PARCEL POST CHANGES

Plans for the extension, improvement and reduction in rates of the parcel post were announced Saturday by Postmaster-General Burleson.

The changes, which are to become effective on August 15, include an increase from 11 pounds to 20 pounds in the maximum weight of parcels, a material reduction in the postage rates in the first and second zones and the abandonment of the parcel post map as a means of computing rates and the substitution for it of a rate chart individualized to every postoffice in the United States.

While for the present the maximum weight limit of 20 pounds and the reduction in rates will apply only to the first and second zones from any given postoffice—a distance of about 150 miles—the changes directed today constitute the first long step towards universal extension of the system and a general reduction in the rates of postage on parcel matter.

"It is my expectation and belief," said Postmaster General Burleson, "that eventually—and it may be 15 or 20 years—the postal service will handle practically all of the small package transportation business in the United States. The maximum weight limit extended now from 11 to 20 pounds I expect to see increased to 100 pounds, and experience may demonstrate the practicability of handling the parcel business at even lower rates than we now propose.

Rates are reduced from 6 cents the first pound and 4 cents for each subsequent pound to 5 cents the first pound and 1 cent for each subsequent pound up to 20 pounds.

For 24 cents a 20 pound parcel can be shipped to all points in Maryland and Delaware, to all Eastern Shore of Virginia, to Newport News and Hampton; to all Virginia towns 50 miles below Richmond, to all points in the Valley of Virginia as far down as Staunton; to one half of Pennsylvania lying north of the Maryland State line, including the rich York country section and the Susquehanna river valley, and to one-third of New Jersey. Express rate on same package, 45 to 75 cents.

Ten-pound package to same points, 14 cents; express rate, from 35 to 50 cents; old parcel post rate, 42 cents.

Two-pound package, 6 cents; express rate, 25 cents and over; old parcel post rate, 8 cents.

For 15 cents a 20-pound package can be delivered to any point in Baltimore city and on rural routes emanating at the Baltimore City postoffice; 10-pound package, 10 cents; 2-pound package, 6 cents.

Substantial prizes will be awarded to the winner and the races will be open to the World. Make your arrangements to enter, whether you have a fast or slow boat you have an equal chance to win. ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. Manie Miller has made a most commendable improvement along the North line of the M. E. Church property by the erection of a substantial hitching rack and building a commodious side walk between the rack and church line.

Reverends Lankford Prettyman and Robert Kirby occupied the M. E. pulpit Sunday morning. Mr. Kirby preached a good sermon on the subject of Godly Love. This young man made a favorable impression on his hearers. It is pleasing to note that Quaker Neck is still sending out her boys as "Fishers of men" and Robert seems destined to become a forceful preacher. Rev. Lankford Prettyman preached here Sunday night. Rev. J. W. Prettyman is taking a short vacation among his people down the peninsula and his son is "holding the fort" here in the father's absence.

Our residents were shocked on Sunday morning upon hearing the report of Mr. Hyson Dill's sudden death. He was a former neighbor.

Politics seems to be getting hot down this way. Groups of polticians of both factions were noticed in earnest confab on Saturday night.

Commissioner T. B. Crew was guest of his brother R. S. Crew over Sunday.

Mr. T. B. Durding has completed a fine garage on Cross street for his automobile.

Messrs Editors Reminiscences of 50 years ago, entitled "Old Time Kent Harvest" appearing in last weeks News, was appreciated by a number of old timers in this section. Farmers, and others of today grin when recalling or hearing of the old time harvest methods but it is mighty pleasant, Eh George? to slip back to the fifties and sixties in our imaginations and again enjoy those halcyon scenes. It was hard work, and slow, but every body was contented, and happy. My! what would the people of the wild rush of today do, if the methods and scenes of those days, were renewed? It is fearful to contemplate.

Have just received a letter from our old friend and Bros. Capt. Joe Thompson, formerly of Chestertown, but now in the Banking and Brokerage business in Philadelphia, as his usual wont has always been keeping some one he has lately started a worthy man in the Produce Business, and wants ten men of Rock Hall to ship crabs and fish. Fishermen here is a good chance for you. Capt. Thompson gaurantees a square deal.

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time, I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged.

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R. F. D. No. 6. Warren, Ind.

Another Case.

Esmond, R. I.—"I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers."—Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Esmond, Rhode Island.
