at a Run close by ye dwelling house late belonging to my Brother Coll^o Thomas Brooke & Running up the said Run or Crooke to ye marsh at ye head thereof & so till it Intersect ye head Line of y^e said Mann: & then running up ye said Line till it Intersect ye Main Branch of Catt Crooke and Running downe by ye said Branch Swamp & Crooke as they run to the mouth thereof where ye Land to my said wife given doth begin To have and to hold to him & his heires for ever yeilding and paying to the Lord of the said Mann: for the time being & his heires for ever ye summe of five shillings Sterling per Annum.

To my Sonne Leonard Brooke I give all that parcell of the Mann: aforesaid beginning at Crooke called Lolicomico where George Lowe now dwells & Running up Patuxent River to Northermost bound tree of the said Manner likewise the bound of the Land of Jn: Ascom & Running by the bound of the said Mann: West to the uppermost bound of ye said Man & then following the head Lines of ye said Ma till it Intersect the Mains Branch of the sa Lolicomico & so following ye said Branch till Come to the mouth where it first began to have & to hold to him ye said Leonard & his heires for ever paying yearely & every yeare ye summe of five shillings Sterling to ye Lord of ye said Mann: for y^e time being. I doe likewise give unto the said Leonard a certaine parcell of Land lately survayed for me by Richard Edlow Lyeing in ye wood on the backe of ye last mentioned Land to my said Sonne bequeathed & called Hap Hazard & doe hereby require my Executrix hereafter to be named to see ye said Land be Patented in ye name of the said Leonard to hold to him & his heires for Ever.

And whereas there is a parcell of Land Lyeing on the North side of Patuxent River in ye wood neere ye Land of Richard Cox Taylor & in Partnership between me & my Brother Thomas Brooke deceased & called Brookes Partition my will is that ye said Land be forthwith divided into two equall Parts according to ye true value & goodness of the Land & that my daughter Mary have her choise of ye one half which I doe hereby give unto her & her heires for Ever & the other half unto Mary ye daughter of my said Brother Thomas Brookes & her heires for Ever.