Angoller Angell vilis Harbert Luke Harbert michaell Harbert Francis Harbert Mark Harbert to the above Named Children doe I give and bequeath My Land to them and to my Heirs for Ever to Have And to hold for Ever &c

Item — I give and bequeath unto Anne Angell And to her heirs for Ever A parcell of of Land Layd out behind the New ground beginning at A bounded Hickory Standing at the West side of the Roade that Leads from point Cooke out to the Stony Run neere unto the aforesaid Road from the aforesaid bounded Hickory as the Road Now Leads to the Stony Run to Another bounded Hickory Standing on the Edge side of the aforesaid Road from the East side Standing on the East side of the Road with A Lyne Drawn East to the Middle Branch of the Stony Run to A bounded White Oake from thence up the Run or against the Stream to Another bounded White Oake Standing as the East White Oake Standy Which is by the Run side from thy East White Oake with A Lyne Drawn East to the New Road &c

Item — I Give and bequeath unto John Angell A parcell of Land on the South side of the New Ground for New Ford Called bounded as followeth beginning at A bounded dead Oake Standing in that Which is Called the Meadow And in the Dividing Lyne between Me and Mark Cooke And from the aforesaid bounded tree with A Lyne Drawne North for the length of One hundred perches to A White Oake bounded on two sides from thence with A Lyne Drawne East to the New Road thy parcell of Land they called and bounded I give and bequeath to John Angell as aforesaid to him And his heirs for Ever to Have And to hold for Ever &c

Item — I Give and bequeath unto Angoller Angell And to her heirs for Ever to Have and to hold for Ever A parcell of Land Layd out on St Jerons plantation or for Called thy Land bounded on the South side the Land given to Hanna Angell bounded on the East with the New Road bounded on the West &c on the North as followeth beginning at A White Oake bounded on two sides And on the North side of the Maine branch of the Stony Run from thence with A Lyne Drawn North &c by East to A bounded red Oake from thence with A Lyne A Lyne Drawn North East &c by North to A Nother bounded Red Oake Standing Neare to Which Standy A bounded Chestnut tree from the aforesaid Oake or Chestnut tree with A Lyne Drawn Northward And by East to A bounded dead Oake from thence with A Lyne Drawn East to the
New Road &c

Item — I Give and bequeath unto Francis Harbert And to his heirs for Ever to Have and to hold for Ever A parcell of Land Layd out on St Jerons plantation or for Called bounded on the East with the Land of Angoller and the New Road bounded on the South with the Maine Branch of the Stony Run bound on the the West And on the North with the Land Called the Church Hill &c

Item — I give and bequeath unto Mark Harbert all that parcell of Land and all that is Mine On the East side of the New Road to Have and to hold for Ever to him and his heirs for Ever &c

Item — I do give and bequeath unto my Daughter Ellinor Harbert my part of the Church Hill land my part being the Mostly I doe give and bequeath to her &c to whom she shall dispose of or give it to for provided that she give it to One of her Children being of her body And it shall be to them And to their heirs for Ever My Meaning And intent is In this my last bequest to my Daughter for my part of Church Hill Land that she shall dispose And that it shall be at her Disposing to any one of her Children to whomes she shall think fit and to whome she shall give dispose of it to it shall be to them to her or to them and to their heirs for Ever &c have And to hold for Ever but for Want of her Disposing of it in her life time as it shall be to James Angell And to his heirs for Ever to have &c to hold for Ever

Item — I give and bequeath unto Luke Harbert And to his heirs for Ever to have &c to hold for Ever A parcell of Land called the New Ground bounded on the North with the Cooke
And on the East land on South with the part of Lukes Land And of Annes Land &c John Angell Land & part of John Stocks Land And a part of the Dividing Lyne between me and Mr Cooke bounded on the West with A Lyne Drawn from the Mill bridge that lyes over the Meadow Run Neare to which bridge Standy A bounded

Which

White Oake from Which bounded White Oake with A Lyne Drawn South South East to A bounded Lyne from the Pyne with A Lyne Drawn South till intersect A Lyne of John Stilly his Land And from the aforesaid White Oake Northward as the Meadow Run Leads to the Mouth of the Meadow Swamp by the Cooke side

Item — I Give and bequeath unto Michaell Harbert And to his heirs for Ever to Have &c
And to hold for Ever A parcell of Land Layd out and bounded to Emanuell pilston bounded on West with St Gregory Manor And part of Deary Cooke on the North with A Branch of the aforesaid Cooke on the East with A North Lyne of trees from A bounded Hickory Standing at the head of the aforesaid Branch the Lyne Runing due South till Which as there are two Lyne runs out or Marked the one is A false Lyne And that is the false Lyne which is the Nigh to St Gregory the true Lyne being some small Pipland Run to the Uttermost Bounds of my Land &c

Item — I give And bequeath unto Vilis Harbert And to his heirs for Ever to Have and to hold for Ever A parcell of Land Layd out and bounded as followeth bounded on the West with the Land of Michaell and part of Deary Cooke bounded on the North and on the East as followeth beginning at A bounded dead Oake standing at the head of the Middle Swamp bounded on two sides from thence to Another bounded Red Oake from the first bounded tree to the bound the Lyne Run East and by North from the Red bounded tree with A Lyne Drawne South And by East to A Nother Red Oake bounded as the aforesaid trees are from thence with A Lyne Drawn to Another Red Oake Standing on the West side of the Road that leads from my New Dwelling house to St Gregory some small Pipland from the Road side from thence to An-Nother bounded Red Oake Standing on the East side of the aforesaid Road thy East tree being about fifty yards from the first that is to say the two trees that stand Neare the aforesaid Road are about fifty yards asunder from that tree which stands on the East side of the Road with A Lyne Drawn South to A Gum bounded on three sides from thence with A Lyne Drawne South East to the utmost part or bounds of my Land &c

Item — I Give and bequeath unto James Angell And to his heirs for Ever to have and to hold for Ever my New Dwelling plantation And that Land which belongs to it which is as followeth &c

Bounded on the North with the Land on the East with Lukes Land on the West and on the South with Vilis his Land on some part of the South bounded with John Stilly his Land they Land called and bounded I give and bequeath to James Angell as afore said to him And to his heirs for Ever to have and to hold for Ever after the Decease or Death of my Mother Ellinor Harbert as also my father in Law William Harbert but I Will and ordaine that when the aforesaid James shall come to the Age of one and twenty years that he shall settle himselfe if he think good In that small Neck of Land that lyes between Deepe point pond and the Mid-Swamp And to have free priviledg In the pasture for pasturage for his Owne use as also to clear any thickets within the pasture And also to have the Liberty for the Getting any timber upon any of my Land that Now is Meant for building &c for Fire for his Owne proper use Which is as Marke as to say he shall gett nor fall any timber to sell from of the Land for thy