APOLLO'S FOUNT.

—TERMS FOR DRINKING :—

OF all the words in Lexicon,
Not one to my poor thinking,
Can make a man so wise a Don,
As those in use for drinking.

To say—He's drunk, so coarse the sound,
That Bacchus ask'd Apollo,
To give some terms to wit profound,
And he the phrase would follow.

When ladies drink, why then they're gay;
But to a toping gipsey,
Of vulgar rank, we sneering say—
Upon my soul she's tipsy.

When Lord's are bubb'd, they're in the sun,
And cits are mighty muddled;
But when a husband up is done,
The wife cries—dear-ee's fuddled.

When Jack is grogg'd, he's shipt his beer,
He cries—you're half seas over;
And brisk young Dæmon roars—My dear,
I'm prim'd just for a lover.

And some are rocky, some are muzz'd,
And some disguis'd and mellow!
But goddesses must now be buss'd,
For I'm a merry fellow.

FROM LITTLE'S POEMS.

"Neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more."

Oh! WOMAN, if by simple wile,
Thy soul has stray'd from honor's track,
'Tis mercy only can beguile,
By gentle ways the wanderer back.

The stain that on thy virtue lies,
Wash'd by thy tears, may yet decay,
As clouds that sully morning skies,
May all be wept in showers away.

Go, go, be innocent and live—
The tongues of men will wound the sore;
But heav'n in pity can forgive,
And bids thee "go and sin no more."

For sale,

ABOUT Three Hundred Acres of that VALUABLE FARM, formerly owned by Levin Woolford, Esq. lying in Dorchester county, state of Maryland. The most of this land is cleared; but there is a sufficiency of timber to supply the farm for fire-wood, fencing, and necessary repairs. The situation of this farm renders it very desirable, being bounded on one side by Great Choptank River, and within a quarter of a mile of Cambridge. It is thought unnecessary to give any further description of this land, as it is presumed the purchaser will view it before he buys. The title is indisputable, and possession may be had immediately—It will be sold altogether or in lots of fifty or an hundred acres as best suits the purchasers. The terms of sale will be made easy, and may be known by application to either of the subscribers.

To be rented,

A FARM in Tuckahoe Neck, whereon Samuel Gore, now resides, who says he is willing to give it up—it contains about 400 acres. There are three shifts from 120 to 150,000 corn-hills in each; a large orchard, and tobacco or grass ground: There is about 20 bushels of wheat already sowed, and the whole of the cornfield may be, in good time.—The reason this farm is now offered, is owing to my neglect, and other unforeseen accidents. An advantageous lease will be given to an industrious farmer, who will attend to the culture of his fields in an equal degree to the saving of the product of a valuable orchard.

Information wanted.

LEFT the residence of their Parents, in Kent county, (Del.) near Punch-Hall, on Wednesday evening, the 26th of October, two boys, aged 17 and 14 years, the eldest by the name of Uriah, and the youngest by that of James Sulivane—Uriah is low, and stout built of his age; James is slim, and well grown for his age, with light hair and large teeth. These boys were raised in Gilford county, in the state of North Carolina, where it is presumed they are making for, as they have relations living in said county; but from their short residence in Kent, and a very imperfect knowledge of the country and roads, apprehensions are entertained for their safety—They took nothing with them but their clothes and the horses they rode, one of which is a grey, and the other a bay, both in good order, and well made, about 15 hands high.—Any person detaining and giving information as above of said boys and horses, will relieve a truly distressed father and mother; and the favor will be sincerely acknowledged.
