Reviewing Shows On The Local Screens

New Theatre, Elkton

"STAGE STRUCK"

"Stage Struck," heralded by First National as the gayest and snappiest of all its long list of musical comedy hits, comes to the New Theatre beginning next Monday and Tuesday.

There is an all star cast, which includes Dick Powell, Joan Blondell, Warren William, Frank McHugh, Jeanne Madden, and the four Yacht Club Boys besides a large number of supporting principals and hundreds of extras.

The picture is filmed on a lavish scale with spectacular numbers. Busby Berkeley directed the production.

"GIVE ME YOUR HEART"

"Give Me Your Heart," a dynamic drama revealing the human emotions of love, passion, hate and sacrifice, comes to the New Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday with Kay Francis in the stellar role.

The story concerns the romance of a young English girl with a nobleman who is married to a semi-invalid wife. Their child is taken into the nobleman's family by the grandfather who longs for an heir his son's wife cannot give him. The girl seeks forgetfulness in America, marries a fine business man whom she respects, but does not love.

Torn with mother love and the loss of her child, she seeks to drown her anguish in social gatherings, but her nerves are on the breaking point, and an estrangement seems imminent, when a friend of both families, an English playwright comes to America, where the young nobleman, his wife and "their" son are visiting. He arranges a meeting of the two couples, unbeknown to either. This creates a situation so intense both parties are on the breaking point, but through the bigness of the nobleman's wife matters are finally smoothed out in one of the most tremendous climaxes ever filmed.

"PIGSKIN PARADE"

Laughter that makes your ribs feel sore, song hits that make you roar for more and football as it's never been played before highlight "Pigskin Parade," Twentieth Century-Fox musical gridiron hit at the New Theatre next Friday.

Hailed as the year's funniest, fastest football frolic, the film is highlighted with lasses and passes, half-backs and wise-cracks, touchdowns and torch-tunes, and a barefoot hill-billy who can forward pass a passbaal—or a musk-melon—ninety yards in his bare feet.

Stuart Edwin, Johnny Downs, Arline Judge, Betty Grable, Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley, the Yacht Club Boys, Dixie Dunbar, Anthony Martin and Judy Garland are featured in the film, which was directed by David Butler with Bogart Rogers associate producer.

"TWO IN A CROWD"

"Two in a Crowd" is the sort of picture that will leave a warm, happy, tingling glow, way down deep inside of you. Laughter and love ripple and through the lively Universal offering which opens at the New Theatre next Saturday.

Joan Bennett and Joel McCrea are ideally starred as a mirth provoking pair of sweethearts in this rollicking screen drama. Joan and Joel, queen and king of romance and comedy, first meet when each of them finds half of a torn thousand dollar bill. This leads to unusual complications when they combine their resources to get a race-horse out of pawn.

"Pigskin Parade" will also be held over for the Saturday double feature.

North East Theatre

"CHINA CLIPPER"

"China Clipper," the new First National production which is scheduled as the feature attraction at the North East Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, is a glamorous romance of the air, marking a milestone in the pictorial history of daring aviation.

There is an exceptionally talented cast which includes at O'Brien, Beverly Roberts, Ross Alexander, Humphrey Bogart, Marie Wilson and Henry B. Walthall in the principal roles.

The picture treats of the daring long distance flights of the pioneers of aviation, men who gambled with death to drive their ships through storm and fog to make regular air service possible.

While the story itself is fictitious, it is based, to a large extent, on the hazardous flights of the famous China Clipper of the Pan-American Airways which not so long ago established an air service between Alameda, on the Pacific Coast near San Francisco, and the Philippine Islands.

"A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM"

No motion picture ever filmed has even received the acclaim awarded the Max Reinhardt production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which Warner Bros. will present at the North East Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday for the first time at popular prices.

