ELECTION—Tuesday, November 6th, 1888.

COL. H. KYD DOUGLAS, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the sixth Maryand district, and Mr. McComas, the Republican nominee, will stump the district together and debate the tariff question before mixed audiences. Col. Douglas is a brilliant orator and will undoubtedly present the tariff reform policy of the party with clearness and force. There is a fine outlook for a Democratic victory in the sixth this fall.

Have You Heard from Maine?

Two good hard-shell Republicans in the vicinity of Still Pond, for each of whom the Transcript editor has a warm personal esteem, called him by telephone early last Thursday morning, to make some political inquiries and to give some political pointers. They had just read the Transcript of last week, and took exceptions to one or two editorial paragraphs. They wanted to know especially if the Transcript had heard from Maine. Biggest Republican majority, they said, since 1876. The increased majority in Maine, they said, showed how the wind is blowing, how the current is running. The same ratio of change will throw New York, New Jersey and Connecticut Republican, &c., &c. Our two Republican friends had evidently been reading Mr. James G. Blaine's enthusiastic and slightly premature telegram. Full returns show that the Republican majority is 1200 less than in the presidential election of 1884. Well, does this decreased majority show how the wind is blowing, how the current is running? The Transcript will say, however, as it has said before, that Maine is not an indicator. The Democrats are not doing any figuring for Maine in November. But we will say to our two esteemed Republican friends in the neighborhood of Still Pond, keep your eyes on California, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa. The vote is going to be very close in all of those States, and more than one in the list will go Democratic.

A Contest on Clearly Defined Lines.

There is a little batch of Democrats, small in numbers, happily, who would if they could run this campaign on a straddling, dodging, non-committal policy as to the tariff. In the view of these small-bore statesmen, the triumph of a party means not the success of special principles of government, but that one party or the other has won the swag, and raked in the offices. No observer, who possesses ordinary common sense, can fail to understand that this campaign is being fought distinctly upon the question as to whether it is best for this country to maintain an extremely high tariff tax, or whether it is best gradually to reduce the tariff to a revenue standard. If the Democratic party does not represent the policy of gradually reducing the tariff to a revenue standard, it represents nothing. There is a small contingent, however, voiced by the New York Sun, that is constantly trying to belittle the tariff issue, and to force the campaign battle into a cowardly dodging of the tariff reform policy. Fortunately, however, neither of our candidates is a coward or a dodger. Both Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Thurman have spoken out upon the tariff question in a manner that commits the party to a clearly defined policy. And if the Democratic party wins, it will be a victory and a glorious victory for tariff reform. Is there any prominent Maryland politician who is working with this New York Sun gang of obstructionists. If so, we should like to say to him that the great bulk of the Democratic party in this State is decidedly in favor of a gradual reduction of the tariff to a revenue standard. There are probably not ten thousand Democratic voters in the State of Maryland, who believe in maintaining the present war-tax tariff. The statesman, who persistently misrepresents his constituency, may later reap an unsatisfactory reward.

Views of an Alleged Warwick Peach Grower.

He is a Maryland farmer, from the neighborhood of Warwick, Cecil county, and he has sold hundreds if not thousands of baskets of peaches in this market during the last two months. He is naturally a Democrat, and he even carried a musket in the rebel army; but he declares that he shall vote for Harrison and Morton; not that he cares especially for either of them, or that he dislikes either Cleveland or Thurman. His motive is not personal but commercial. He says: "We haven't protection enough now." He came up here to tell us of his change of heart of his own free will. He did not want to go into the office of a Republican organ, because he is not a Republican, and of course he did not like to tell the Democratic organ, the organ which is more free trade than it is Democratic, of his determination. He did not want to hurt its feelings. He says, too, that he has several acquaintances in Cecil county who will make a similar change this fall. —Wilmington Evening Journal.

And pray, why does not the Evening Journal give the name of this Maryland peach-grower, who believes "we haven't protection enough now." A great many people talk a great deal of silly twaddle, about the benefits to be derived from a protective tariff, who have a very crude and indefinite understanding of what a protective tariff really means. If, for instance, a national tax-gatherer should call upon this Warwick peach-grower, once a year, and present a tax bill for $75 with the statement that the money was to be paid to the manufacturers of the country, so that they might conduct their business at a satisfactory profit, he would most likely think that the manufacturers are not only getting protection enough, but just about $75 too much. In other words, he would immediately understand the injustice of taxing him to sustain them. And yet the present war-tariff schedule of taxation probably takes annually from the pocket of the Warwick peach-grower, more than $75. If he buys $20 worth of sugar per year, $8 of it is taxes. If he buys $100 worth of clothing for himself and his wife and his children, $30 of it is taxes. If he buys $10 worth of salt to cure his pork, $4 of it is taxes. And so it may be easily estimated by going into details, that the average farmer pays from $150 to $200 per annum, in order that rich manufacturers may grow richer. The fact that these taxes are filched under cover, does not render the principle any the less unjust, than if they were collected directly. It is an outrageous and tyrannical system, that imposes a burdensome taxation upon the people in order to sustain certain business enterprises.

