And NOTICE TO CREDITORS

William W. Beck
versus
Robert W. Reeves.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity. No. 1808.

THE object of this suit is to have the surplus proceeds of sale under a mortgage from Robert W. Reeves to William W. Beck, dated the 19th day of February, in the year 1908, applied to pay the creditors of Robert W. Reeves, late of Kent county, mortgagor.

The Bill states that said Robert W. Reeves died before the sale under the mortgage indebted unto Mary B. Roberts in the sum of —— Dollars, and to others, leaving personal property insufficient to pay his debts, upon which administration was granted to William W. Beck; that the land was sold for more than enough to satisfy the mortgage, and his creditors are entitled to the surplus proceedings; that the said Robert W. Reeves left surviving him, and now living, one brother, W. R. Reeves, of Caroline county, Va., his only heirs at-law.

Ordered this third day of August, 1912, by James A. Pearce, one of the Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity, that the creditors of Robert W. Reeves, deceased, file their claims, with vouchers, with the Clerk of this Court on or before the 15th day of September, or be excluded from participation in the distribution of said surplus proceedings of sale. Ordered further, that notice of the object and purpose of said petition be given to W. R. Reeves, a non resident, by publishing this order in some weekly newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the ninth day of September, 1912, and warning him to appear in this Court, in person or by attorney, on or before the twenty fifth day of September, 1912, to show cause, if any there is, why the petition should not be granted.

Order of Publication.

Mary Jane S. Ashley,
versus
James Kelley, Decatur D. Kelley, and all unknown Heirs of Thomas Kelley, deceased.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity. 1822.

THE object of the Bill of Complaint in this case is to ask for the appointment of a Trustee to convey certain land to the Complainant in fee simple.

The Bill states:

1. That by a paper writing duly executed, acknowledged and delivered, bearing date the 15th day of October, 1873, and recorded among the Land Records of Kent county, Maryland, in Liber J. K. H. No. 12, folio 201, Thomas Kelley and Charlottie Kelley, his wife, granted unto Mary Jane S. Ashley, "her personal representatives and assigns, all that parcel of ground and premises situate and lying in the county aforesaid," which said parcel of ground and premises contain one and a half acres of land, more or less, and is particularly described in said paper writing; and that said paper writing contains the following clauses and covenants, namely: "To Have and to Hold the said described land and premises, unto and to the use of the said Mary Jane S. Ashley, her personal representatives and assigns, for all the residue of the term yet to come and unexpired, therein, with the benefit of renewal forever"; and "And the said Thomas Kelley and his wife covenant to warrant specially the property hereby granted and to execute such further assurances as may be requisite." All of which fully appears by the certified copy of said paper writing filed herewith and marked "Complainants Exhibit No. 1."

2. That at the time said paper writing was executed and delivered, as aforesaid, the said Thomas Kelley was possessed of a fee simple title to the said lot of land and that a fee simple price, namely, one hundred dollars ($100.00) the consideration mentioned in said paper writing, was paid by the said Mary Jane S. Ashley to the said Thomas Kelley for said lot of land.

3. That at the time said writing was executed, acknowledged and delivered, the said Thomas Kelley intended to convey an absolute fee simple estate in and to said lot of land to the said Mary Jane S. Ashley and it was so agreed and understood between them, and that it was by mistake and error that the said conveyance was made in the manner and form as aforesaid.

4. That immediately after the execution and delivery of said paper writing as aforesaid, the said Mary J. S. Ashley took possession of said lot of land and claimed it as her fee simple estate and has ever since been in the adverse, exclusive and continuous possession and enjoyment of said lot of land as of a fee simple estate, and that no claim to same has ever been made by the said Thomas Kelley or any one claiming by, through or under him.

5. That the said Mary Jane S. Ashley always thought that said paper writing conveyed to her a fee simple estate to said lot of land, until a short time ago, when she desired to sell said lot of land and was then advised that said paper writing was a lease and not a deed in fee simple.

6. That the said Thomas Kelley and Charlottie Kelley departed this life fifteen or twenty years ago and that the said Thomas Kelley left surviving him the following children, namely, James Kelley and Decatur Kelley, both of Rock Hall, Kent county, Maryland, and also left surviving him a number of other heirs at law whose names and residences are unknown to your Complainant.

7. That your Complainant is advised that it is necessary to seek the aid of this Honorable Court in order that she may have said paper writing reformed so as to convey to her a fee simple estate to said lot of land.

