Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TAFT GETS NOMINATION; SHERMAN RUNNING MATE

The vote on the first and only ballot in the Republican National Convention was as follows:

Taft, 561; Roosevelt, 107; La Follette, 41; Cummins, 17; Hughes, 2; absent, 6; not voting, 344.

Vice-President Sherman was renominated, after Governor Hadley and Governor Deneen both refused to permit the use of their names in connection with the nomination.

The vote for Vice-President was:

Sherman, 597; Borah, 21; Merriam, 20; Hadley, 14; Beverage, 2; Howard Gillette, 1; absent, 71; present, but not voting, 352.

The Republican convention adjourned at 10.30 sine die Saturday.

Senator La Follette, through his manager, repudiated the standpat platform that was adopted by the Republican convention, declaring he could not support it,

The vote on the platform was as follown:

Ayes, 666; nays, 53; absent, 16; present, but not voting, 343.

NEW PARTY GIVEN BIRTH

The Progressives, composed largely of Roosevelt delegates to the Republican National Convention, met in Orchestra Hall, Chicago, and gave birth to the Progressive party, nominating Theodore Roosevelt for President. Colonel Roosevelt accepted the nomination in a speech which bitterly condemned the Republican National Convention.

This program of the Roosevelt men was decided upon after an all-day conference of the former President and his leaders.

SIX TO JOIN T. R.

Two Others in Maryland Delegation Urged to Rally to The New Standard—Carrington, Moreland, Tait, Melis, Weis And Others in Line.

Chicago, June 22.—Six members of the Maryland delegation maintain that they will join the new Roosevelt party and will organize their State in behalf of the Colonel. They held a further conference today and pledged themselves absolutely to the new standard.

These six hoped that Messrs. Blair and Jones would join them, but have no assurances today that those two delegates will have a part in the organization of the new party. Those who mean to stick to Colonel Roosevelt through thick and thin, through good report or evil, are Colonel Carrington, Messrs. Moreland, Melis, Tait, Weis and Evans.

A majority of the Maryland delegation carried out the primary pledge of the State and voted for Colonel Rooselt regardless of the fact that Roosevelt had not been formally nominated.

When Maryland was asked to cast its vote Governor Goldsborough stated that, inasmuch as there was a division in the delegation, he wanted the roll called. When this was done Warburton voted for President Taft and Melis, Moreland, Albrecht, Tait and Evans refused to vote at all. The remainder of the Marylanders cast their ballots for Colonel Roosevelt, except Colonel Carrington, who was absent.

When the roll was called on the platform Governor Goldsborough announced that eight Marylanders voted for it, six were present and not voting and two were absent. Tait challenged the vote and on the roll call only Carrington, Tait, Melis, Albrecht, Moreland and Evans refused to vote. When his name was called, Albrecht said:

"Present, but wouldn't vote." Evans, the negro, not to be outdone, cried out when his name was reached: "Present, but you couldn't make me vote."

Later when Ryan, who was absent, came in he voted with the Taft people, making the total 10.

Messrs. Blair and Jones made no statements today with regard to their attitude toward the new party. They have been on the doubtful list, neither side being sure of them. As for a public declaration, they refuse to pledge themselves to a party before such party is organized. They will meet the issue, they say, when it arises, but will not anticipate it.

Colonel Carrington was asked what he would do if the Republican State convention were called together by the Taft leaders and a new set of electors named to replace those who have promised to support Colonel Roosevelt in the Electoral College. He answered in one word: "Mandamus!"

Pursuing the matter further, Colonel Carrington said:

"The State convention which named the present Republican electors was called together and acted under party law. After acting it adjourned sine die. It cannot be called together again for the same purpose. Any effort to do so will be resisted in the courts. We will apply for a mandamus and it will be granted."

With this determination, the Roosevelt men in the Maryland delegation mean to go back home and aid in the organization of a third party in the State. They will send delegates to the progressive party convention to be held in this city in August. Carrington, Tait and Moreland will be delegates to this convention. Other Roosevelt men now here also may be delegates if they want to return and take part in the organization of the Roosevelt movement.

The first business of the Roosevelt Marylanders when they get home will be to justify their action in this convention before their own people. Some of the delegates who have announced that they will no longer feel bound by the Republican National Convention know that when they return home they will find indignation in many quarters. They will therefore devote considerable time to squaring themselves with the Roosevelt people who sent them to the Chicago Convention.

During the big Roosevelt demonstration this afternoon the six Marylanders paraded through the halls. Galen L. Tait grabbed the State standard at a moment when Governor Goldsborough was not looking and marched with it at the head of the little column down the aisles of the convention hall.

Good Meals at Camp Comfort

The boys at Camp Comfort are using the same stove that they had last year. It was the best they could get. It was a

New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-stove

This year they got a New Perfection Oven
Also a New Perfection Toaster
Also a New Perfection Broiler

"Gee, what a difference in the meals a good stove makes," said one of the boys. So they called their shack "Camp Comfort." And they will tell their mothers and wives about the stove, too. For the New Perfection Oil Cook-stove is as convenient for the home as for the camp. It will bake, broil, roast and toast as well as a regular coal range.

The New Perfection Stove is handsomely finished in nickel, with cabinet top, drop shelves, towel racks, etc. Long chimneys, enameled turquoise-blue. Made with 1, 2 or 3 burners. All dealers. Free Cook-Book with every stove. Cook-Book also given to anyone sending 5 cents to cover mailing cost.
