Queen Annes Record-Observer

VOLUME 1—NO. 46

The Centreville Ob. Queen Anne's Record

CENTREVILLE, MARYLAND, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1937

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Postoffice, Centreville, Md.

5 CENTS

Wye Hall With All ex-service men and their families Wedding Friday as well as members of the Jeff Davis

Duke's Spokesman Cited. Doubts Seen Here

by announcement of the projected visit gion officers and their wives are expect- county and Southern Maryland was that ocratic nomination for governor was of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor ed to be present. The Women's Aux- of Miss Elizabeth Talbott Chaney, presaged this week when Attorney to America Queen Anne's county was iliary of Jeff Davis Post will serve the daughter of Mrs. Irving Chaney and General Herbert R. O'Conor formally thrust into the spotlight as one of the seafood and fixings. possible residences of the ex-monarch when reports from New York and else- C' where mentioned Wye Hall, now being 5 e c rebuilt on Wye Island, as likely to be placed at the disposal of the famous Found Similar reports have appeared in the city and county press for some weeks Poor In County Chaney. without either being authenticated or denied. At that time the best informthe statements groundless. That was Farmers Testing It For Gerbefore the announcement of the projected visit but no information to the contrary has been received since.

Color is led to the recent stories by linking the name of W. H. Stillwell, Wheat for seed purposes is mighty carried a muff of the same material deowner of Wye Hall, with that of Her- scarce in Queen Anne's county ac- corated with talisman roses. A chiffon for governor. Where Mayor Howard A. man H. Rogers who served as spokes- cording to all reports and a consider- velvet turban with short tulle veil of Jackson had been galloping along alone man for the Duke about the time of his able quantity of bad seed may be sowed. same color completed her costume. The for months seeking to build up an un-

Wye Hall Farms, site of historic Wye servers. Hall, was purchased by Mr. Stillwell in The wet weather of July which inter- Mrs. Marshall McDormett, of Easton, ate, and then the Attorney General got planks. These included: February, 1936, at which time an- vened between cutting and threshing and Miss Margaret Tillard Merrick, of off on the stern chase to overhaul the nouncement of the reconstruction of the wheat left the grain tough and pinched. Ingleside, sister of the groom wore Mayor. And there is still a year to go, Roads Commission, better roads and also attend some of the sessions. building was announced. Wye Hall had Very little Number 2 wheat was thresh- gowns of aquamarine moire with hats with relatively few counties definitely expenditure of all gasoline tax funds. Announcement was made that the around and let it go into a tailspin been erected in 1793 by William Paca, ed and the bulk of the county crop was of corresponding shade. They carried climbing aboard bandwagons. Signer of the Declaration of Inde-said to be below Number 3. And the aquamarine moire muffs decorated with pendence and Governor of Maryland, as problem of getting seed wheat from talisman roses. a home for his son, John Paca. It was this crop was as tough as the wheat. designed by John Hoban who also de- Farmers looking over the wheat saved was his cousin's best man. The groom's political factions and the State Cenrazed by fire in 1879.

The new structure is being erected on ing. the site of the old with parts of the A marked increase in purchase of formal afternoon attire with boutoriginal foundation encrusted in the timothy seed has been noted in recent toniers of white gardenias. new walls. Reconstruction of Wye Hall weeks, partly induced by the comparais expected to match the original lines tively low price, half that of 1936. closely as considerable research was In spite of the large crop of clover napolis, Miss Betty Warfield, of Balti- burst of interest to take its course. done among old records and pictures seed produced in Queen Anne's this more, Master Albert Wilson and George In his announcement Mr. O'Conor insane and tubercular. and interviews with people who knew year little of it is said to have remained Hardesty of Southern Maryland. | stated a definite platform of eleven Wye Hall before the fire.

