CHESTERTOWN, - MARYLAND

My dear niece Dorothy:

Don't be discouraged about your work. Monday washing, for instance, which you say is such hard work. You have been doing it the old-fashioned, hard-rubbing way, you foolish girl. In the future use Fels-Naptha Soap, and it will be more like play than work. Your week will be started right and everything will go well. Affectionately,

ANTY DRUDGE.

Fels-Naptha Soap has made wash day as pleasant as any other day, because Fels-Naptha has made washing easy.

More than a million women are washing clothes with Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water, without boiling or hard rubbing. Fels-Naptha whitens floors, brightens paints, removes grease spots and stains in carpets, rugs and upholstery.

Be sure to follow directions on the Fels-Naptha Red and Green Wrapper.

THE LOVE OF THE RED, RED ROSE.

By Minnie E. Hicks.

The sun and the wind loved a red, red rose
That grew by a garden wall;
And the red rose blushed at the sun's caress,
And bowed to the wind's soft call.

But she smiled alike on sun and wind;
A gay coquette was she;
And her heart slept on, till it woke one day
At the hum of a velvet bee.

Then little she cared for the sun's warm touch,
Or heeded the wind's faint sigh;
She thought of naught but the velvet bee,
Smiled only when he was nigh.

Ah, handsome and brave was he to see;
And ardent the vows he made,
As he nestled close to her golden heart,
'Neath her crimson petals shade.

But, alas, for the treacherous velvet bee!
And, alas, for the red, red rose!
She waited long; but he came not back
Though the bright day neared its close.

The great sun saw, and veiled his face;
And none heard the night-wind's moan
Save the lonely stem, by the garden wall,
Where the rose had lately grown.

WEDDING BELLS

Phillips—Melvin.

Miss Minnie Belle Dale Melvin, of Baltimore, daughter of Mrs. Belle Walton Melvin and the late Dr. A. D. Melvin, was married to John Biggs Phillips of Wilmington, Del., at the Hotel Jermyn, in Scranton, Pa., by Rev. Dr. G. W. Anderson. The bride was given away by her brother, J. W. D. Melvin, of New York. Mrs. Phillips went to Scranton with her mother Friday from Baltimore. Some time ago Saturday was set for the wedding, and when it was found Mr. Phillips was compelled to be in Scranton it was decided to have the ceremony performed there, rather than change the date. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will live at 1105 West street, Wilmington, Del.

Clark—Adams

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Eleanor W., oldest daughter of Mr. Robert W. Adams, to Mr. Joseph S. Clark, of Still Pond, Kent county. They were married Monday, April 21st, at the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. Milton L. Tull, at Annapolis, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George S. Bell, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, of that city. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the wedding was extremely quiet. Mr. and Mrs. Clark returned to Princess Anne the latter part of last week and will make their home with the bride's father for the present.

BASE HITS

The Washington College Second Team defeated Centerville High School at Chestertown last Saturday by 6 to 5. The game was very interesting but not without errors.

The Chestertown Stars defeated the Nationals by score of 8 to 7. The batteries for the Stars were Perry and Jester and for the Nationals were W. Davis and Zay Davis.

The Chestertown High School defeated Millington High School by score of 19 to 12.

The Clerks defeated the Chestertown High School by score of 9 to 7.

With Billy Morrisette pitching air-tight balls and the Josephites running wild on bases, Mount St. Joseph's had an easy time with Washington College at Irvington winning, 19 to 2.

Pearson essayed to do the receiving for the visitors and the Mount St. Joseph's boys pilfered a total of 28 bases. One of the features of the game was a tripple steal negotiated. With Bowen winding up and a clean steal signal on, all the runners started, Wamsley making a pretty fall away slide at the plate.

Morrisette had an easy time in the box. The Josephites jumped on Biddle in the first inning. Cahill opened with a single and stole second. Poe shot one to left, scoring Cahill. McBride strolled up leisurely and also singled. Boyle cracked another. Captain Wamsley drove a long home rvn to center that cleared the paths. The drive virtually decided the game.

Biddle was driven to cover in the seventh. Under a shower of hits he hurried to center and Bowen came in to do duty. He was wild and the whole team had batted up before one man retired.

Washington scored one in the seventh and another in the eighth.

Every man on the Irvington team changed positions in the ninth. Catcher Mcbride went in the box and caused the next three batters to pop weak fi es.

VOTES FOR WOMEN

and the

Negro Problem

The United States census of 1910 found the white population of Maryland, 1,062,645 and the negro population 232,249.

The total registered vote in Maryland in 1912 was 291,878.

Of these, 243,693 were cast by white men and 48,185 by colored men.

Woman's suffrage would not change the proportion of votes cast.

Men of Maryland, the white women of this state are today the political equals of colored women and the political subordinates of colored men

Are you willing to admit that you would rather keep white women in political subordination to colored men than enfranchise colored women?

Remember, the Independent Voters of Maryland have defeated three amendments which sought to disfranchise colored men because their grandfathers were slaves.

"A Perfect Woman Nobly Planned To Warn, to Comfort and Command"

Nature never intended woman to be delicate, ailing, or a sufferer from "nerves." Women in middle age complain of "hot flashes." Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanhood, and from motherhood to middle life, with backache, or headache, dizziness, faintness, or bearing-down sensations. For a permanent relief from these distressing symptoms nothing is so good as

as a soothing and strengthening nervine—allays and subdues nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, and other distressing symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the feminine organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere and for over 40 years as the standard remedy for the diseases of women. Your dealer in medicines sells it in liquid or tablet form; or you can send 50 one-cent stamps for a trial box of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription tablets.
