THE SUBSCRIBER

Offers for Sale his Valuable Farm,

LYING in Talbot county, & handsomely situated on Miles River, adjoining the town of St. Michaels. This farm has on it a small dwelling house, a new barn, and other out houses: on the premises are two thriving apple orchards, and other fruit trees in abundance: likewise a large quantity of oyster shells, sufficient to manure the farm. This property contains upwards of 200 acres of land, about one half of which is wood and the other half arable land. This property is so well known that it needs no further description. The terms of sale are, one third of the purchase money to be paid when possession is given, the remaining two thirds are to be paid in two different instalments, one at twelve months, and the other at eighteen months, from the day of sale, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

There will be a reserve made of the Wind Mill, now standing on the farm: also the Wheat in the ground.

Should this property not be sold before Thursday, the 31st of January, at Private Sale, it will on that day be offered at Public Sale, on the premises. For further particulars apply to the subscriber, living on the premises.

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber having removed his Saddle & Harness Making Shop, in one of the rooms of Mr. Bennett's Brick Building, next door to Mr. Jas. B. Ringgold's store, begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he has just returned from Baltimore, with a large and general assortment of SADDLERY, from the best American and foreign manufactories—He has also supplied himself with workmen equal to any in the state, which, together with his own personal attendance, will enable him to supply any orders in his line of the best materials, at the shortest notice, and on such terms as cannot fail to please. He returns thanks to a generous public for the encouragement he has received, and solicits that continuance which his undeviating exertions to please may entitle him to.

He has the following saddlery for sale, on reasonable terms, for cash:

Skirting, bridle, harness, hogskin and morocco leather, of various colours; and hardware, well assorted in his line. Trunks manufactured at his shop of various sizes and qualities, at the shortest notice.

☞ Country produce and home manufactures taken in exchange for work.

THE UNION TAVERN.

THE subscriber has opened a Public House at Easton, in those commodious buildings lately erected at the corner of Washington and Goldsborough streets He solicits public patronage, and invites the attention as well of the gentlemen of Talbot, whose business or pleasure may call them to town, as of all travellers.

No exertions shall be wanting on the part of the subscriber for the accommodation of those who may favor him with their calls; and he trusts that the assurance, which he flatters himself, the character he has sometime maintained in the line of his business must afford, will be amply fulfilled by his unremitted endeavors to please and gratify his customers.

Dinners or suppers will be prepared for select parties of gentlemen, on the shortest notice, and in private apartments.

Particular attention will be paid by the subscriber to the accommodation of Horses: the extensive Stables belonging to his establishment, and the well tried care of his servants, authorise him to give this assurance.

40 DOLLARS REWARD

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Bladensburg, Prince George's county, on the 23d ult. a negro man named HARRY, aged 21 years, of a dark mulatto complexion, prominent features, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, a little scarred on the right side of his face and ear. Had on when he absconded a kersey jacket, waistcoat and trowsers, oznaburg shirt and negro shoes and stockings; he likewise took away with him a brown coatee and coarse shirt. He was raised by Mr. Boone, of Charles county, where he most probably has gone—It is also likely he may try to reach the Eastern Shore, where he says he has a wife living with a parson Davis. I will give the above reward to any person for apprehending said negro (if taken on the Eastern Shore) and bringing him home, with reasonable expences paid, or twenty-five dollars for taking him up and lodging him in any jail, so that I get him again.

C. L. GANTT.

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the gaol of Frederick county, a negro man who calls himself Isaac about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, about 27 years of age; the great toe of his right foot sore, a scar on his forehead, middling black, and surly look; his cloathing very much torn; says he belongs to Andrew Offutt, of Montgomery county, Maryland. His owner is requested to take him away, or he will be sold for his prison fees—EZRA MANTZ, Sh'ff F. C. Md.

December 5, (18) 1810——8

200 DOLLARS REWARD.

ABSCONDED on the 4th day of the present month, November, two negro men, the property of EDWARD LLOYD, Esq—one by the name of Phill, and the other by the name of George. The cause is for a breach of theft, committed by them. Phill is about 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, small features, tolerably black, thick lips, and large mouth, rather a fine voice: His clothing of different kinds chiefly blue, a new pair of double-soaled shoes—about 29 years of age.——George is very black, rather a handsome fellow—about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, slow spoken,—his clothing of different kinds, a new pair of double-soled shoes, 21 years of age. The reward for each of them is 30 dollars if taken in this county; if taken out of this county, and in this state, 50 dollars; if taken out of this state, 100 dollars each. The above reward will be given to any person so apprehending and securing the said negroes, so that the owner gets them again—and reasonble expences paid on application or delivery of said negroes to the owner or the subscriber.