Car Scheduled below $15 earlier has stiffened at that corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Merrick surprising uses of soybean products and to sixty cents and upwards last year. drainage engineer on the CCC Project ward as duck hunting seasons open in Maryland announced this week by the number desired. It eliminates the opwhich has created considerable inter- Old corn held over is bringing a rather at Goldsboro. Upon their return, Mr. northern states on October 9, according president, H. C. Byrd, indicate a split erator and half the amount of ringing First Five In Neck And est at all stop-overs on its tour of the fancy price. East and Mid-West, will roll into Cen- Bumper hay crops have filled lofts in Greensboro. treville on Monday, October 18, for a and give a more cheerful outlook for from the Eastern Shore were: Mr. and the substant of the webfoot increase, however, will be nothing for duck hunters to become from the Eastern Shore were: Mr. and the substant of four-hour period of inspection by the the winter feedings. general public. The car will arrive at 10:30 a. m. and will leave with the afternoon train at 2:50 p. m.

4-Hour Stop At Centreville, Oct. 18

Farmers and high school pupils, especially those of the vocational and invited to view the exhibit which acportant. In the present year Queen Anne's county has entered the field of oil soybean growing and a fairly large here were completed by Mr. Baker and F. W. Oldenburg of the Extension Ser-bean products from roof to rails. Oil Monday from 10:30 a. m. untli 3 p. m. town. was used in the core sand where wheels were cast in the foundry, soybean paint was used on top, sides and trucks at 2 o'clock and be open to the public. Return On City Of Norfolk of over 70,000,000 acres of wild duck ties from their association with the held. while the door knob and other parts are Orient showing primitive methods for the community Hall at noon and returned last Friday from a two months now have been driven into Canada to and get greater use of man power. Orient showing primitive methods for the speaking portion in the afternoon. Stay in Europe and are now at their breed—principally in limited sections of That other changes will be opened be a compared Street. They be compared the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened be a compared to the course of Indifference will be opened by the course of Indifferen Uses of the beans for meal, oil, feeds exhibit from the United States Depart- Sapp of Georgetown, Del., president of Mrs. Albert W. Bryan, in Paris.

will draw a considerable throng of the Ladies' Aid of the Ruthsburg personages returning from vacations proximately the same duck crops, while ture and who are considered as experts are neither cold nor hot; I would thou E. Gardner, Louis E. Jones, S. McGinvisitors on its Centreville stop. Some and when it was believed that it would District Quarterly conference of the ship at Norfolk. John Milton Killetts, again took toll of waterfowl in southern leaders. not be sent on any branch lines a number of Queen Anne's countians traveled to Seaford and other places to view it.

evening dances will be held at the ference was the Rev. J. E. Cummings, Miss Marie Storey, daughter of Mr. Centreville Armory Saturday under the pastor of the Peninsula M. P. Church at and Mrs. Tilden E. Storey, of near Chesdirection of Charles E. Anthony and the Wilmington. sponsorship of Company K-men. Lew Startt's orchestra will play and a cash door prize will be awarded.

A crowd well above the two-hnndred ed the unused ticket office on the old High School, class of 1936, where she mark attended the opening dance of Queenstown wharf about 1:45 o'clock won both academic and activity awards. the fall season last Saturday, the guests Thursday night. The flames spread to Upon her graduation from the Univercoming from Kent, Queen Anne's, Carthe wharf itself but were extinguished sity she is planning a course of specialiscene of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which sity she is planning a course of a dance tomorrow, Friday eveland, Walter Turner, Helen Coleman, throughout the neighborhood in which she held in the neigh oline and Dorchester counties. Edward there by the Queenstown Fire Com- zation. She is a sister of Miss Anna-Davis from Kent county took away the pany. The ticket office, valued at $25 belle Storey, a member of the faculty school age or older will be admitted. Re- Graham, John T. Bruehl, Charles Andy." Despite his four score years he ladies of the Parish. door prize.

