Live Local Notes.

GOVERNOR CROTHERS is expected to be present at the Washington College Commencement exercises the week of June 15th.

THE quarterly meeting of trustees was held at the Kent County Almshouse Wednesday. A dinner was served by Mr. Wm. Ford and his talented daughter that rivaled anything Delmonico could present.

THE strawboard mill, near Chestertown, has an American flag waving from a flagstaff erected on the main building by employes. Mr. Clift says the flour mill will soon have one, also.

THE festival held on the Park Friday evening by the Volunteer Fire Association was a splendid affair, clearing nearly $50. The decorations were "eye-openers" to the ladies while as waiters the firemen were experts. The Chestertown Band furnished excellent music and are improving weekly.

A PRETTY ROMANCE will be culminated this month, when Miss Elizabeth S. Sutton, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Sutton, of Baltimore, and formerly of Worton, will become the bride of Daniel Barlow Miner, Rutgers 1906, of Catskill, N. Y. The nuptials is the outcome of a meeting at the Wells Memorial Hospital, when Mr. Miner's friend, Royal A. Stout, was there for treatment. Mr. Miner called to see his friend and incidentally became acquainted with Miss Sutton, who was one of the head nurses. The friendship ripened into love and the wedding will be the outcome.

Farming Notes.—Prof. Symons, of the M. A. C., has been in Kent this week making examinations as to results of scale remedies and has made some important discoveries.

Hon. James S. Harris reports a fine outlook for peaches on old trees but few on young ones. The June "drop" is now on and peaches are falling rapidly, bnt Mr. Harris thinks there will be plenty left.

Wheat harvest will be general in Kent within fifteen days and the outlook is for a fair crop.

A number of farmers about Masseys loaded a car with cob corn this week for which they received 80 cents per bushel!

Mrs. Paul Massey has lost 75 young turkeys from eating rose bugs.

Mr. John Hadaway, of Piney Neck, says the "June drop" has played havoc with his fruit. The Messrs. Wood on Eastern Neck Island report the same experience.

Mr. Edgar Strong, Grey's Inn Creek, reports a fine outlook for fruit.

Mr. J. Henry Thompson has one of the finest fields of wheat in the "Neck" and his neighbor, Wm. E. Deford is a close rival.

Capt. C. A. Leary, near Edesville, has a fine field of wheat. The farm is tenanted by Mr. Neal Wilson.

Mr. George S. Biddle had a number of Washington College students thinning corn on his farm, near town. He says they beat any colored hand he ever had!

Change of Tenants.—Mr. Alfred Bramble has about decided to quit farming and remove to Baltimore where he is negotiating for the purchase of an ice-cream and confectionery business on Pennsylvania Avenue. He and his wife have many friends in Kent who regret their determination to leave here.

As stated in the NEWS some weeks ago, Mr. Robert Kennedy will remove to the Kerr farm, recently purchased by Mr. John H. Clendaniel. Mr. Samuel Loller will succeed Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. Thomas Trew has decided to quit farming on the Wilkins farm, near town.

Mr. James Coleman, tenant on Miss Alice Wilmer's farm, will probably tenant the Hynson-Cooper farm in Worton. Doc. Cooper will remove to the farm near Melitota, recently purchased of Mr. R. F. Parks.

Mr. B. F. Merchant has decided to rent his big farm near Galena to his brother and will return to Colorado.

Samuel Logan, of Spry farm has rented the Jarrell farm, near Reese Corner.

George Deford has rented the Hopkins Burgess farm, near Swan Creek school.

Birthday Supper.—Capt. William A. Crouch one of the best known citizens of Piney Neck, was given a splendid birthday supper Thursday evening by his devoted wife in honor of his 68th birthday. A long table was spread on the lawn facing Lankford's Bay about which there gathered his children, 19 grand-children and a few personal friends. The menu served to the Queen's taste included soft crabs, fried rock, ham, oysters, salads, pickles, rolls, ices and cake. Among those who partook of the feast were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Massey, Messrs. Wm. E. Deford, Walter and John Hadaway, Fred. G. Usilton, Miss Hattie Strong and others. A fine Morris chair was presented Capt. Crouch by his children and he was completely surprised. May this popular couple live to enjoy many more years of good health and prosperity.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!
