The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, February 20, 1869.

☞ OUR friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—We are gratified to learn that a movement is on foot—which promises to be successful—for the organization in Chestertown of a Mutual Building Association. We can say, for the encouragement of those engaged in the endeavor, that, from our exchanges in various parts of the country where these Associations have been formed, we see great good is being accomplished. A few weeks ago one of the Wilmington, Del., papers, in speaking of the prosperity of that city—and particularly of its recent rapid advancement—attributes it, in a great measure, to the existence of these Building Associations. Our own State Capital—so often in years past contemptuously styled a "finished city"—has, by the same means, in the last year or two, taken a fresh start, and we learn is now rapidly growing. It has been but a few years since the first Building Association was organized in Baltimore city, but now their number is very large, and new ones are constantly being formed. As a consequence, thousands of mechanics and laboring men are possessed of comfortable homes of their own, who, otherwise, never could have secured them. The same good results, we are confident, would be experienced here; therefore, we say to the movers in this enterprize—Delay not, but organize at once; the sooner the better.

Since writing the above we find in the Annapolis Republican an editorial article on this subject, from which we make the following extract:

"The first grand object gained by belonging to such an institution, is to encourage and foster the spirit of frugality and economy. It affords a laudable incentive to ambition. The way is opened and made clear, whereby a person of industry, in moderate circumstances, wishing to practice economy, to save a portion of his earnings, can so accumulate as to secure to himself a house—a home that he may call his own—and thereby be independent of landlords, of distraints, of advanced rents; and above all, of being turned out in an inclement season to look for shelter. It is a most consoling thought to know, though comparatively poor and dependent, we have a dwelling and a roof over our heads which no one can take from us—to realize, come what may, sickness or misfortune—still we have a home of our own. Through the aid, in combination of means procured from many sources, as is the case in building societies, any one who is industrious and sober, frugal and attentive to business, can, with unerring certainty become his own landlord and the happy proprietor of his own domicile.

ROBBERY.—During the past ten days there have been several cases of robbery in and near our town. On Friday night, of last week, the boot and shoe store of Bennett & Fiddis was robbed of several pairs of boots and shoes: Sunday night the meat house of Capt. Thompson was broken into and a quantity of meat stolen: and we learn that on the same night a quantity of harness was taken from the premises of the late S. W. Spencer.

There will be preaching in the Court House, on Thursday evening next at seven o'clock, by one the preachers of the M. E. Church. South.

RAILROAD DIRECTOR.—We learn, upon good authority, that W. P Francis, Esq., has been appointed by the Board of Public Works, State Director in the Kent County Railroad Company.

NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—The site for a new Church, 30x50 feet, was selected and measured off last Saturday morning by Messrs. Jervis and Betton, at Georgetown, near the old Presbyterian Church. It is to be a frame building with a tower, after one of Mr. Upjohn's best designs, and is to cost not less than three thousand dollars; twenty-one hundred dollars already subscribed. It will probably be completed by the first of July next.

THE PEACHES.—There is a prospect at present for an abundant yield of peaches the coming season. A gentleman well acquainted with Morton & Co.'s orchard reports no defective buds up to this time.

NO USE OF TALKING.
