Book 10 1679 (1)

Baker Brooke of Doll Brooke Manor in Calvert County in this Province of Maryland being sick in body but of sound & perfect mind & memory doe make this my last will & Testam: Revoking all former wills & Testam: by me heerto fore made

First I Resigne my soule to God & my body to the Earth & Christian Buriall & my worldly goods I give & bequeath in manner & forme foll viz

To my deare & loving wife Anne Brooke I give all y pt of Doll Brooke Manr which begins at Catt Creeke & runs up Patuxent River till it comes to y mouth of Stormy Harbour Creeke & then running up y said Creeke & y Main Branch thereof till it intersect the uppermost Line of the said Manr & then following y said Line as the said Line runs untill it intersect the Main Branch of Catt Creeke & then following the Swamp of y said Creeke till it come to y mouth of y said Creeke where it first began To have & to hold to her & her assigns for & during the terme of her naturall life making no wilfull waste upon the said Land & And I further give unto my said wife my freehould called Longfoild lying on y backside of the said Manr to hould to her & her assigns for y terme of her naturall Life making no wilfull waste as aforesaid.

To my Sonne Charles Brooke I give & bequeath all y Tract of Land part of the Manr aforesaid that begins