Critics in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Detroit, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Los Angeles and other great metropolitan centers in the United States, where the "Dream" was shown at prices ranging from $1 to $11 for the best seats, joined with reviewers in Montreal, Can., London, Eng., Vienna, Austria, and key cities in Poland, Finland, India, Australia, Italy and France in declaring it the greatest picture ever produced.

Before its public premiere, Louella Parsons, America's most famous motion picture critic said of it:

"'A Midsummer Night's Dream' is the most beautiful picture I have ever seen. It comes nearest to perfection of any motion picture yet produced."

The London "Telegraph," one of the hardest papers to please, declared it "dazzling, magnificent, overwhelming, with moments of visionary beauty such as the screen has not seen before. It charmed and amused and astonished the audience by turns."

"MAKE WAY FOR A LADY"

How a well-meaning but sadly mistaken girl tries to double for Cupid and marry her widowed father to the wrong woman forms the basis of RKO Radio's romantic comedy. "Make Way for a Lady," co-starring Herbert Marshall and Ann Shirley, showing at the North East Theatre Friday and Saturday of nevt week.

The story gets off to its hilarious start when Anne, convinced that her father, played by Marshall, should marry again and that he is in love with a novelist, endeavors to bring them together at every opportunity.

However, the girl is not aware that her father detests the novelist nor that her well-meant efforts are driving him into the arms of another woman. A romance swiftly develops, but itisn't the romance Anne expects.

Gertrude Michael and Margot Grahame head the supporting cast, which also includes Clara Blandick, Frank Coghlan Jr., Taylor Holmes, Helen Parrish and Murray Kinnell.

"HELL SHIP MORGAN"

George Bancroft, the screen's number one he-man, ends his recent retirement from the picture fold with his re-appearance on the screen in Columbia's "Hell Ship Morgan," which is coming to the North East Theatre next Friday and Saturday. Co-featured with the star of "Underworld" and "Docks of New York" in "Hell Ship Morgan" is Ann Sothern with Victory Jory in the leading supporting role.

The film's action takes place aboard one of the typical fishing boats that ply the tuna trade in the shark-infested Mexican waters. On board Bancroft's boat, the Southern Cross, is his new wife, a penniless girl whom he had befriended but a few days before, and Jim Allen, his mate. Ann Sothern, as Mary Taylor, who had married the blustering Morgan out of gratitude, soon finds herself desperately in love with the handsome Allen.

A mutinous member of the crew brings the hopeless romantic triangle into sharp relief when he threatens to expose their love to the unsuspecting captain. The emotional strife is forgotten, however, when a violent tropic storm suddenly menaces the boat. Amid the terrifying dangers of the storm, "Hell-Ship Morgan" roars to a breath-taking conclusion.

State Theatre, Newark

"TARZAN ESCAPES"

Tarzan, amazing character of the fiction of Edgar Rice Burroughs, comes once more to the screen, as Johnny Weismuller and Maureen O'Sullivan are reunited in "Tarzan Escapes," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's latest jungle adventure romance to be seen at the State Theatre, Newark, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The present story marks the closest approach of Tarzan to civilization. He is captured by a "bring-'em-back-alive" animal collector who locks him in a cage and plans to take him to London to exhibit. In a thrilling and dramatic climax the son of the primeval wilds outwits his civilized enemy, saves himself, and also his animal friends.

"THE BIG GAME"

The thrills of hard-fought college football games combine with the drama of a racketeer menace in RKO Radio's current gridiron saga, "The Big Game" at the State Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

The story deals with the college career of an ex-coal miner hired to play football on the team. eH is accused of conspiring with a gambling syndicate when his injured leg defeats his team to the huge gain of the gamblers.

Philip Huston, Broadway stage actor, essays the leading role, while pretty June Travis is seen as his sweetheart and daughter of a newspaper columnist who persecutes the boy through the press.

George Nicholls, Jr., directed the Pandro S. Berman production, which has a supporting cast including Bruce Cabot, James Gleason, Andy Devine, C. Henry Gordon, Guinn Williams, Barbara Pepper and Eddie Nugent.
