FOR SALE,

THAT very handsome FARM upon which I live, consisting of about 220 acres of land, fifty of which are well timbered, and the residue arable. There is upon the farm almost every convenient building that the most provident man could wish for, and it is generally in such good order, that I may confidently invite those who think of purchasing, to come and view the premises.

If not sold before Saturday, the 16th March next, it will on that day be exposed to public sale on the premises, at 2 o'Clock in the afternoon. In the mean time application may be made to James Houston, esq. in Chester Town, or to the subscriber on the premises

TAVERN.

FROM the solicitation of my friends, I am induced to open a TAVERN, in that large and commodious two story frame house in Centreville, lately occupied by John Beard, where gentlemen of the county can be entertained in a genteel manner—Gentlemen and ladies travelling, can be accommodated in private apartments, and every attention paid them. Dinners or suppers prepared for gentlemen at a short notice: Horses entrusted to his care will have every attention paid them, as his hostlers from their long experience in that line, is equal (if not superior) to any on the Eastern Shore. As to paper entertainment, I am not pleased with it, therefore hope gentlemen and ladies will give me a call, which will enable them to judge for themselves.

THE UNION TAVERN.

THE subscriber has opened a Public House at Easton, in those commodious buildings lately erected at the corner of Washington and Goldsborough streets. He solicits public patronage, and invites the attention as well of the gentlemen of Talbot, whose business or pleasure may call them to town, as of all travellers.

No exertions shall be wanting on the part of the subscriber for the accommodation of those who may favor him with their calls; and he trusts that the assurance, which, he flatters himself, the character he has sometime maintained in the line of his business must afford, will be amply fulfilled by his unremitted endeavors to please and gratify his customers.

Dinners or suppers will be prepared for select parties of gentlemen, on the shortest notice, and in private apartments.

Particular attention will be paid by the subscriber to the accommodation of Horses: the extensive Stables belonging to his establishment, and the well-tried care of his servants, authorise him to give this assurance.

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the gaol of Frederick county, Maryland, on the 24th January last, as runaways, two negro men who call themselves William Banks and Peter Watkins—Banks is 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, stout and well made, supposed to be 21 or 22 years of age, has some scars on each of his legs, occasioned, as he says, by the bite of a dog; slow, and somewhat stammering in speaking—has likewise a scar on the back of his head, says he understands something of the coopering business—Watkins is about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, supposed to be about 28 years of age, rather a down look when interrogated, large lips and flat nose, has a scar near his right eye, says he understands something of the shoe-making business. Their clothing when committed were so indifferent as to render a description unnecessary. They say they were free born, and served their times with a Mr. Samuel Adams, near Leonard's Town, St. Mary's county, Maryland. The owner is hereby requested to come and release them, otherwise they will be sold for their prison fees as the law directs.
