HOUSE AND CARRIAGE PAINTING.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that (having purchased out Mr. Hahn, who has declined the above business in this place,) he has commenced said business at his dwelling situated on Goldsborough Street, and hopes by his attention to business, to merit public patronage.

WILLIAM DORITE.

Easton, aug 27——4

WILLIAM COOPER'S

NEW TAYLORING SHOP.

THE subscriber having lately returned from Baltimore, where he has been employed in one of the most fashionable shops in that place; and having commenced business in Easton, in the house formerly occupied as a store by Mr. Abbott, next door south of Mr. Bennett's new brick building, takes the liberty to solicit the patronage of his friends and the public—He flatters himself that his acquaintance with his business will justify this call for public patronage, and satisfy all who may favour him with their custom.

He will have constantly on hand the newest fashions, and no pains shall be spared to gratify the taste, and comply with the convenience of his customers.

TO BE LEASED,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS:

THAT elegant situation opposite to the City of Annapolis, adjoining Fort Madison—it contains upwards of 300 acres of excellent land, with oyster shell banks of manure in each field, with three negro men; with good improvements—the advantage of keeping a Ferry Boat, having hands used to it, and the convenience to one of the best markets (for the seller in the state) is very great. Any person wishing to rent may apply to Mr. Clements, in Annapolis, or to the subscriber at Easton. I observe that some person has cut several cedar posts on the banks of the river and creek; I hereby forewarn all persons from bringing boats or canoes into any of my creeks, or taking away any sort of wood at their peril. To save trouble, no person need apply unless they can give good security, if required.

may 14——m DAVID KERR

FOR SALE,

THE Lands now in the occupation of Mrs. Margaret Bromwell, about seven miles from Easton, on which are a good dwelling house of brick, large and convenient; also, a large barn and granery, with other buildings. A description is thought unnecessary, as the purchaser may view and examine whether it would suit. Should these lands not be sold in a short time, they will be to be rented.

WM. HAYWARD.

FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a valuable FARM in Caroline county, 4 miles above Greensborough, containing upwards of seven hundreds acres. The soil is well adapted to the growth of grain or hay, particularly a bottom, supposed to contain from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and forty acres, which is inferior to none to the growing of timothy or herd grass; the half of this bottom is cleared, the greater part of which is now in corn. This farm is well timbered, and will be sold altogether, or in lots of one or two hundred acres. For terms enquire of Mr. Thomas Goldsborough, living near the property, or to the subscriber in Talbot. If not sold by the first of Sept next, it will then be for rent.

JOHN BARNETT.

Belle-Air, july 23——m

THE CITIZENS OF QUEEN-ANN'S COUNTY,

WILL PLEASE TO TAKE NOTICE,

THAT the public Taxes for the county aforesaid are now due, and they are hereby requested to be prepared for payment as early in September as possible—and as they must be paid, the sooner the better. The commissions allowed for the collection of taxes are so small, the collector cannot afford to call often; he therefore hopes they will not put him to the unnecessary trouble to call the second time, and the favor will be thankfully acknowledged,

By the public's ob'dt. serv't.

NOTICE.

ON application to me, during the recess of Talbot county court, as chief judge of the second judicial district, by the petition in writing of Thomas H. Lambdin, an insolvent debtor, of Talbot county, praying the benefit of an act of assembly passed at the November session of 1805, entitled An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto, upon the terms in the said act and supplements mentioned and prescribed—and the said Thomas H. Lambdin having complied with the terms of the said act and supplements; and having satisfied me that he hath resided for the two years next immediately preceding the time of his application aforesaid, within the State of Maryland. Now I do therefore hereby order and adjudge that the said Thomas H. Lambdin be discharged from confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star four weeks successively, three months before the first Saturday of November term next, of the said county court, and by setting up advertisements at the court house door of the said county, he give notice to his creditors to appear on that day before the said court, at the court house in the town of Easton, in the county aforesaid, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Thomas H. Lambdin should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements, as prayed. Given under my hand this 12th day of August, 1811.

TO BE SOLD,

The following LANDS in Appoquinimink Hundred, the county of New Castle, and State of Delaware:—

A PLANTATION or tract of Land called Camden, containing about 350 acres, situate on the south side of Appoquinimink river, half a mile above the village called Cantwell's Bridge, where a considerable trade is carried on. It is bounded by the river near a mile—about 140 acres are arable, 120 wood, the residue marsh and cripple; the state road runs through it.

Also—A tract of Land of about 430 acres, near three miles west of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek; about a third part is arable, the rest well timbered, and above 50 acres of meadow may be made. There is a quantity of iron bog-ore on this land. It lies 5 miles from the public landings on the navigable waters of Delaware Bay, and the same distance from those of the Chesapeake. The two above mentioned tracts will be divided, each into two or more farms, if desired.

