Improved Labor Saving Implements

and to these we invite your attention, either in person or by correspondence.

Every Implement Illustrated Below

Speaks Volumes for Itself and a Great Saving to the Farmers.

The IDEAL MILL will save its entire cost in a single winter. Crushes corn and cob, grinds corn for feed; besides you have a power for other purposes always on hand to cut fodder, saw wood, make cider, shell corn, &c.

This is the PULVERIZER and Clod-Crusher, doing away entirely with rolling. Guaranteed not to clog; leaves the land always loose; run it behind your plows and save all extra work. Thousands in use and all guaranteed.

All Steel, Light Corn Planters, with Check Rower Attachment. No more wood, all steel light draft, the handsomest and prettiest planter made. If you see it you will buy no other.

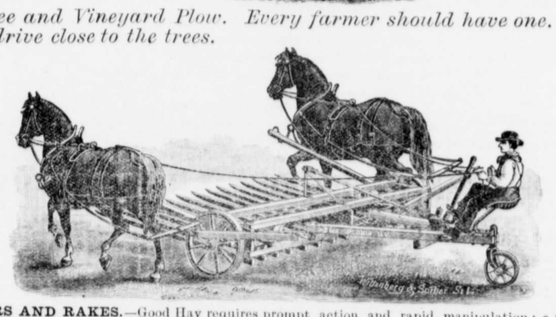
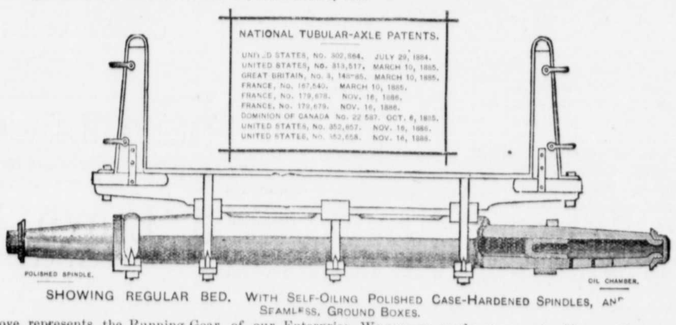
Peach Tree and Vineyard Plow. Every farmer should have one. Can move the handles and drive close to the trees.



HAY RICKERS AND RAKES.—Good Hay requires prompt action and rapid manipulation; a few hours' delay will ruin the crop. The "Acme Rickers" fill the bill. From 20 to 50 acres of hay can be saved in one day, put in ricks or loaded on wagons. Over 40,000 in use. We have sold them in nearly every county of the State. Success everywhere. With our Ricker Chains, hay can be cared for as well in the field as barn. Five horses and 6 men will handle 35 tons a day. Write for catalogue.

PICKET FENCING.—We are now manufacturing large quantities of Picket Fencing and can furnish it at any width, 1½, 2 or 3 inches as desired. It comes in rolls and can be taken down when desired; makes an excellent fence when woven close for poultry yards and gardens; also used for cemeteries, cross fences, etc.



SHOWING REGULAR BED. WITH SELF-OILING POLISHED CASE-HARDENED SPINDLES, AND SEAMLESS, GROUND BOXES.

The above represents the Running Gear of our Enterprise Wagons as made at present. Have sold over 600 of these wagons on the Eastern Shore, and are receiving orders every week. There is no better wagon made, and prices brings them within reach of all. Everything on wheels cheaper than any other house in the State. Extension Tops, Jump-Seats, Spindle Wagons (50 sold in 90 days), Daytons (6 sold last week), Dearborns, Express Wagons. Come and be convinced; our prices are lower than elsewhere. Get your quotations and we will beat them. We buy only in car lots, and we will retail at wholesale price. Now is your time; our house is stacked with carriages and wagons, and we must sell to make room for other spring goods.

PRATT'S FOOD.—The great horse remedy; everybody uses it, and everybody praises it. Remember, you run no risk, every bag guaranteed to do your horse good.

LITERARY NOTES.

Scribner's Magazine for March contains many noteworty contributions. The opening pages have the widely announced last poem written by the late James Russell Lowell, entitled "On a Bust of General Grant," which is in the vein of Mr. Lowell's highest patriotism, ranking with the famous "Commemoration Ode." It includes a facsimile of one of the stanzas, showing the author's interlineations. Those interested in artistic subjects will find two articles appealing particularly to their tastes—the third and concluding paper by W. A. Coffin on "American illustration of To-day," with examples of the works works of Abbey, Reinhart, Smedley, Frost, Pennell, Bacher, Thulstrup, Pyle, Gibson, Loomis, Sterner and Van Schaick; and Mr. Apthorp's second article on "Paris Theatres and Concerts"—this one having particular application to the Opera, the Opera-Comique, and the Conservatorie. There are portraits of Lassalle, Miss Eames (Mrs. Julian Story), Mme Rose Caron, and Mlle Horwitz, with illustrations of the staircase at the Opera, the stage between the acts, etc., by the French artists Sinibaldi and Morand. Scribner also has numerous other delightfully written articles.