But who is the Warwick peach-grower? Give his name. Trot him out and let his astonished neighbors gaze upon his countenance.

Wm. T. Lane, el. al.,
VERSUS
Walter K. Vansant, el. al.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate in Kent county of Joshua Vansant, late of Kent county, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the debts of said deceased to the plaintiffs and others.

The Bill states that said Joshua Vansant was in his life time together with Jennie E. Vansant, his wife, indebted to one Joseph T. Kennard in the sum of two hundred and forty-three dollars on a certain note, under seal and dated November 29th, 1884, and payable to order of said Kennard three years after date, with interest, and that said note was endorsed by said Kennard to said William T. Lane.

And that said Joshua Vansant was also indebted to one Theodore E. Hayes in the sum of ninety-six dollars and sixty-eight cents on a certain promissory note, dated January 1st, 1887, payable six months after date, with interest, and also to said Theodore E. Hayes in the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars and eighty-six cents on open account, all of which indebtedness is over due and unpaid.

That said Joshua Vansant being so indebted, and also unto divers other persons, and owning real estate and a small personal estate in Kent county, departed this life intestate in or about the month of Novembar in the year 1887, leaving a widow, Jennie E. Vansant, who died in March, 1888, and the defendant, Walter K. Vansant, his only child and heir at law.

That said Walter K. Vansant is an infant under twenty-one years of age, and resides in the city of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania.

That administration on said personal estate has been granted by the Orphans' Court of Kent county to Hope H. Barroll, of said county, who has possessed himself of said personal property, and that said personal estate is very small and insufficient to pay the just debts of said decedent, and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all or so much as may be necessary of the real estate of their aforesaid debtor, the said Joshua Vansant.

It is thereupon, this 13th day of August, 1888, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 21st day of September, 1888, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 8th day of October next, to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined sections of the registration law, which bear particularly upon the rights of the citizen and the powers and duties of the Register:

SECTION 3. And be it enacted, That each of the said officers of registration shall have in addition to the other powers conferred upon him by this Act or which may hereafter be conferred upon him by law, during the respective times of his appointed sittings, under the provisions of this Act, the powers of a Justice of the Peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands at or around his place of registration—to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed, to prevent and suppress riots, tumult, violence and disorder and all other improper practices, at, around or near to his place of registration, tending to intimidation, or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or of the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters or poll-books, hereinafter referred to, while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him while sitting as an officer of registration, for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office, by summons and attachments; he may while sitting as such officer of registration commit for trial any person committing, at or around his place of registration, any offense forbidden by this Act; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments, when sitting in any county of this State, to the Sheriff of said county, or to any Constable thereof; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a Judge of a Court of Record, having jurisdiction of the subject matter, or by a Justice of the Peace, exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions; the Sheriff or Constable in any county of this State, who shall serve any of said processes, shall receive the same fees, and in like manner, as it is, or may be by law provided, that he shall receive fees in other State cases; but no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this Act, except such as is provided by this Act.

It is also thought proper to publish the following sections of chapter 155 of the Acts of 1888 showing changes of times for sitting of registrars and their duties:

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That said several officers of registration for the respective election districts in the counties of this State, instead of sitting five days in September and two days in October in each year as prescribed by the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two section ten, shall sit for the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon them by said Act, and by this Act, daily for two successive days in the month of May, for three successive days in September and for five successive days in October in every year in which an election shall be held in said counties; said sittings in May and September to commence on the second Monday of said months respectively, and the October sitting to commence on the first Monday in October. Said sittings shall in like manner re called the May, September and October sittings. The said respective officers of registration shall sit at the said several sittings in the several counties with open doors from 8 o'clock A. M. until 6 o'clock P. M. on each day of their sessions, and their proceedings shall be public and open to free inspection, without any obstruction whatever. The places of their sitting shall be selected as prescribed in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That each of said officers of registration in Baltimore city shall be entitled to receive four dollars per day for every day he shall be engaged in the discharge of his official duties, exclusive of office rent and the cost of stationery, and each of said registration officers in the counties shall receive a per diem of four dollars for every day he shall be engaged in the discharge of his official duties.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said several officers of registration shall give notice signed by him or them of the times and places of his or their several respective sittings for five days before his or their several respective sittings in May, June, July, September and October, by publication as prescribed in the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two; and should changes of the places of their sittings become necessary, due notice thereof shall be given as provided by section fourteen of said Act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That said Officers of Registration, when sitting at their respective May, June, July and September sittings, and the first sitting in October, shall register as provided in the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, all qualified voters who shall present themselves for registration; and in addition to said work of registration they shall carefully revise and scrutinize the said registries of voters so received by them from said Clerks of the several Circuit courts and of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, to the end that all errors therein shall be corrected; and the names of all voters entered therein who shall have died or become for any reason disqualified, or who for any cause shall have ceased to be entitled to remain on said registration books, shall be stricken off. In order that the work of striking off from the registries the names of all dead and disqualified persons, and of all persons erroneously or improperly placed thereon, may be thoroughly and accurately accomplished, it shall be the duty of said several Officers of Registration at their May sitting to go carefully over the whole list of names upon said registries in their respective precincts and election districts, and to note for striking off the names of all persons whom from their own information, or from information furnished to them from others, they have good reason to believe to be proper to be stricken off. Having made out this list, which shall be at all times open to public inspection, it shall be their duty to address written notices to all the persons whose names are set down thereon, except those known to be dead, calling on said persons to appear before them on or before the first day of July sitting in the city of Baltimore, and the first day of the September sitting in the counties, to show cause why their names should not be stricken from said registries, which notices shall be served in Baltimore city by the police of Baltimore city, and in the counties by the Sheriff of the several counties, upon all of such persons who can be found by them, and said notices shall also be sent by mail to said persons addressed to them at the place from which they were registered. Should no cause, or, in the judgment of said Officers of Registration, an insufficient cause to the contrary be shown by the first day of their July or September sitting, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of said Officers of Registration, during said sitting, to strike off the names of all persons on said list; but if said Officers of Registration shall be satisfied by competent sworn testimony produced before them, or from their own knowledge or information, that any of said persons, notwithstanding their failure to appear in answer to said notices, are in reality entitled to have their names retained on said registration books, then the names of said persons shall be so retained; moreover, whenever any suggestion shall be made to them in writing, signed by any person, that said registration books contain any specified name or names which should be stricken off, it shall be their duty to diligently inquire into and investigate every such suggestion, and to strike off every name which, upon such investigation, they shall ascertain to have been improperly registered in the first instance, or to be no longer entitled to remain upon the registration books, for any lawful cause, within three days after the sittings in May, June, July and September and the first sitting in October in the city of Baltimore, and after the May, September and October sittings in the counties, said Registration Officers shall publish, as provided in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, the two alphabetical lists required to be published by section twenty-one of said Act; and shall also put up and retain during their subsequent sessions, in a conspicuous place in the room occupied by them as registration office, two of said printed alphabetical lists; and said Officers of Registration, within three days after the close respectively of their sittings in May, June, July and September, shall send by mail, and through the police of Baltimore city and the Sheriff in the several counties, notices to all persons whose names have been stricken off at said respective sittings, notifying them that their names have been stricken off, so as to give them an opportunity to appear at some future sitting, not later than the first of the October sittings, and establish their right to be registered. At the end of the first October sitting it shall, in like manner, be the duty of said Officers of Registration to send notices in the same modes to all persons whose names have been stricken off at said October sitting, notifying them that their names have been stricken off, and informing them that said Officers of Registration will sit on the third day after the date of such notice for the hearing and determining of all applications for reinstatement, at which final sitting said Officers of Registration shall sit for said purpose only. In all cases when a name is stricken off the reason shall be recorded opposite such name, and when a name is stricken off upon the oath of any person, the name of such person shall be recorded opposite the name stricken off. At the end of each day's registry, or revision of registration, one of said Registers in the city or the Register in the county, shall sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter, so that no new name can be added without discovery. And shall any of said Officers of Registration of the several counties of this State be unable to sit and register the qualified voters of their respective election districts on the next to the final day of the October sitting, by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, all persons qualified to be registered, who shall appear in person at the place of registration on said day, and who shall fail to be registered by reason of such disability of the Officer of Registration, shall have the same right to appeal as if they had been refused registration by the Officer of Registration. The provisions of this section, so far as they refer to the striking off of names from the registry lists, shall not apply to the action of the Registries in the city of Baltimore in the years in which there is an entire new registration in said city, as hereinafter provided.