Visit Of Duke Post of the American Legion are invited to be guests of Commander Earle E. InAnneArundle Coursey of Jeff Davis Post at a crab feast and oyster roast to be held in the tomorrow, Friday evening at 7:30. The meeting is designed as a get-together of ex-service men whether in or out of the

No set program has been announced

mination. Outsiders Buy Clover Seed

signed the White House, and students for seed are frequently finding that it men were Mr. Charles H. R. Merrick tral Committee recently endorsed professed to see certain similarities in has heated and become weevily. Some and Mr. Harry N. Wilson, of Ingleside, Mayor Jackson. A few others guardthe two structures. The building was of them are testing the seed for ger- cousins of the groom; Mr. Robert Welch mination rather than risk a poor plant- of Fort Pierce, Fla.; and Mr. Roome in the county. Much of it has been The bride's mother wore a blue lace -310 W taking big crops right from the thresh- er wore a dinner dress of black velvet prices for milk and livestock were with persian lamb, a small black hat credited with keeping the farm bal- and white acessories. Interesting Exhibit To Make ance on the right side. Good sugar corn The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's crops in the sixth district and along Seminary and has been employed by the lower rim of the county also played the government in Baltimore since her Corn prices have slumped off from of Sudlersville High School and holds the 1936 figures, starting from forty a B. S. degree in engineering frm Uni-

vene There Monday

Dr. Howell will speak at the afternoon session in the church which will begin Mrs. Harper And Daughter past three years. The meeting will be divided into Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline and Northern District of Ohio; Dr. Samuel Despite the small increase this year, County Council Plans the waterfowl situation is still precari-M. P. Church at Chestertown Tuesday Professor Gerhard H. Dieke, of Johns ous, the Foundation believes. "Not unevening. The group included the Rev. Hopkins University, and Mr. Charles til ruined portions of the Canadian L. Colvin Randall, Mrs. Bessie Kinna- Ubel, retired captain of the United 'duck factory' are restored can v To Be Held Saturday mon, Mrs. Ludlow Gafford, Miss Irene States Marine Corps. Straughn, Miss Ruth Rittenhouse and The second in the series of Saturday Roy H. Blunt. The speaker at the con-

TICKET OFFICE BURNED Fire of undetermined origin destroy- Storey is a graduate of Church Hill by an automobile and killed Sunday. was not insured.

Friendship Of Owner And Knights of Pythias hall at Grasonville Bridegroom is Son Of Mr. And Mrs. C. P. Merrick Of Ingleside

In the wake of the excitement caused for the affair. A number of state Le- A wedding of interest to Queen Anne A battle to the finish for the Demthe late Dr. Chaney, of Dunkirk, and announced his candidacy for the post Mr. Charles Percival Merrick, Jr., of to become the third candidate entering Ingleside. The ceremony took place at and the primaries nearly a year away. Wheat st. James Episcopal Church, Tracy's Mr. O'Conor's plunge into the gubp. m. on Friday, Oct. 1st, Rev. David ernatorial scrap has generally been at-Scarce, p. m. on Friday, Oct. 1st, Rev. David tributed to a series of conferences by Watson officiating. The bride was given components of the Ritchie organization in marriage by her brother Mr. Irving components of the Ritchie organization of lilies of the valley.

Miss Anne Reeder, of Baltimore, the ination. maid of honor, wore peach moire and Developments of the past few weeks Such at least is the view of most ob- bridesmaids, Miss Araminta Stubbs, beatable lead, first the Hon. Lansdale Mrs. Timothy Hooper, of Baltimore, G. Sasscer, president of the State Sen-

Gibson, of Washington, D. C. They wore prospect of a race and let it go at that.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kitchin of An- Senate President waited for the first sation coverage.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrick will spend their graduation. The groom is a graduate

Mrs. C. P. Merrick, their house guest excited about, the Foundation warns. Miss Margaret Downs, of New York, Mr. America's wild ducks hit the bottom 1 0 and Mrs. W. R. Merrick, Miss Leila of the worst wildfowl depression in his-Dudley, Mrs. W. R. Wilson, Mr. and tory in 1934 and almost any turn for T. B. Symons will continue to direct Mrs. W. R. Wilson, Jr, Miss Anne Cle-the better can now be recorded as an especially those of the vocational and Hear Dr. Howell Mrs. W. R. Wilson, Jr. Miss Anne Cle-home economic classes, are particularly Heavi principal address at the conference of Georgetown, Mrs. Edward Barton and Dakota 5 per cent.

TO STUDY NURSING tertown, left last week for Baltimore, of Centreville High School.