Likewise—A Plantation, containing 150 acres, situate on the northeast branch of Duck creek, and near to a landing; it lies about three miles to the east of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek.

The terms of sale will be reasonable; a fourth part of the purchase money cash—the residue will be received in annual instalments for three or more years, and a bond and mortgage from the purchaser accepted as security. For further particulars apply to Mr. John Cummins, merchant at Smyrna, in the county of Kent; Mr. Wm. F. Corbit, merchant at Cantwell's bridge, in the county of New Castle; or to the subscriber in the city of Philadelphia—who will also sell or let, on improving leases, divers tracts of land in Beaver, Alleghany, and Centre counties in Pennsylvania, in well settled neighbourhoods.

THOMAS M'KEAN.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been satisfactorily represented to me, that a certain JOHN BADGER, who was condemned seven years to the Public Roads, by the honorable Judges of the first Judicial District of Maryland, for House Burning and Horse Stealing—has made his escape from punishment, and is now lurking about Elkton, committing many crimes, and alarming the people by his nocturnal plunderings. And whereas, it is obviously the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavor to bring all malefactors to justice: I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice, the said JOHN BADGER.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, this thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty sixth.

(L. S.)

EDWARD LLOYD.

By his Excellency's command.

NINIAN PINKNEY.
Clerk of the Council

august 1 (6)——12

☞ The above Proclamation to be published twice in each week for the space of six weeks, in the Whig. Sun, and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis; and the Star, at Easton.

NOTICE.

ON application of John L. Lairy and Archilles Price, of Talbot county court, in the recess of Talbot county court, by petition in writing to me the subscriber, one of the associate judges of the second judicial district of Maryland, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and the supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts; a schedule of their property, and a list of their creditors, as far as they can ascertain them at present as directed by the said act being annexed to their petition; and being satisfied by competent testimony that they have resided in the state of Maryland the two preceding years prior to their application—and having been brought before me by the sheriff of Talbot county upon an execution against their bodies: I do hereby order and direct that the bodies of the said John L. Lairy and Archilles Price be discharged from imprisonment, and that they appear before the county court of Talbot, on the first Saturday in November term next, and at such other days and times as the court shall direct, to answer such allegations and interrogatories as may be proposed to them by their creditors, and that the said day is hereby appointed for their creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit. And I do further order and direct, that the said John L. Lairy and Archilles Price do give notice to their creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once in every week for four weeks successively, for the space of three months before the said Saturday. Given under my hand this eighteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and eleven.

16th. At Ocmulgee Old Fields, & at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the limits of the state of Georgia.

17. Proposals will also be received, as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations which may be required by the United States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusetts: and for the armorers and other persons employed in the United States Armory at that place, from the 1st day of June 1812, inclusive, to the 1st day of June, 1813.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of salted pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles, to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration aforesaid, as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit, Chikago, Fort Osage and Belle Vue, for six months in advance: and at each of the ports on the western waters, for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for, at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depredations of the enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of creditable characters, & the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued, until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under the contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the sea board, or Indian frontier, not exceeding three months.

W. EUSTIS.

The editors of newspapers who are authorised to publish the laws of the United States are requested to publish the foregoing advertisement twice a week for four successive weeks.——july 15 (23)——8

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 18th of July, a negro man named Daniel, aged 24 years, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high—His dress was an old great coat and trowsers. The fellow has been sick for more than two years, under the impression that he was poisoned, or a spell laid on him; for which reason he was indulged in going to an old negro man to cure him, who lives about two miles from Easton, on the road to Dover Ferry, where it is probable the fellow may be lurking. When he went off he pretended he was sick, and not able to walk; but I have reason to think now that his complaint is almost altogether deceit. Whoever takes up said negro, in the county, and brings him home, shall receive 20 dollars—if taken out of the county, the above reward.

ANDREW SKINNER.

Talbot county, july 30——m

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

ESCAPED from goal, in Centreville, a negro man named Jim, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a scar on his right cheek, large full eyes, large mouth, shews his teeth very much when he laughs, is bow-legged and walks wide, has been to work in a blacksmith's shop, and probably he may apply to some smith for employment—Had on when he escaped a blue jacket and trowsers, the jacket has a white seam on it at the bottom, and the trowsers also, down the legs. Whosoever apprehends the said negro, and secures him in the Centreville goal, or any other gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward if taken one hundred miles from Queen Ann's county, and if taken within fifty miles fifty dollars will be given, with all reasonable expences paid if brought home to Centreville, by
