KENNARD'S

FERTILIZERS FOR WHEAT & GRASS.

STAND AT THE HEAD.

Ten years ago we began the manufacture of Fertilizers in Kent county, and during that time we have always endeavored to produce a good, honest, reliable and well-made article. We state with pleasure that a majority of our early customers still deal with us, and although yearly requested by makers and agents of other fertilizers to use their brands, they still buy and use Kennard's, because it does for them what many do not—gives entire satisfaction—and they tell us that for price and results our goods cannot be surpassed by any on the market. Why is this, is what we have often been asked. The answer follows—We have always kept our various brands of Fertilizers up to a high standard. Have never used any adulterating material. We have been content with a very small living profit, have been willing and anxious to test our goods in competition with others, and as a consequence have slowly and surely established a growing trade. We are proud of it and very grateful. We therefore take this opportunity to publicly thank our kind patrons of the last ten years for their confidence and patronage, and we promise that our goods will still continue to give satisfaction. Remember that each brand is manufactured for a particular crop, and will do its work effectually. Our prices are as low as the same class of goods can be sold. We again offer the same old reliable brands, and trust that you will continue to use them, and by a kind word induce those who have never used them to do so this Fall.

MONARCH.

Special High Grade; well-known as an excellent crop producer. Has stood the test with the highest-priced Fertilizers upon the market with great success.

NEW ERA--HIGH GRADE FERTILIZER.

Not quite as high grade as the Monarch, but a very successful goods. Our sales have always been large of this brand. The price and results make it popular.

BONE AND POTASH.

A very excellent goods, and low-priced for the class of material we use in it. We respectfully request you to get our prices before purchasing.

DON'T LEAVE THE FARM.

Come, boys! Iv'e something to tell you—
Come nearer, I would whisper it low:—
You are thinking of leaving the homestead;
Don't be in a hurry to go;
The city has many attractions,
But think of the vices and sins;
When once in the vortex of fashion
How soon the course downward begins.

You talk of the mines of Australia,
They're wealthy in gold without doubt;
But, ah! there's gold on the farm, boys!
If you will only shovel it out.
The mercantile trade is a hazzard—
The goods are first high and then low;
Better risk the old farm awhile longer;
Don't be in a hurry to go!

The great brisky West has inducements
And so has the busiest mart;
But wealth is not made in a day, boys!
Don't be in a hurry to start.
The bankers and brokers are wealthy;
They take in their thousands or so;
Ah! think of the frauds and deceptions;
Don't be in a hurry to go.

The farm is the safest and surest.
The orchards are loaded to-day
You are free as the air of the mountains
And monarchs of all you survey.
Better stay on the farm awhile longer—
Though profits come in rather slow;
Remember you've nothing to risk, boys;
Don't be in a hurry to go.

—CLARENCE SHOCKLEY, in Snow Hill Messenger.

The Admission of Women.

"The admission of women to the General Conference as delegates makes them at once rulers," says the New York Christian Advocate, "for that is the supreme legislative and judicial power of the church It introduces them into the arena of debate, and compels them then and there to contend with men for the floor, and to dispute with them. To make her the official head of the church does the same.

"Those who desire the change know this; this is what they wish, and they deny that man is entitled in the family or the church to any such supremacy. There can be no misunderstanding here.

"But if anyone can show that the apostle was mistaken in saying (1) that 'the head of the women is the man'; (2), that 'the law commanded the woman to be in obedience, and that the Gospel continues the requirements'; and if anyone can make clear that he was in error in basing this upon the fact that Adam was first formed and then Eve—and in some way upon the fact that the woman was originally deceived by the tempter while Adam was induced to sin by love of Eve—these being great fundamental questions of revelation concerning both the original creation and the fall of man, and the relation of man and woman in the family and the church—he will demonstrate that St. Paul was not inspired upon fundamental questions. When he has done this, he will indeed have accomplished his purpose as to woman's place, but will leave both man and woman without the gospel of Christ.

"There is a perfect harmony between the position of woman in the family and in the church. If she is to be a legislator and an official head in the church, she cannot comply with the directions to wives in the New Testament with relation to their husbands. If one goes the other goes, and, logically, if one goes the other should go. But God has given different natures to the sexes. If women must struggle in the family with the man, rather than acting in the order of her nature as a helpmeet for him, the Christian family is gone. If she and her male abettors are to trample under their feet the plain statements of God's word, the Christian Church is gone."

"OUR ITALY" is the suggestive title of an article on southern California which Charles Dudley Warner will contribute to the November number of Harper's Magazine. "Italy," he says, "is the land of the imagination, but the sensation on first beholding it from the northern heights, aside from its association of romance and poetry, can be repeated in our own land by whoever will cross the burning desert of Colorado or the savage wastes of Mojave wilderness of stone and sage-brush, and come suddenly, as he must come by train, into the bloom of southern California." Mr. Warner's article, which is the first of a series of papers on this unique and delightful corner of our country, will be enriched with many illustrations from photographs and from drawings by distinguished artists.

"Why need it be?" we say, and sigh
When loving mothers fade and die,
And leave the little ones whose feet
They hope to guide, in pathways sweet.

It need not be in many cases. All about us women are dying daily whose lives might have been saved. It seems to be a wide-spread opinion that when a woman is slowly fading away with the diseases which grow out of female weaknesses and irregularities that there is no help for her. She is doomed to death. But this is not true. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is constantly restoring women afflicted with diseases of this class to health and happiness. It is the only medicine for their ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers of its giving satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it will be refunded.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, the original and only genuine Little Liver Pills; 25 cents a vial; one a dose.

WILLIAM ELLIOTT GRIFFIS will contribute to Harper's Young People for October 21st a biographical sketch of that popular writer of young people's books, Charles Carleton Coffin. The article will be accompanied by a portrait of Mr. Coffin.

THE great Dr. Boerhaave left three directions for preserving the health—keep the feet warm, the head cool, and the bowels open. Had he practised in our day, he might have added: and purify the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; for he certainly would consider it the best.

CAMPANINI, the famous tenor, has written a striking article on "How To Train The Voice" for The Ladies' Home Journal, and it will appear in the November number of that periodical.