Among the extended array of fascinatingly written articles in the March number of Harper's Magazine, is the conclusion of Walter Besant's very popular series of articles on London. He says: "We have seen London from age to age. It has changed indeed. Yet in one thing it has shown no change. London has always been a city looking forwards, pressing forwards, fighting for the future, using up the present ruthlessly for the sake of the future, trampling on the past. As it has been, so it is. The city may have reached its highest point; it may be about to decline; as yet it shows no sign; it has sounded no note of decay or of deline or of growing age. The city which began with the East Saxon settlement among the forsaken streets thirteen hundred years ago is in the full strength and lustihood of manhood—perhaps as yet only early manhood. For which, as in private duty bound, let us praise and magnify the providence which has so guided the steps of the citizens, and so filled their hearts with the spirit of self-reliance, hope and courage."

The March number of The Ladies' Home Journal preserves most admirably the excellence which this popular magazine has accustomed it 700,000 readers to expect; the place of honor is given to the interesting and beautifully illustrated article by Ada Chester Bond entitled "A Royal Recluse," which deals with the life of seclusion led by the Ex-Empress Eugenie, at Farnborough, England. Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher continues her interesting reminiscences of her famous husband, and Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of Jefferson Davis, contributes her concluding paper on "The American Girl Who Studies Abroad." Miss Davis writes entertainingly on a subject of which she has had practical and personal knowledge, and makes a strong plea for American training for American girls. Mrs. Frank Leslie and Henri Junius Browne answer with decided negatives the questioned accusations "Are Our Girls Too Independent?" and "Are Women Inconstant?"

BITS OF FUN.

Laugh While Ye May, We're Olding Fast enough.

A New York woman named Lily has eloped with her husband's body-servant. She is now a lily of the valet, so to speak. —Peck's Sun.

Never laugh at a man with a pug nose. You don't know what may turn up.

In what case is it absolutely impossible to be slow and sure? In the case of a watch.

Why is a sheriff in danger of becoming corrupted? Because, my dear Boswell, he keeps bad company.

When is a house like a bird? When it has wings. This happy thought leads us to imagine how many wings it takes to make a house fly.

A young man, crossed in love, walked out to the brink of Niagara Falls, discarded his coat, took one long, lingering look at the abyss—and went home.

Not an epicure.—Miss Faneuil Hall: "Do you like 'Crabbe's Tales,' Miss Auditorium?"

Miss Auditorium: "I never ate any, I think."

They didn't chatter.—Doctor: "Did you have a heavy chill?"
Fair patient: "It seemed so,"
Doctor: "Did your teeth chatter?"
Fair patient: "No; they were in my dressing-case.,,—New York Weekly.

Private Executions.—Great Editor: "Send a man to that execution to-morrow, an tell him to keep it down to two columns."

Servant: "No, sir; he is out."
Collector: "When will he be in?"
Servant (artlessly): ', As soon as you go away."—Yankee Blade.

Old Nursery Favorites

There was Tom, the Son of the Piper,
Jack Sprat, and merry King Cole,
And the Three Wise Men of Gotham,
Who went to sea in a bowl;
The woman who rode on a broomstick,
And swept the cobwebbed sky,
And the boy who sat in the corner,
Eating his Christmas pie.

These were some of the old favorites, but they have been supplanted by the "Pansy" and "Chatterbox" stories, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and "Five Little Peppers." The old-fashioned pills and physics have been superseded, and wisely, too, by Pierce's Pellets, a mild, harmless and effective cathartic. They are pleasant to take—so gentle in their action that the most delicate child can take them, yet so effective that they will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They should be in every nursery. As a gentle laxative, only one for a dose.

THERE are about 1,100 men employed in the Bank of England and their united salaries, including pensions, amount to about $1,500,000 per annum.

Does Protection Protect?

Certainly, in one instance, it does. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great protection against the dangers of impure blood, and it will cure or prevent all diseases of this class. It has well won its name of the best blood purifier by its many remarkable cures.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Sleeplessness Cured. IV

ST. SEVERIN, Keyleston P. O., Pa.

I am glad to testify that I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with the best success for sleeplessness, and believe that it is really a great relief for suffering humanity.

E. FRANK, Pastor.

OLDTOWN, Md., September, 1890.

One of the parties to whom I sold some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic was telling me today that he had suffered from great dizziness and pain through his whole body. After using one bottle he was entirely cured.

My wife suffered for a number of years from violent nervousness and spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine, but all to no avail. After taking only two bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic her trouble has subsided.
