It PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE "NEWS"

FARMER'S GRANGES.

EDITORS OF THE KENT NEWS.

Gentlemen:—I have been in Kent county for the last two months organizing Granges and as my time is coming short when I will have to say good-bye to your people I feel that I want to thank them for their many favors and acts of kindness. I am going to tell you that you can start at the Delaware lines and go to the broad waters of Chesapeake Bay and from the Sassafras to the Chester River and you will not find a better or more hospitable set of people on the globe. In Millington section you will find the Stevens, Barnes, Spears, Jones, Turners, Mallalieus, Prof. Taylor, the Comegys and Dr. Gowman. Around Kennedyville you have Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Connor and their daughters and son, W. M. and John Clendaniel and their families, my special friend Julian Jones, wife and little daughter, Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hill and his family. At Still Pond there you have Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Bonwill, Mr. and Mrs. John H. O. Stokes, Miss Hepbron, the bright and entertaining little school mistress, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders, the Mrs. Harper, Dr. Kelley and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett and last but not least is Dr. Maxwell and his wife, as good a little fellow as I ever met with a heart as big as an elephant. Then to Lynch's where you have Mr. and Mrs. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mann. At Fairlee I met Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Usilton, Mrs. John Correy, Mrs. Al Correy, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Dr. Smith and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Skirven, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Nicholson, Mr. William Nicholson, Mrs. Sparks and others, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson on the Tolchester farm, Mr. and Mrs. DeCourse. And I must not forget Mr. R. G. Nicholson, his two large-hearted entertaining daughters who cannot do enough for you, and his son Charley. Just across the river you will find my friends Mr. and Mrs. Skipper and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony, sons and daughters.

Mr. Anthony is in the dairy business and has as fine a herd of thirty head of blooded cows as you will find in the State. I don't want to forget Mr. James Dixon, your kind and affable County Clerk. I am sorry that I am not a Kent county voter for I would like to cast my ballot for him for any position he might want. And now, Messrs. Editors, I do not want to forget the editors of the KENT NEWS and the Transcript two of the best papers published in the State, who have treated me with so much kindness, for they have given me all the publicity they could, and now, in conclusion there may have been some that I have forgotten but if I have it is no fault of the heart but of the brain, for I have had nothing but kind treatment since I entered the county. The two months spent with your people will always be a bright spot in my life's memory.

I return to my home in Cheswold, Del., and my mind will often wander back to my Kent county friends.

Respectfully,
MARION DAWSON.

NEARLY MARRIED DAUGHTER.

A curious and romantic story is reported from the town of Appenzell, Switzerland. In 1887 a Swiss, named Joseph Muller, deserted his wife and child, a little girl named Anna, about 6 months old, at Lucerne, and fled to Mexico.

Mme. Muller died soon after, and Anna was adopted by a prosperous butcher of Lucerne, who gave the girl a good education. Eighteen months ago, the butcher sold out his business and bought a large hotel at Appenzell, Anna, now a handsome, intelligent girl, managing the establishment.

Last May, Joseph Muller, Anna's father, who had made a large fortune in America, arrived at the hotel, but as Anna had taken the name of her foster parents, he was not aware of their relationship. A young local doctor of good family and the elderly Joseph Muller became suitors for Anna's hand, and in July last the girl chose the latter.

The marriage was fixed for the end of December and in the meantime Joseph Muller courted his daughter. The day before the wedding Muller, seeing his fiancee wearing some jewelry which seemed familiar to him, questioned her about it and discovered the truth. Next day he left for Berlin and sent his daughter a letter explaining his conduct and advising her to marry the young doctor; he inclosed a cheque for $40,000 in the letter.

The other day Anna Muller was married to the doctor, but she has not heard of her father since his flight.

DRY STATES CAN'T STOP LIQUOR.

By a vote of three to two, a subcommittee of the judiciary committee of the Senate Monday declared unconstitutional all the bills intended to give states absolute control of intoxicating liquor the moment such liquor enters the states.

The subcommittee is composed of Senator Knox, Fulton, of Oregon; Nelson, of Minnesota, Republicans, and Bacon of Georgia, and Rayner, of Maryland, Democrats. Senator Knox, Fulton and Rayner voted against the contutionality of the proposed legislation.

Under existing laws, courts have held that until liquor shipped from another state into a prohibition state has been delivered to the person to whom it is consigned, it is interstate commerce and is not subject to state laws.

The Hand that Guides the Singer Clothes the World

Wherever homes have been established—there you will find the one first sign of civilization, the Singer Sewing Machine. There are more Singers and Wheeler & Wilsons sold each year than all other makes combined—named and unnamed, department store job-lot machines and all. The people who buy

Singer Sewing Machines
also the Wheeler & Wilson

realize that a sewing machine is something more than a piece of ornamental furniture, and that upon its faultless operation depends a large share of the daily comfort of the women of the family.

You can go to any of the 6000 Singer stores or have the Singer salesmen come to you. They are

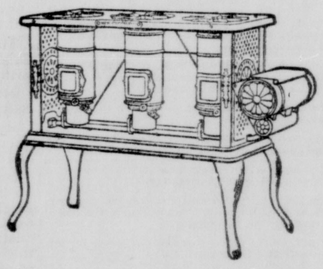
Put This Stove in Your Kitchen



It is wonderfully convenient to do kitchen work on a stove that's ready at the instant wanted, and out of the way the moment you're done. Such a stove is the New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. By using it you avoid the continuous overpowering heat of a coal fire and cook with comfort, even in dog-days. The

NEW PERFECTION

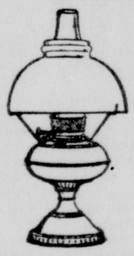
is so constructed that it cannot add perceptibly to the heat of a room; the flame being directed up a retaining chimney to the stove top where it is needed for cooking. You can see that a stove sending out heat in but one direction would be preferable on a hot day to a stove radiating heat in all directions. The "New Perfection" keeps a kitchen uniformly comfortable. Three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.



The Rayo Lamp is the ideal lamp for family use—safe, convenient, economical and a great light giver. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.
