beloved son and brother, GEORGE WESLEY MOORE, who departed this life, one year ago, July 5, 1936.

In the graveyard safely sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave, Lies the one we loved so dearly, In his lonely silent grave.

He shall never be forgotten Never shall his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will always linger Around the grave where he is laid. Treasured thoughts of one so dear,

Often bring a silent tear;

Thoughts return of scenes long past Years will roll on, but memories 'n our hearts your memory lingers But we know its vain to weep;

Tears off Love can never wake you From your happy peaceful sleep. By His Loving Parents, MR. and MRS. G. W. MOORE.

In our hearts your memory lingers Tenderly, kind and true, There is not a day dear brother, That we do not think of you.

netes and bounds, courses and distances, In memory we shall always see The one we loved so dear; His vision grows so clear some times We feel he must be near. Often when the days are brightest

> For it brings back saddest memories Of the day God bid us part. And so when the mist clears away, And the dead in Christ shall rise Then we know his face we shall see,

When we gather with Christ in th Heaven now retains our treasure Earth the lonely casket keeps.
