John Worrilow is about five feet five or six inches high, aged about twenty-five years, of light complexion and slender make; is somewhat marked with the small pox; has a little lisp in his speech; has lost a small piece off the end of one of his fingers; has round shoulders, and walks with long and irregular steps; is also very talkative.

He is a blacksmith by trade, and when travelling about the country, frequently makes application to labour as a journeyman for a short time. He has sometimes passed by the name of JOHN RIGGIN. Whoever shall take up the said John Worrilow, bring him to Snow Hill, and deliver him to me, shall receive the above reward.

ROBERT NAIRNE, late Sheriff.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
ROBERT WRIGHT, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS some nefarious villain did on the eighteenth day of October, instant, attempt to assassinate Judge JAMES B. ROBINS, on his return from Caroline County Court, near Denton, and did from an ambuscade, fire a ball at him, which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear. And WHEREAS there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Wherlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worcester county gaol by said Judge Robins, to answer to a certain crime, and who by two letters to said Judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him, which said Wherlow, alias Rigging, was on the day before the perpetration of said villainy, supposed to be in Denton, enquiring when said Judge would return home. And WHEREAS it is the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavor to bring all malefactors to justice—I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the perpetrator of said offence, in lieu of the reward offered by WILLIAM POTTER, Esquire. Given in Council, at the City of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this twenty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty-second.

By his Excellency's command,

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing Proclamation be published three times in each week for the space of two weeks successively, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, and the Star at Easton. By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY.

A Valuable Farm for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale, a very valuable Tract of LAND, lying in Dorchester county, in the state of Maryland, distant about twelve miles from Cambridge and about three miles from Middletown, containing five hundred and fifty one acres of rich, fertile land, about 300 acres of which are cleared, the residue is woodland; of which about 200 acres are heavily set with remarkably fine stave and ship timber, which from its vicinity to navigable water (being only about a mile from Chicinicomico bridge, where vessels of considerable burden can lie along side the bridge and receive their cargo) is of particular value. This farm for the fertility of its soil, and the certainty of its productions, is considered equal to any in the neighborhood; and although the improvements are not of that description which such a farm deserves, they can easily be made very comfortable and convenient. The owner thinks himself justified in the assertion that the stave and ship timber on the above mentioned 200 acres, if taken off, is sufficient to pay the purchase money for the whole farm. The price and terms of payment may be known by application to Doctor Richard Goldsborough, in Cambridge; John Goldsborough, esq. in Easton; or to the subscriber near Frederick-town. If the above farm is not sold at private sale before Monday the 21st day of December next, it will on that day be offered for sale, at public vendue, at Mr. John Bradshaw's tavern, in Cambridge.

GRAND LOTTERY,
BALTIMORE.

AUTHORISED by the General Assembly of the state of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing, besides a large number of other good prizes—

1 prize of	30,000	dollars,
1 do. of	15,000	dollars,
3 do. of	10,000	dollars,
2 do. of	5,000	dollars,
8 do. of	1,500	dollars,
7 do. of	1,000	dollars.

Not two blanks to a prize, and the lowest prize is twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,500 tickets; 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing in the city of Baltimore, on Thursday the 31st day of December next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at Ten Dollars and a half each, for a short time, at

G. & R. WAITE'S

Truly fortunate Lottery Office, corner of Market and Charles streets, Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.

G. & R. WAITE.

☞ One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly, as will also one of their clerks.

The next New York lottery will not commence drawing till April next—tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 64, and No. 38, Maiden Lane, New York.

 Distant adventurers, accompanying their orders with Bank Notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. and R. Waite, will be paid by them.

††† Tickets in the above lottery are to be had at Mr. J. MARCH's Book store, Georgetown, where the prize list will be regularly received.

October 20, 1807. 3mo.

Take notice.

ALL persons indebted to the subscriber are once more solicited to settle their respective accounts, on or before the 20th day of May next. I have already experienced considerable inconvenience from confiding in promises, and have positively determined after the above date to proceed in the most summary manner (without respect to persons) to collect all my debts. Mr. Kellie is authorised to settle any accounts in my absence.
