Reviewing Shows On The Local Screens

New Theatre, Elkton

"READY, WILLING AND ABLE"

"Ready, Willing and Able," a comedy with music made by Warner Bros. from the Richard Macaulay story of the same name that ran in a national weekly magazine last year, will be presented as the feature attraction of the New Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Co-starred are the twinkling-toed Ruby Keeler, and the famous young eccentric dancer Lee Dixon. The songs are by Johnny Mercer and Richard Whiting, and one especially—"Too Marvelous for Words"—promises to be a nation wide hit.

"MAYTIME"

Topping even their triumphs in "Naughty Marietta" and "Rose Marie," Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, America's favorite singing stars, now come to the New Theatre screen Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in "Maytime," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's lavish adaptation of the Rida Johnson Young operetta which was one of the memorable hits of the New York stage.

Directed by Robert Z. Leonard, the man who gave filmgoers "The Great Ziegfeld," with a wide variety of songs by Sigmund Romberg and Herbert Stothart, and with a brilliant supporting cast headed by John Barrymore in his first appearance since "Romeo and Juliet"—the new M-G-M musical opens as one of the outstanding sensations of the new movie season.

"GENERAL SPANKY"

The thrills and drama of the War Between the States in the 60's, with the charm and traditions of the Ol' South, furnish the interesting background for the Hal Roach feature-length comedy, "General Spanky," which shows Saturday of next week.

This original human-interest film play linked with an absorbing romance and delightful comedy, serves as a most appropriate vehicle to introduce chubby Spanky McFarland as the newest and most sensational of the juvenile screen stars. It gives full scope to the mischievous antics, hilarious capers and ingenuity of Spanky and his army of kids to round out a full evening of entertainment for grown-ups as well as children.

"PENROD AND SAM"

Fun and thrills for the whole family is promised by "Penrod and Sam," the comedy drama which First National screened from the famous novel by Booth Tarkington, and which comes to the New Theatre Saturday of next week.

Those two adventurous youngsters, who are of the Huckleberry Finn-Tom Sawyer type, have long been favorites in literature, and their exploits on the screen are expected to win them millions of new admirers.

"THE GREAT O'MALLEY"

One of those intensely human and altogether believable movie stories about which you say "it might have happened right here in our own neighborhood," will come to the North East Theatre Saturday of this week, when "The Great O'Malley," with Pat O'Brien and Humphrey Bogart in the stellar roles, will begin its first local showing.

In the supporting cast are Ann Sheridan, new red-headed leading woman from Texas; Frieda Inescort, Donald Crisp, little Sybil Jason, Henry O'Neill and others.

"The Great O'Malley" is a tale of conflict between Pat O'Brien, a hard-boiled cop, and Bogart, the toughest bad man of the screen.

The story present Pat O'Brien as Officer James Aloysius O'Malley, a hard-boiled cop who lives by his rulebook, and doesn't let his heart sway him toward sympathy with offenders against the rules, no matter how slight their offenses may be.

"COUNTERFEIT LADY"

Daring gal steals rare jewel! Matches wits with the perfect sleuth . . . on a mile-a-minute cross country chase. This reckless adventure tale is unfolded in Columbia's "Counterfeit Lady," featured Lady," P. .etaoinshrdlu etaoi shr turing Ralph Bellamy and Joan Perry, showing Saturday at the North East Theatre.

This action-crammed "detective" story tingles with excitement from the moment Joan gets her fingers on the "Blue Marquee" diamond until the unexpected punch-laden climax that hits a new high in screen thrills.

In addition to Bellamy and Miss Perry others in "Counterfeit Lady" include Douglass Dumbrille, George McKay, Gene Morgan and Henry Mollison. D. Ross Lederman directed from the screen play by Thomas Van Dycke, based on a story by Harold Shumate.

"WAIKIKI WEDDING"

A comedy of love and music in romance Waikiki brings Bing Crosby, Bob Burns, Martha Raye and Shirley Ross to the screen of the North East Theatre next Thursday and Friday in "Waikiki Wedding."

The story deals with the romance of a contest winner, played by Miss Ross, who wins a trip to Waikiki with a pineapple recipe. Miss Ross doesn't like Waikiki and is about to walk out on the whole business when Crosby, who is press agent for the pineapple concern and who conceives the contest as a publicity stunt, is prevailed upon to take Miss Ross in hand.

He proceeds to make Waikiki romantic and glamorous for Miss Ross. So much so that he falls under the spell himself. The climax comes when reality clashes with fantasy and Bing has to produce a Waikiki which doesn't exist. Being a resourceful press agent, he produces it.

About Shortcake

You'll find your baked shortcake much easier to split in layers if you divide the dough into 2 parts, fit one portion in the pan and brush with melted butter; then top with second layer of dough and bake.

"Saucy Eggs"

A delightful way to prepare poached eggs is to cook the eggs in hot tomato soup instead of the usual hot water. Serve the soup as a sauce.

A Tint-Hint

Here's a grand way to tint curtains evenly—and easily. If the curtains are fragile, place in roomy bag or an old pillow slip and close at open end. Thoroughly dissolve the tinting agent in water in your Hotpoint electric washer. Add the curtains, which have been washed, and let them agitate for 3 to 5 minutes. Curtains made of sturdier material may be placed in the machine without being placed in a bag.

For Bigger and Better Cream Puffs

When baking cream puffs or eclairs the one-step, cold oven way, made possible by the temperature and moisture controlled Hotpoint oven, drop the mixture by smaller spoonfuls than usual on the baking sheet; baked in the cold electric oven, cream puffs expand to greater size, producing not only a delicious crunchy product, but yielding more servings than the same recipe baked the ordinary way.

MEMORIAM

MINKER—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary E. Minker, who was called from us May 16, 1936:

In the graveyard safely sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies our mother we loved so dearly,
In her silent, lonely grave.

No one knows how much we miss her,
No one knows the tears we shed,
But in heaven we hope to meet her,
Where no farewell words are said.
—Sadly missed by Her Children.

Watches Once Small Clocks

Watches originally were small clocks and were worn hung from the girdle because they were too large for the pocket.

Nothing on the table tempts you?

And you look back, with grown-up longing to those days when "a hunk of bread and a chunk of cheese" were the piece de resistance supreme?

Indigestion, too!

Well, don't try to prescribe for yourself. See your doctor, because chronic indigestion is sometimes a symptom of tuberculosis.
