In the Name of God Amen I John Humphreys Clerk of the parish of St. Ann the unworthy Minister having some reason to Apprehend the Approaches of Death by reason of the frequent changes of my health, but having thro' Gods mercy the full & free use of my Understanding Do make this my last Will & Testament Viz.t My Soul I most humbly Commend to the favour of our great & Compassionate God & Redeemer By faith in whom & by whose merits alone Salvation can be Expected by Men My Body I give to the Earth out of which it was made I wish I could return it with as little Impurity as I Received it And I desire my Executrix hereafter mentioned to give it Burrall with as little Expence as may be, that she may not break in too much on the very little I have to leave her in a Strange place so far from Friends or Acquaintance. I again give her this in charge, I would have a plain Coffin & Gloves only for the Pallbearers & a Glass or two of Wine which will be enough out of the Estate.

Item As to the Temporal Goods with which it has pleased the Bounty of God to favour me in this Strange Land after my just debts are paid I give & Bequeath the same both Reall & Personall to my dear & Loving Wife Theodosia Humphreys to have the enjoy & dispose of as her own Prudence shall direct her, hereby desiring her to Sell both Real & Personal Estate as soon as may be (for money will be better than old Goods & Wooden Houses)

I acknowledge my self to be Indebted to Mrs. Green Wife to the Printer of Annapolis formerly an Orphan Child under my c. in the sum of Seven Pounds Sterling which I would have paid not as a Legacy but a debt as it justly is being money given her when a Child & laid out for her in Goods which I Received from England.

And I Do hereby Nominate & appoint my said Loving Wife Theodosia Sole Executrix of this my last Will & Testament hereby Revoking & Disanulling any other former Will or other Testamentary Instrument.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto Sett my hand & Seal this Thirtieth day of December in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred Thirty & Eight.
