Mail Gets Through Easton-An echo of the lost airliner which crashed in Utah before Christmas and remained undiscovered for months, reached here when a letter mailed at San Diego on December 14 was delivered to Mrs. Lester Ball with the postoffice notation, "Delay due to air mail interruption near Salt Lake City, Utah, Decmeber 5, 1936." Still in good condition except for missing mucilage on the envelope flap, the missive contained a message and two Christmas

R. R. North Drowns Claiborne—A drifting motor boat with its skipper missing betrayed the possible drowning of Robert R. North, 63, in Eastern Bay. Mr. North, of Easton, had left for an early morning run on the river. It was assumed that he lost his balance while standing on the deck of his craft. Shore Resort Growing Ocean City—This fast growing resort increased its taxable basis some $150,000 during the past year, in addition to about $165,000 of non-assessable improvements, the latter L boardwalk and sewerage. $800,000 in 1922, Ocean City has more than tripled its valuation in fifteen years, the present figure being just short of $3,000,000.