It is thereupon this 1st day of August, 1912, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of September next giving notice to the said unknown non-resident defendants, heirs of the said Thomas Kelley, deceased, warning them to appear in this Court by person or by Solicitor on or before the 18th day of September next to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

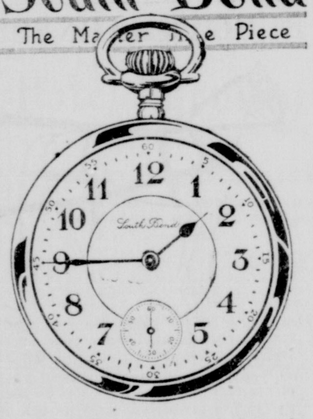
South Bend

The Master Time Piece



THE South Bend Watch Company might use garnet jewels in their watches instead of ruby and sapphire jewels as many other watch companies do and thus greatly reduce the cost of production.

You would not notice the difference in buying.

But, if garnet jewels were used, the watch would not have any such lasting qualities—and the South Bend Watch Company believes it is better to have smaller profits and satisfied customers than large profits and dissatisfied customers.

That's the way we feel about it, too, which accounts for our giving South Bend watches the preference.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Kennedyville and vicinity had a few good showers on Saturday night and a heavy rain Monday afternoon, accompanied with heavy thunder. All are much relieved to get rid of the dreadful dust. The farmers can now go ahead with their plowing and cultivation of the soil for wheat sowing.

Our tomato cannery started up business Saturday afternoon, securing the first picking of a few of the growers of the community. The Baltimore pealers came in the early part of the week, making quite an encampment. Mr. L. A. Pennington is foreman for Mr. Baldwin.

Most of the families of our village have entertained visitors during the summer. Mrs. Lulu Dukes has had with her for a week or more a house party from Baltimore and Denton.

Mrs. E. A. Bromley and Miss Blanche Simonds, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mrs. Tilghman Shafer during the past week; and Miss Anna Simons, of Baltimore, spent the week with Mrs. E. L. Redmile.

Miss Minnie Nowland, of New Britain, Conn., and Miss Elma Lewis, of Hartford, Conn., have been guests at the M. P. parsonage during the past week. The latter is the daughter of Rev. R. L. Lewis, a former pastor of Kennedyville charge. Miss Lewis left on Thursday to visit friends at Chestertown and Wesley Chapel. Miss Nowland left on Saturday for Dover, Del., where she will spend a few days with friends in their cottage on Delaware Bay.

Miss Ada Hurlock of near Kennedyville has returned home after quite an extended visit to school friends in Washington, Preston, Ocean City and Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Weer entertained her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and little son, of Dover, Del., over Friday night of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stokes and little child, of Philadelphia, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cain.

The Misses Walmsley, of Wilmington, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Robinson.

Rev. Mullineaux, wife and visitors were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennington on Wednesday evening of the past week.

Sunday School but no sermon at the M. P. Church on Sunday morning next, as the pastor, Mr. Mullineaux, will fill the pulpit on St. James' charge morning and afternoon, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Morris. Song service and brief sermon in the M. P. Church Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock; topic, "Heavenly Food." Whole service 45 minutes. All are most cordially invited, and particularly the young people.

The second quarterly conference for the present year will be held in the M. P. Church Monday morning Sept. 2. A full attendance of the official board is earnestly desired.

Strange Fact About the Common Mule.

"Ridicule, condemn, berate the mule as you will," remarked a man who has been in the mule breeding business for years, "but there is one thing about a mule that marks him worthy of all wonder and unstinted praise. It may be well to give mule's heels plenty of leeway, but no one ever heard of a man, woman or child being run over by a mule. You may set a baby down in the street and drive a thousand mules at a wild gallop through the street, and not one of them would hurt that baby. You could not force a mule to run over or step on a child if you tried a thousand years.

KENT'S FINE TOMATOES.

A Kent County Farmer writes a very pertinent letter as follows:

Sometime ago the farmers here in Maryland decided that they ought to have as much money for their tomatoes as the farmers of New Jersey, and concerted action on their part succeeded in putting the price up nearly 2 cents a basket of three pecks. Well, now that was a big raise according to the canners, but still they were not paying as much as they paid farmers in other States. Besides, the boats and railroads had to be paid for bringing them to Baltimore, making the cost over one-third more than they could pay Mr. Maryland.

In today's Sun a canner boasts of the Maryland tomato, and I admit he is right. We can grow them and get good crops, too, but lots of farmers, here do not plant as many as they could plant, for the very reason that they can't get a fair price for them. The canner pays less for home-grown tomatoes and sells for more than the other tomatoes bring.

