In Talbot county court,

MAY TERM, 1809.

WILLIAM G. GAREY, of Talbot county, having made application in writing to me, the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Second Judicial District of Maryland, in the recess of Talbot county court, for the benefit of the act of assembly, passed at November session, in the year 1805, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the supplements thereto, and a schedule of all his property, real, personal and mixed (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and his family excepted) and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain or recollect, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said petitioner is a citizen of the state of Maryland, and that he resided therein two years next before the passage of the act of assembly aforesaid, and that he has ever since resided in the said state; and being also satisfied that the said William G. Garey is now in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, I do therefore hereby order, that the said William G. Garey be discharged from his imprisonment, and that the first Thursday of the next Talbot county court, to be holden at Easton, in the said county, on the second Monday of November next, be appointed for the appearance of the said William G. Garey in the court aforesaid, to answer such interrogatories as his creditors may propound to him; and also, to deliver up his property to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors—I do therefore further order, that the said William G. Garey, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star paper, once a week for three months successively, before the said first Thursday of the November Term next of the county court aforesaid, give notice to his creditors to appear before the Judges of Talbot county court, on the first Thursday aforesaid, to recommend a trustee for their benefit.—Given under my hand this 14th day of June, Anno Domini 1809.

RD. T. EARLE, Chief Judge of the Second Judicial District of Maryland.—14

In Chancery, Aug. 22d, 1809.

RICHARD T. EARLE, vs. William Cecil, Joshua Cecil, Thomas Simpson, and Mary his Wife, and William Scrivenor, and Elizabeth his Wife.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Samuel Carmon, late of Queen-Ann's county, deceased. The bill states that the said Carmon, on the 27th day of December, 1806, mortgaged certain lands in Queen Ann's county, to Benjamin Hall, to secure a debt due him; that the said Carman departed this life without discharging said debt, having first devised all his estates to his wife, Margaret, who afterwards intermarried with John Cresfield, and since departed this life, intestate, leaving the defendants her heirs at law—The bill further states, that the said Benjamin Hall did assign all his interest in and to the said mortgage, unto the complainant, and that three of the defendants, to wit: Joshua Cecil, and Thomas Simpson, and Mary his wife, reside out of the state—It is thereupon, on motion of the complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star three weeks successively before the 23d day of September next, to the end that the said absent defendants may appear in this court, and shew cause, on or before the 23d day of January next, if any they have, why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

True copy. Test,

Earthen Ware Manufactory,

In the old established stand, formerly carried on by JOHN BROWN, about 200 yards over Gay Street (or Griffith's) Bridge.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public in general, that they carry on the above POTTERY, and constantly have on hand a large and general assortment of Earthen and Moodey Ware, of the first quality; their large ware have handles to them, which is a great support in lifting; and the moody pans and dishes will be found preferable to the wheel dishes for baking, &c. They flatter themselves from their attention to the business, to merit a share of public patronage. ☞ Orders left with Mr Nicholas S. Jones, No. 12, Bowley's Wharf, or the subscribers, will be thankfully received, and immediately attended to.

IN COUNCIL,

Annapolis, June 26, 1809.

ORDERED, That the act, entitled, an act to alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Articles of the Constitution and Form of Government, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Easton Star, Mr. Grieves's paper, at Hager's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper, at Frederick-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT

To alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh articles of the Constitution and Form of Government.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter, upon the death, resignation, or removal out of this state, of the governor, it shall not be necessary to call a meeting of the legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, but the first named of the council for the time being, shall qualify and act as governor until the next meeting of the general assembly, at which meeting a governor shall be chosen in the manner heretofore appointed and directed.

And be it enacted, That hereafter no governor shall be capable of holding any other office of profit during the time for which he shall be elected.

And be it enacted, That so much of the thirty second and thirty-seventh articles of the constitution and form of government as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby abrogated and abolished.

And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration and amendment of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

ON application to me, an Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Maryland, in the recess of the court, by the petition in writing of Nathaniel Davis, stating himself to be in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act, entitled, "an Act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, & the several supplementary acts thereto; a schedule of all his property, together with a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed thereto; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Nathaniel Davis hath resided within the state of Maryland for two years prior to his application, and having in pursuance of my order been brought before me, taken the oath and complied with the requisites prescribed by the said acts, is thereupon discharged from imprisonment. I do therefore order and adjudge that the said Nathaniel Davis appear before the county court of Worcester, at Snow-Hill Town, on Saturday the 18th day of November next, to answer interrogatories which his creditors may propose to him, and also for them to recommend a trustee for their benefit. And I do further order, that the said Nathaniel Davis notify his creditors for the purposes aforesaid, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for three months successively, before the said 18th day of November next. Given under my hand this 20th day of July, Anno Domini 1809.

Forty dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Somerset county, on Tuesday, 22d of the present instant, a dark mulatto man called Perry, aged 21 years, and about five feet ten inches high, a little knock-kneed; robustly made; his voice hoarse; enormously large feet and small head; a down look and a great rogue. Had on when he went off, a coarse linen shirt and trowsers, a striped under jacket, and straw hat; though I am informed that he has exchanged his under jacket for a large upper one of striped Virginia cloth. As this fellow was raised about Easton, there is no doubt but he is skulking about that place, or about Hillsborough, where his father resides, who was formerly the property of John Hardcastle, of Talbot county, and known by the name of Cato Hardcastle. I will give the above reward to any person who will lodge the said Perry in any jail on the Eastern Shore, so that I get him again. JOSIAH POLK.
