QUEER CHRISTMAS

USEFUL XMAS GIFTS

Gloves, Underwear, Neckwear, Suits, Suspenders, Overcoats, Silk Mufflers, Sweater Coats and many other appropriate things for Xmas presents. All complete.

FOR the benefit of Clothing Consumers, we will endeavor to hand you a brief synopsis of the "modus operandi" of the Clothing Business, and then let you judge as to who is in the better position to serve you more economically.

In June we select—direct from the manufacturers—piece goods for our various lines of Fall and Winter Clothing, to be made up for us in accordance with the various models. These goods are bought to the best possible advantage, in a good many instances closer than some city retail dealers who don't avail themselves of anticipations and discounts. Now, these city retailers conduct business the same way. They must place their orders with the manufacturers just as we do, and they must anticipate and discount in order to be in a position to sell as close as we. Even if their expenses to handle the product were no more—BUT here comes the difference. "Stop and think" of the enormous expense he has necessarily been subjected to when this suit is handed to you. For instance, a house of fair size with a $10,000 rent: Salesman who waits on you, $20 to $40 per week; window dresser, $25 per week; together with taxes, license, insurance and many minor expenses to be added to your suit or overcoat. Then you can frame up some idea as to why we are in a better position to sell Clothing for so much less.

Now the above are nothing but plain, logical facts, such as are being confirmed by consumers themselves every day. As a lady told us a few days ago, after looking at overcoats for her boy, then investigating city styles and prices, came back and purchased our coat at $5.00, frankly admitting she saw nothing NEAR as good for less than $7.50. A similar transaction occurred with a gentleman, who came back and bought our $12.50 suit in preference to paying $18. THINK of this. If you need a trip for your health, GO; but come home and buy your stuff. We'll save you money enough to pay your fare and a little more, if you need goods to any extent. We are after legitimate business without offering any chromos, and if you are on the economical list (as most of us must be, especially this season) then we are here with the goods and will help you out. Our various lines are yet complete. Don't wait too long, though, for the sizes are being broken daily.

Resolved, "That it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all." Affirmative, Miss Smyth, Miss Gray. Negative, Miss Snodgrass, Miss Dodson. The former won.

Important Grange Meeting.—All members of the Chestertown Grange are earnestly requested to meet at their hall next Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 29th, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and to transact other business of importance. Renewed interest is being taken in the meetings of the Grange and it is hoped that every member may be present next Wednesday afternoon. Come out.

New Superintendent.—The Chestertown Water Board held a special meeting Wednesday morning and accepted with regret the resignation of the superintendent, Mr. Wm. B. Usilton. Mr. Usilton has been manager of the water department of Chestertown since its purchase from Chas. T. Westcott, Esq., and has been most active in improving same. Owing to continued bad health he was compelled to resign the position. Mr. Chas. S. Smith, who has been acting as assistant for several months, was elected superintendent and will assume charge at once. Politics played no part in the appointment the sole purpose of the Board was as to efficiency and in Mr. Smith they have an enterprising citizen and one who will do everything in his power to serve the public well. The office of the company will be removed from the News office to Fireman's Hall, Cross street.

Stallion Sold.—Mr. Jefferson B. Foard, of Middletown, has sold his handsome, well-bred four-year-old brown stallion, Krembel, No. 43623, to Mr. Alday Clements, the consideration being $500 cash and other considerations aggregating $600. Krembel was one of the handsomest horses in that section and was a "perfect picture" in horse flesh. His breeding was noted, his sire being Mobel, trotting record 2.10]; he by Moko, the greatest sire of early speeding in the world; sire of Native Belle, with the world's record as a two-year-old, 2.07]; Moko by Baron Wilkes; he by George Wilkes; he by Hambletonian, 10. Dam, Krem Marie, producing dam of two 2.16] and 2.26]; sired by Krembin; he by Lord Russell; he by Harold, No. 413; he by Hambletonian, 10 Mr. Foard was very proud of Krembel, but as he has a number of other good horses concluded to dispose of him. We understand he will be sent to Wilmington and placed in the stud and will likewise be trained for speed.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND BEST WISHES

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse;
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that Saint Nicholas soon would be there;
The children were nestled all snug in the beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads
"Old Santa Clause," came and went,
And I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!
