In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following. Sold by M. A. Toulson.

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. Dora M. Dempsey, Irving L. Dempsey, plaintiffs,

May Lavelle Dempsey, Marion Todd Dempsey, Catherine Elizabeth Dempsey, Gertrude Esther Dempsey, infants; James T. Ireland, Etta Ireland, Mary Campbell, John C. Ireland, defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, State of Maryland, In Equity. No. 1816.

The object of the Bill of Complaint filed in the above entitled cause is to procure the sale of the Real Estate of Sarah C. Todd, late of Kent county, deceased, to pay her debts.

1. The Bill alleges that the said Sarah C. Todd left a lot of land of considerable value located near the village of Galena in said Kent county and an amount of personalty insufficient to pay her debts and that there is due from her estate to the plaintiffs the sum of $1276.00 after the settlement of her estate and that the said real estate was devised for life to the said Dora M. Dempsey and Etta Ireland with remainder to the descendants of the said Dora M. Dempsey, her daughter, and in the event of the death of the said Dora without surviving descendants, then to be sold and the proceeds divided equally among Irving L. Dempsey, Etta Ireland, Mary Campbell, James T. Ireland, all residents of said Kent county and John C. Ireland, a resident of the State of Delaware and a non-resident of the State of Maryland, whose address is No. 206 French Street in the city of Wilmington.

THE OUTLOOK PRAISES WILSON

Upholds His Course Concerning Colonel George Harvey.

"BEST LEADER SINCE TILDEN"

Magazine on Which Colonel Roosevelt Is Contributing Editor Calls New Jersey Governor "a Progressive In Achievement" — "Apparently the Strongest Democratic Candidate." "Appeals to Voters Independent of Party."

By GILBERT T. STEPHENSON.
[Written for the Winston-Salem (N. C.) Sentinel.]

In view of the fact that Theodore Roosevelt is a contributing editor of the Outlook, it must be interesting to see what that magazine thinks of Woodrow Wilson and his candidacy. The following are some of the striking statements about Wilson made during the past fourteen months:

Speaking of the Smith-Martine senatorship fight in New Jersey and Governor Wilson's part in it, the Outlook says editorially under the title "A Victory For Popular Rule" (Feb. 4, 1911): "The election of James E. Martine as the United States senator from New Jersey is a double triumph for Governor Wilson. He has won a victory for the principle of popular rule, and he has given a convincing demonstration of the service which the governor of a state can render as a leader of his party. By the success of his campaign for the election of Mr. Martine Governor Wilson has strengthened the movement for the direct election of United States senators, has done much to establish himself as the real leader of New Jersey's Democracy and has made himself one of the most prominent figures in the field of national political life."

Contrasting the administration of Governor Dix of New York and Governor Wilson of New Jersey, the Outlook (March 25, 1911) says: "Governor Wilson is the proverbial 'Scholar in Politics,' a ready, witty and forceful speaker, equipped with knowledge in a wide range of historical and political topics, and accustomed to draw upon that knowledge for the purpose of instruction—emphatically a student, a man whose administrative capacity has been tested principally in an academic capacity. What is most interesting and significant is that the scholar avows his belief that a governor should be a leader, and is showing his faith by his works, while the practical man (Dix) is basing his acts on theory, on doctrines of non-interference and non-relief by his passiveness. Dr. Wilson, the student, the scholar, the thinker, is the really 'practical man,' the real executive."

In its issue of April 29, 1911, the Outlook speaks of the Geran direct election law of New Jersey as "a clear instance of the way in which the broader and more intelligent view is finding expression in statutory law," and says: "The Geran act is one of the notable achievements of Governor Wilson, for its passage is due to his leadership. It is a wholesome sign that the people are not content with merely the name of self government, but are determined to use means to secure to themselves the substance."

Speaking of Governor Wilson's western tour, the Outlook (June 10, 1911) says: "The program of legislation secured under his leadership in a single session of the legislature has few parallels in American political history. The people of the United States value a man of deeds as well as words, and, without regard to section or party, have done honor to Governor Wilson because he is a progressive not only in principle, but also in achievement."

The Outlook of Aug. 26, 1911, said: "If he (Wilson) is nominated for the presidency, it will be because of a popular demand, not because of skillful political manipulation. As president of Princeton university he combined a resolve that the door of opportunity should be opened to the sons of the plain people with the resolve that the sons of the rich and poor alike should be tested by a high standard of scholarship. His democratic spirit has been well proved; he believes in the people. It is inconceivable that he should ever be found consciously supporting the special interest against the popular welfare."

Commenting upon the Harvey episode, the Outlook of Jan. 27, 1912, has the following to say: "On the published statements of facts, there is nothing in Governor Wilson's course that is incompatible with a sense of gratitude to a friend and appreciation of his services. If Colonel Harvey did not want his question answered he should not have asked it, and since he did ask it it is scarcely fair to him (Wilson) to give the impression that Governor Wilson 'made a statement' rather than answered a question. The delight with which certain Democrats, as well as Republicans, have welcomed this incident as an injury to Governor Wilson's prospects, is a measure of the impression which Governor Wilson has made on the American people as a progressive leader."

DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATOR

A Money Maker and Saver

The Cow's Best Friend

If you are still skimming milk by the old-fashioned "setting" system you are losing about one pound of cream in every four and you are not giving your cows a square deal.

With a De Laval cream separator you would get 20 to 35% more, and much better, cream, and besides would have warm sweet milk to feed to your calves and pigs.

We know that the De Laval will give you better service and last twice as long as any other separator and will be a money-maker for you.

Ask any of your neighbors who use a De Laval what kind of service their machines have given them. If a De Laval will save cream and make money for your neighbors it will do as much for you. Why not give it a trial?

Easiest to turn, easiest to wash, skims the cleanest lasts the longest.

SOONER OR LATER YOU WILL BUY A DE LAVAL
