Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach.

A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

MY! I WAS GLAD THIS DAY

Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James M. P. Church, writes interestingly as follows concerning Jimmie Cook, the boy evangelist. The article refers to a communication in the Methodist Protestant from Rev. S. J. Smith:

Thanks, Dr. Smith, for your contribution entitled "My! I Was Glad Last Night." It was nicely written, timely and to the point. I read, I wept, I rejoiced, and finally exclaimed, "My! I was glad this day." Jimmie Cook, the boy evangelist, was apprehended and lodged in Chestertown jail as the man wanted who had committed several robberies in Delaware and Maryland. He was not guilty, however. Providential circumstances were such that I was in Chestertown this day. I was summoned to a telephone and informed that a suspicious character, "who claimed to be Jimmie Cook," was in jail. I was asked, "Do you know Jimmie Cook?" I replied, "Yes." The captor doubted the story of Jimmie, whereupon I volunteered to appear at the jail and look at the man. I went immediately, spoke of my mission to the sheriff and was ushered into the presence of men who were quizzing the fellow. I paused a few seconds and finally walked in front of the man and stood silent. He looked up and remarked, "Why, how do you do, Mr. Morrison?" He always addressed me thus. "Well, Jimmie Cook! what are you doing here?" I replied. "Hard luck, Mr. Morrison, hard luck," he said. The State's Attorney interrupted by asking, "Jimmie, where did you see Mr. Morrison before this time?" He replied, "I assisted him in revival meetings in Wilmington, Del." The attorney asked me if this was true. I replied that it was. After the exchange of a few more words between subject and writer the affair took a sudden change. That scene I shall never forget. Stout hearts were subdued, eyes moistened and purse strings loosened. The most pathetic incident to me was when Dr. Simpers, "a dapper little man with a great big heart," got down at the feet of the unfortunate, only to find poor Jimmie shoeless. This was a picture of plenty and poverty, side by side. But all hearts beat as one in that jail "for the comfort and welfare of Jimmie," and out of the abundance of things he was washed and clothed, fed and kept warm. He was in a sorry gear, and a pitable object. But O! what a change. Brethren, I had never realized (fully) until then the meaning of the Scriptures, "When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in? or naked and clothed thee? Or when saw we the sick or in prison and came unto thee? Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Jimmie talked incoherently at times, nevertheless he displayed strong faith in God, and exhibited the old-time zeal and fire of the Holy Spirit. He has been instrumental in leading many souls to Christ, and he expressed his belief that he would be sufficiently restored to do, at least, something for the Master. Misfortune has overtaken Jimmie, and he may be "down and out," as one of our daily papers put it, in the estimation of the world, but his simple faith and trust in God raises him to a high place in Christ's kingdom.. He went out from that jail and that town, making his way toward Alabama, with "God bless you and speed you on your journey." My! I was glad this day.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
