Earthen Ware Manufactory,

In the old established stand, formerly carried on by JOHN BROWN, about 200 yards over Gay Street (or Griffith's) Bridge.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public in general, that they carry on the above POTTERY, and constantly have on hand a large and general assortment of Earthen and Moodey Ware, of the first quality; their large ware have handles to them, which is a great support in lifting; and the moody pans and dishes will be found preferable to the wheel dishes for baking, &c. They flatter themselves from their attention to the business, to merit a share of public patronage. ☞ Orders left with Mr. Nicholas S. Jones, No. 12, Bowley's Wharf, or the subscribers, will be thankfully received, and immediately attended to.

To the Independent Voters of TALBOT COUNTY.

FROM the solicitation of a number of my freinds, I am induced to offer myself a Candidate for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing Election—and thould I be so fortunate as to be the successful Candidate, I solemnly pledge myself to execute the duties of the office with fidelity and impartiality.

On this occasion it may not be amiss to remark, that from my long experience in public business (in which I flatter myself I have given general satisfaction) the public will entertain no doubt of my future good conduct.

With sentiments of due respect,
I am the Public's humble serv't.

Easton Academy.

THE Trustees of this Institution having resumed their trust, have now the satisfaction to announce that the Classical Department will be opened on Monday, the 5th day of September next, under the direction of the reverend ARCHIBALD WALKER; a gentleman long experienced in the instruction of Scholars in the Latin and Greek Languages, and highly recommended for his talents knowledge, and devotion to his duties as a Teacher. The Trustees desire to assure the Parents and Guardians of such Boys as may be sent to the Academy for their Education, that the greatest attention shall be paid to their discipline and good government of the school, and to the progress and moral deportment of the scholars. Board and accommodation may be procured in several families in town upon reasonable terms. As soon as the Mathematical Department shall be prepared to be opened, information shall be given to the public.

By order of the Board,
P. BENSON, President.

Easton, August 22, 1809. 8

Notice.

THE subscribers take this method to inform the public, that they intend carrying on the Fulling Business, in the neatest and best manner, and flatter themselves that they will be able to please the people much better than has been done these two years past. Abner Wilson, who is the Fuller, has been regularly bred to the business up the country, where fulling is done in the best manner; he has dyed and dressed pieces for gentlemen in Wilmington, who was allowed to be the best finished of any done there. Those who may please to favor them with their custom, may depend on being timely served, and at reasonable rates, at the old Forge Mill now occupied by John Earle, near the Head of Chester, Queen Ann's county, Maryland.

IN COUNCIL,

Annapolis, June 26, 1809,

ORDERED, That the act, entitled, an act to alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Articles of the Constitution and Form of Government, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Easton Star, Mr. Grieves's paper, at Hager's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper, at Fredericktown.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT

To alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh articles of the Constitution and Form of Government.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter, upon the death, resignation, or removal out of this state, of the governor, it shall not be necessary to call a meeting of the legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, but the first named of the council for the time being, shall qualify and act as governor until the next meeting of the general assembly, at which meeting a governor shall be chosen in the manner heretofore appointed and directed.

And be it enacted*, That hereafter no governor shall be capable of holding any other office of profit during the time for which he shall be elected.

And be it enacted*, That so much of the thirty-second and thirty-seventh articles of the constitution and form of government as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby abrogated and abolished.

And be it enacted*, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration and amendment of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

GUNS.

JAMES HASLETT, GUN-MAKER,

RESPECTFULLY informs the Public, that he has now on hand the handsomest assortment of DOUBLE and SINGLE BARREL GUNS ever offered for sale in Baltimore. They are mounted in Silver, Stut and Brass, from Six Dollars to One Hundred and Thirty each.

Country Merchants will find it to their advantage to give him a call as he is determined to sell them cheap.

Guns and Pistols as usual carefully and promptly repaired at No. 28, Water Street, near the Marsh Market.—Sign of the Golden Gun.

Baltimore, August 29, 1809. 8

The subscriber

WILL sell on a long credit, that valuable and well known Tavern-House and Lot in Centreville, Queen-Ann's county, now in the tenure of Mr. Benjamin Hatcheson. This house is large, convenient, and well designed for a Tavern—on the premises are a large and convenient stable and carriage house, an excellent garden, and other conveniencies. A more minute description is deemed unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase can view the property. The purchaser can have possession 1st January next.

In Dorchester county court,

MARCH TERM, 1809.

ON application of Thomas Brazier, of Dorchester county, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, and of the several supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts, being annexed to his petition; and the said court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Thomas Brazier has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland—It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Thomas Brazier, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed at Easton, once a week for four successive weeks, before the 28th day of October next, and setting up like notice at the court house door, and at the door of one of the public taverns in Cambridge, in the said county, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in the said county on the said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, the said Thomas Brazier then and there complying with the requisites of the said acts.

Test,

H. DICKINSON, Clk.

Worcester county, sc.

ON application to me, an Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Maryland, in the recess of the court, by the petition in writing of Nathaniel Davis, stating himself to be in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act, entitled, "an Act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, & the several supplementary acts thereto; a schedule of all his property, together with a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed thereto; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Nathaniel Davis hath resided within the state of Maryland for two years prior to his application, and having in pursuance of my order been brought before me, taken the oath and complied with the requisites prescribed by the said acts, is thereupon discharged from imprisonment. I do therefore order and adjudge that the said Nathaniel Davis appear before the county court of Worcester, at Snow-Hill Town, on Saturday the 18th day of November next, to answer interrogatories which his creditors may propose to him, and also for them to recommend a trustee for their benefit. And I do further order, that the said Nathaniel Davis notify his creditors for the purposes aforesaid, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for three months successively, before the said 18th day of November next. Given under my hand this 20th day of July, Anno Domini 1809.
