Piles.

Piles is so common that every other person you meet is troubled with it more or less. It seems to be a little thing and usually gets little attention. It may not be serious at first, but it makes a man sick—makes him nervous, cross, irritable—unfit for business. It robs him of sleep, takes his appetite—cuts down his flesh—and yet he is careless about it.

Foster's German Army and Navy Cure will cure Piles. It will cure other things, too, but it is particularly good for Piles. It stops the itch and the ache at once. It may take several days to wholly allay the inflammation and reduce the swelling, but it will do it—sure. Has done it in innumerable cases. Never has failed.

Good for Eczema, Ring Worm, Tetter, Itch, Salt Rheum, Dandruff, Pimples, and all Skin Diseases.

PROPOSALS OF MARRIAGE.

Statistics of How Men and Women Act at an Interesting Moment.

There is a clever statistician who could teach a thing or two to the novelist. This statistician has attempted to classify the action and methods of proposals, and, as a result, has presented tabulated figures extremely interesting to psychologists, says the Philadelphia Times. Out of 100 cases 36 gentlemen take lady in arms, 67 gentlemen kiss lady on lip, 4 gentlemen kiss lady on cheek, 3 gentlemen show very good taste by kissing lady on eyes, and two gentlemen kiss lady on hand. It is to be presumed that these two out of a hundred are the timid, diffident kind, though it is possible that they might be of the quietly sentimental nature. One gentleman kisses a lady on nose. It must be added that the statistican is careful to insert the saving clause (by mistake). There is even a record of a man kissing a lady on the edge of shawl, but, thank goodness, there is only one in a hundred, and the chances are that this man is peculiar. Seventy-two hold lady's hand, 17 hold it very tightly, 14 have lumps in their throats and exclaim aloud: "Thank God!" Only 7 out of a hundred declare themselves to be deliriously happy and 5 are too full for utterance. Three out of a hundred stand on one foot when they make the proposal, and 2 go down on one knee, while 9 make a formal prelude—something like the slow music in the play, we suppose, when the villain appeals to Heaven to witness the consuming flame of his affections for the heart he plots to ruin, etc.

The behavior of the lady under the circumstances is equally entertaining and instructive. Out of a hundred cases 81 sink in the arms of the gentleman, 68 rest their heads on gentleman's breast, and only 1 sinks into the arms of a chair; 11 clasp the arms around the gentleman's neck, 6 weep tears of joy silently and 44 weep tears aloud—whatever that means; 72 have eyes full of love, and 9 out of a hundred rush from the room and tell everybody. Only 4 are greatly surprised, and 87 of a hundred knew that something was coming. Five giggle hysterically, and one even sneezes. Only 1 of a hundred struggle not to be kissed, while 6 kiss gentleman first. If we believe the statistician, one of a hundred women will say; "Yes, but don't be a fool."

THE ICY MAY OF '34.

There Was a Colder Spring Than This 61 Years Ago.

A correspondent of the New York Mail and Express writes: This spring is almost a duplicate of the spring of 1834, except that we have had heavy frosts instead of snow and light frost. Ice formed as thick in May of that year as window glass. On May 14 I hired out to work on a farm, two miles from Cortlandt. The spring had been very similar to this. Fruit trees were in blossom the day I commenced working, but it began to grow cold, and continued to do so for three days.

Finally it grew so cold that Mr. How, for whom I worked, had to wear an overcoat and mittens while ploughing. On the 17th it commenced snowing very fast, and the flakes were soon eight to ten inches deep. On the 18th and 19th it was very cold. Potatoes that were covered up with straw in the barn were frozen. On the 19th and 20th we drew wood on a sled.

The sleighing at that time was good. Nearly all the leaves dropped off the trees in the forest.

Ready for Him.

Some time ago a sentimental young man sent a letter to a German lady, and this postscript was added:

"That my darling may make no mistake, remember that I will wear a light pair of trousers and a dark, cutaway coat. In my right hand I will carry a small cane, and in my left hand a cigar.—Yours ever, Adolphe."

The father replied courteously, stating that his daughter had given him authority to represent her at the appointed place at the time agreed on. His postscript was as follows:

"Dot mine son may make no mishdakes I vill be dreshed in mine shirt-sleeves; I vill vear in mine right hand a glub: in mine left hand I vill vear a six-shooter: You vill recognize me by de vay I bat you on de head a goople times twice mid de glub. Vait for me at de corner, as I have somedtngs important to imform you mit.—Your frent, Heinrich Muller."

Sacramento Cyclists Ring Cow Bells and Blow Horns.

A Sacramento (Cal.) special says: Several bicyclists were arrested Thursday night for not complying with the ordinance requiring wheelmen to carry lights at night, or to ring bells or blow horns when approaching street crossings. They were fined $5 each. Last night about 300 wheelmen rode through the streets, some carrying big barn lanterns, some ringing cow bells and others blowing horns. The result was that half a dozen were arrested for disturbing the peace.

Extraordinary Announcemnt.

JAMES A. CASEY, a progressive Rock Hallet, is now offering to the people of this county special low prices on his entire stock in order that the bulk of goods now upon our shelves can be reduced. For fifteen years we have been catering to the wants of the trade here, and all during that time we have never thrown out catch penny advertisements in order to hoodwink the people, but a steady, straightforward plan adopted in the beginning has been continued to the present time, and now for the future we promise greater bargains than have ever been shown in Rock Hall.

THE STOCK

Embraces a general line of goods, and consists of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Hardware, Notions of all kinds, including special bargains in Underwear and Hosiery, together with a first-class supply of Gum and Rubber Goods, so extensively used by our oystermen. The approaching holidays get nearer and nearer every day, and don't forget that we are fully prepared to meet your wants, as we can supply you with a complete line of goods at prices unequaled in this community. Our Grocery department receives special care, all the goods being bought for spot cash at headquarters, enables us to place in the homes of our people a line of fresh groceries at prices which are considered rock bottom. In the Boot and Shoe department there are many bargains awaiting you, and a call will convince you that we advertise bargains. Remember, we carry everything to be found in a well-appointed store, and from this time on sweeping reductions will be made, and a number of goods during this month will be closed out at prices that will astonish you. Look out for change of advertisement next month.

JAMES S. BRADLEY,
Chestertown, Md., Dealer in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, NOTIONS, BOOTS AND SHOES, and a GENERAL STOCK OF MERCHANDISE, embracing everything to be found in a well-stocked establishment. For 20 years our business has enjoyed a steady increase, and to-day we number among our customers some who started with us in our infancy. In looking over our stock we find that we have too many goods at this season of the year. They must move, consequently we have reduced the price. Many useful articles in

Dry Goods & Boots & Shoes, are included in this sale, and the advantages to our customers will be more appreciated when they see the goods. GOOD WOOLEN BLANKETS are now in the reach of everybody, as the prices are lower than ever. Our Underwear in Shirts and Drawers are especially cheap, while the complete line of other goods are never higher, but sometimes less than others. Thanking my friends who have dealt with me in the past, I respectfully ask a continuance of the same in the future.