Reports Link Ex-Service Men Get Bid To Crab, Oyster Feast Merrick-Chaney Herbert R. O'Conor Files

Battle To Finish Presaged As Three Candidates Step Out Mrs. For Long Race. Attorney General Supports Candidacy With Eleven Point Platform

bearer after sifting out all potential The bride wore ivory chiffon velvet timber. The choice of the group was made on princess lines, with tulle veil announced while the Attorney General caught into a cornet of orange blossoms. was in Kansas City and on Monday, a She carried a prayer book from which few days after his return, he issued hung ribbons intertwined with sprays a statement to the county and city press declaring that he would seek the nom-

Interest of Queen Anne's county i

Mr. William Roe Kahl, of New York, determine. Leaders of both county edly expressed some approval of the Elsewhere in the state the candidacy law by constitutional amendment. of the Attorney General was given free for highway purposes; return of county lunch room would open on October through failure to appoint an engineer roads to county supervision.

State's magistrate system.

A shore erosion program.

purchased by outside interests, one firm dinner dress with blue velvet hat and buying 10,000 pounds, and several others corsage of orchids. The groom's mother. The thresher price which fluctuated with large velvet hat to match and a Best In Years, In Extension Visit Here observers generally say that Queen honeymoon on a cruise to Nassau and Havana. For her going away gown, the bride wore a black ensemble trimmed bride wore a black ensemble trimmed

Report Gains Ranging Up To 50 Percent

Foundation.

Downes, Miss Hortense Downes, Mrs. Heavier rainfall in north central William Clendaniel, of Ingleside. Mrs. states which reflooded drought-stricken Dr. Harold S. Cotterman is switched Bakre is both interesting and imMinisterial Body To Con- J. B. T. Merrick, of Church Hill, Mrs. sections of the great mid-continental from the college of education to the executive secretary of the Maryland is taking the lead, while Mrs. Louis E. Spencer Merrick, of Crumpton, Mrs. "duck factory" brought larger duck agriculture college where he will be as- Children's Aid Society, will discuss the Jones, of Chester, who last week held Dudley G. Roe, Mrs. John Stokes, Mrs. crops during the summer breeding sea- sistant dean as well as professor of work of the organization at an open first place is running a close second. Austin Roberts, Mr. William Roberts, son. Minnesota records a 50 per cent. agricultural education. Dr. William R. Howell, registrar of Miss Emily Straughn, of Sudlersville. Increase, mainly of teal; Nebraska and J. E. Metzger head of the agronomy chapter to be held in the Courthouse Miss Elizabeth Nickerson, of Barclay, North Dekote 25 per cent. rangements for sending the Exhibit Car Washington College, will deliver the Captain and Mrs. John Welch, of Dekote 5 per cent., and South division and acting director of the ex-

$1,248,851 of "Duck Stamp" fees used state home demonstration agent. for waterfowl refuge establishment the areas have relegated the United States Extension Service in the past. The A section of the car is devoted to the early history of the soybean in the early history of the soybean in the line in the Community Hell at noon and

It is expected that the Exhibit Car P. churches. Dinner is to be served by which brought back many important more ducks than last year, 22 had apart animal husbandry, poultry or horticulary animal husbandry animal hus hurch.

Six representatives from Grace Six representatives fro Church at Centreville attended the District Quarterly conference of the Methodist Protestant churches of Kent, Methodist Protestant Churches Church > again have really good duck shooting in ing in the office of the County Agent the United States," the Foundation de-

PET DOG KILLED Nellie, the pet dog owned by William where she entered the University of Wolcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maryland School of Nursing. Miss R. Wolcott, of Wye Mills, was struck

> DANCE AT ST. PAUL'S freshments are to be served.

Summer Breeding Stations Four Divisions Created. Laymen To Compose bandry, horticulture and poultry. Dr. as Hillsboro. the Extension Service as he has for Miss Kirwan To Address twenty years but will also take on additional duties at the college.

Advisory Council

perimental station. Ingram Oswald, Betty Earle, president of the county Although the five leading contestants principal address at the conference of the principal address at the conference of the Peninsula Ministerial Association of Miss Pauline Chambers, of Centreville, hard hit duck producing coation have

The 4-H County Council held a meet-Monday night, to discuss plans for their Chance and Kenneth W. Baker.