They are often picked in the afternoon, shipped at night and put in the cans the next morning. Of course, they will bring more than the ones picked three days before they get canned. He makes not only more per dozen cans, but gets more dozen cans per basket from the good old Maryland tomatoes, so why, in common fairness, he will not pay the good old Maryland farmer the same or a little more a ton I can't see. He could get nearly all he wants to pack right at his doors, if he wanted them bad enough, but right here in our community the canner would prefer to pay $8.60 a ton and over $2 more for transportation than pay neighboring farmers $10 to have them delivered to his place.

But somehow, in Maryland anyway, the farmer has a tough row to hoe. If he wants to retail the stuff he has worked so hard to "manufacture", the men who only buy it for a very low figure, much less than they could grow it for, demand that he pay a license, the same or more than they pay. And so it goes. Everybody jumps on the farmer; but if he should decide to quit farming, except for his own consumption, a good many "kickers" would turn "jumpers" too, and lots of folks would need new false teeth to masticate stones instead of bread.

The farmer is needed badly to reduce the cost of living, but, please, not at the expense of the farmerr While a tenant is growing wheat at a loss of $1 an acre as is done here in Kent, the city man is not getting any more bread for a nickel.

Why are the boys leaving the farm? Why, because they would rather deal in wheat after some one else has had the loss in growing it. They would rather make a big profit on cold-storage pears than a small one or none at all on fresh ones.

So give the farmer a chance and his boys and his neighbors' boys will stay at home and send all the tomatoes you want to can or eat right at your door."

A REAL TEMPERANCE FORCE

As a result of the investigation following the Corning wreck, the Lackawanna Railroad has issued a notice that none of its employees who have to do with the handling of trains may use intoxicating liquor either on or off duty. Hitherto it prohibited them drinking only when on duty, or from "excessive" drinking.

The quiet demonstration that it is the man who reports for duty, be it as bank teller or track-walker, with a clean head and steady nerve, who holds the job and gets promotion, is one of the greatest forces for temperauce at work.

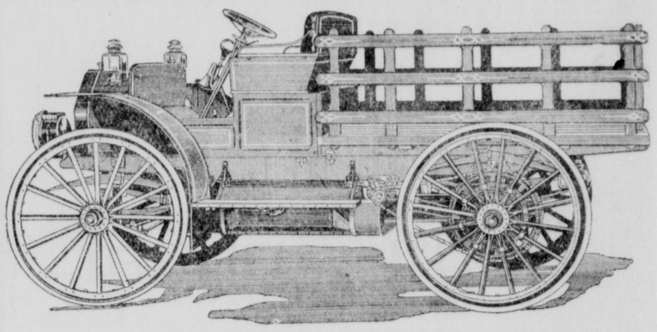
The International Auto Wagon

Or Commercial Car



In use throughout the United States by Farmers, Merchants, Millers, Contractors, Manufacturers, Liverymen and others.

A feature of the International Commercial Car that will appeal to a great many people is the fact that this car can be converted into a vehicle for carrying people. A rear seat and a double top can be added, making a very comfortable vehicle. The space behind the back of the front seat is sufficient so that two seats can be added, making a three-seated rig for liverymen who have traffic of this kind.

The International in the strictest sense of the word is a commercial car—one that can be used every day of the year, through snow and mud, cold weather and hot. The great success this car has attained in the past and the present is the greatest commendation of its usefulness.

The snow storm which tied up traffic in Chicago in February, 1911, did not interfere with the International Commercial Car service. This car was one of the few commercial cars in service in Chicago that was not delayed by the snow. The drivers were not afraid to turn out of street car tracks and into the side streets and places where the snow was deep, for fear they would stall. The car is as efficient in negotiating mud as it is in plowing through snow.

Capacity 1500 to 2000 pounds depending upon conditions of the haul. Speed 15 miles per hour. 20 H. P. Two-Cylinder Engine. Factory output 20 cars per day, which does not meet the present demand. Easily operated and as nearly fool-proof as possible. Solid tires—eliminating tire trouble.

This car will be driven throughout every part of Kent county and will stop at Still Pond, Kennedyville, Locust Grove, Galena, Georgetown, Massey, Millington, Crumpton, Chesterville, Chestertown, Rock Hall, Fairlee, Melitota, Worton, Lynch and Betterton, affording everybody an opportunity to see the car in operation.