PTA Holds First Lack Of Road For Governorship Race Meeting Of Fall Engineer Nips Friday Night County Projects

New President In Charge

Teachers Association held their first State Roads Commission in failing to meeting of the fall in the auditorium appoint a county road engineer for of the school last Friday night with Queen Anne's to succeed Walter A. Mrs. Vachel A. Downes, newly elected Blackwell, Jr., resigned, was voiced by president in the chair.

line of the program for the year which ing that failure to name a head for acwill center around the topic, "Successful tivities in Queen Anne's is taking the Family Living." Each month will be steam out of the work here at the best devoted to the development of some season to put roads in shape for the phase of the topic and a special speak- winter. er will be invited for the monthy meet- Mr. Blackwell resigned on September

Other reports included the announce- word of his impending departure the ment that Mrs. J. Hall Barton member- Commissioners requested that a sucship chairman, with her committees, cessor be appointed. Since then the have been enlisting members for the Commissioners have been offered a part coming year, and that Mrs. Jewell Fes- time supervision of the roads from an myer, chairman of the Welfare com- adjoining county which will not meet mittee would begin the checkup of un- the county needs and which it is said dernourished children. This work has is contrary to the practice, if not the been so successfully conducted that the law, that each county should have a district office of the WPA has requested road engineer. monthly reports.

zation will attend the Maryland Con- Commissioners on the intelligent and gress of Parent-Teachers held in Salis- progressive auxiliary county program Abolition of politics from the State bury in November. Other members will which has been developed in Queen 4th, under the supervision of Mrs. to take care of the supervision or the Elimination of politics from the Harry H. Boyles, newly appointed man-equipment. Since September 1 a clerk ager, and that beginning on October in the county road office has been head A remodeling of the State's tax 18th, free lunches will be served to the of the county force as much as any one undernourished.

"well-considered" conservation trip to the National Congress of the scraping equipment authorized and ord-Parent-Teachers held last May in Rich- ered for months has never arrived so Efforts to tighten the State's budget mond, which was presented by Mrs. that the county now has but a single

John Palmer Smith. Following a discussion of the Bazaar | Coming in the early fall the lack of a Extension of unemployment compen- which will be held on October 29th at road engineer has hit hard just when Centreville Armory, and the awarding the county had a big program all set A broad State policy for care of the of the plant for the class with the to prepare the roads for the approachlargest parent attendance, which was ing winter. The county had purchased won by Miss Jewell's room, the meeting gravel beds, a gasoline shovel and adjourned. The next meeting will be trucks to amplify the road force made held November 5th.

Hillsboro Exchange To Have Dial System

Setup dial system will be installed at the Roads Commission to take action. Hillsboro exchange, which also serves the town of Queen Anne, according to an announcement by C. E. Wooden, manager at Hillsboro for the Ches-

The equipment will be similar to that The largest migration of wild ducks Dratsic reorganization of the agri- other exchanges on the Shore. With The Soybean Exhibit car filled with cents a bushel for cob corn as compared versity of Maryland. At present he is in three years will be heading southand Mrs. Merick will make their home to a survey by the More Game Birds up of the Extension Service which has heard on rural lines since a subscriber hitherto functioned from a single office. will hear the rings for only half the have been grouped into four practically The town of Queen Anne will be inseparate units, agronomy, anmial hus- cluded in the base area at the same rate Aid Society Meeting week.

Miss Katherine Kirwan, of Baltimore, Miss Helen M. Tatman, of Church Hill meeting of the Queen Anne's county Mrs. Wedge Jones, of Dominion is third;

the Peninsula Ministerial Association of the Protestant Church which Mrs. Mailley Davis, of Odessa, Del.; Mr. hard hit duck producing section have director of the Extension Service, as the contest began, the race is a neck director of the Extension Service, as The car itself is said to feature soy—will be held at Ruthsburg M. P. Church and Mrs. Walter Morris, of Chester—been $21,769,337 of federal funds and does Miss Venia M. Kellar, present plain the aims of the society and all and neck affair, and there is very slight will be held at Ruthsburg M. P. Church and Mrs. Walter Morris, of Chester—been $21,769,337 of federal funds and does Miss Venia M. Kellar, present plain the aims of the society and all and neck affair, and there is very slight those interested in Children's Aid are difference in the standing. invited to attend. Previous to Miss The contest is still open, and any All of these leaders are well known Kirwan's address the regular monthly correspondent who has not already Drought and agricultural reclamation in Queen Anne's as in other rural coun- session of the county chapter will be entered is urged to get in the race. Five

The morning session will be opened home on Commerce Street. They Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta." handling of the Extension Service was the theme of the Rev. L. Colvin Randall Edgar Walls, Mrs. Thomas Jefferson, with devotions led by the Rev. R. W. were guests for some time of Mr. and In Manitoba, according to a survey by forecast by the announcement that adat the worship services to be held Sun- David Appleby, Mrs. Grace M. Rambo, the Manitoba Fish and Game Associa- visory councils will be formed for the day in Grace Church at 11 a. m.; Hay- Louis Crouch, William Colter, John exhibit from the United States Department of Agriculture's regional laborament of Agriculture's regional laboraRuthsburg, Hayden and Wye Neck M.

Ruthsburg, Hayden and Wye Neck M.

Ruth will dwell on "Words Fitly Spoken" > in pictures of silver." CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY of Miss Ruby Kirk, Home Demonstra- a duck dinner. It was also the oc- be conducted by the Rev. Walter C. tion Agent; Linwood Everett and Helen casion of the birthday of his grand- Eastburn at St. Luke's Church, Church Coleman was appointed to take charge daughter, Mrs. Morris Skinner, of Hill on Sunday morning, October 17. of the plans and program for the event. Ruthsburg. The guests were Mr. But- The service will start promptly at 11 Those who attended were: Samuel ler's daughter, Mrs. Lillian Bowen and o'clock. The Rev. Walden Pell, 2d, McGinnis, Linwood Everett, Sidney Mc- friend, of Chestertown, and Mr. and Headmaster of St. Andrew's School at Ginnis, Hodge Coleman, Jr., Edith Mrs. Morris Skinner and son, of Ruths- Middletown, Del., will be the special Chance, Thomas Rhodes, Billy McFar- burg. Mr. Butler is familiarly known speaker for the occasion. ning at 8 o'clock. Only those of high Betty Coleman, Ruby Kirk, Ralph he has lived for many years, as "Uncle luncheon will be held in the Parish is still hale and hearty.

Vachel A. Downes State Body Offers Part-Time Supervision; Full-Time Man Desired

Centreville Grammar School Parent- Criticism of the dilatory tactics of the the County Commissioners at their ses-Mrs. John Palmer Smith gave an out- sion Tuesday, the Commissioners hold-

1 to engage in private industry. At first

On several occasions the State Roads Two delegates from the local organi- Commission has complimented the Anne's. Now it is said they have turned

A "breathing spell" for the taxpayer. A special feature was a report of the A complaint was also voiced that scraping unit available. available by the state. Road work is going on but it is said that equipment is not being handled as well as it had been under supervision. control of the roads the county of-Within the next few a new automatic ficials can only wait upon the State

apeake and Potomac Telephone Com-pany. Takes The Lead

Neck Race In Subscription Contest

week-by-week in the Queen Anne's Record-Observer subscription contest which is now entering upon its fourth

This week, the third of the contest, have changed places each week since fine cash prizes are being offered. They are, 1st, $35; 2nd, $25; 3d, $15; 4th, $10;

Franklin Walls, Arthur Coppage, John

Annual Banquet with the text from Proverbs, 25:11, "A St. Luke's To Honor word fitly spoken is like apples of gold St. Luke's To Honor Its 2009th Anniversary

The celebration of the 204th anniver-Mr. Andrew Butler, of Price, observed sary of the founding of St. Luke's Parish annual banquet. A comittee composed his eightieth birthday last Sunday with will be observed with a special service to