COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE CHESTERTOWN WATER WORKS, a bill for the purchase of which is now before the Legislature with a maximum price set at twenty-five thousand dollars, payable in gold, are now assessed to Senator Westcott at $6,000.

THE HERALD deplores the fact that Baltimore sewers are steadily filling up the channels of the harbor. If one is to judge from the appearance of the streets, the city's mud appropriation has been extremely meagre to this or any other purpose.

A NEW BANKING BILL has been introduced in the State Senate by Senator Hering. The bill was prepared by a committee appointed by the Maryland Bankers' Association, and has as its object the placing of greater safeguards around our monetary institutions. Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., a director of the Second National Bank of Chestertown, represented Kent on the committee.

JUDGE WRIGHT states that there is a stagnation of police court business since the democratic success in November. He is at a loss for an explanation, but says he supposes the lawless elements feel that they will fare badly should they fall into democratic hands. The reason is true, and does credit to the fairness of opinion of the Chestertown justice as well as to the determination of democratic officials to see that the law is executed.

COMMISSIONER D. C. HEDDINGER, a patriot of Baltimore's republican reform wave as inaugurated by the News and Sun, has been openly accused of receiving a fifteen-hundred-dollar bribe. The adjustment of the harness as arranged by the News is not satisfactory, the patriot balks and the reform press, as might have been expected, sets up a howl of bribery and corruption. The Baltimore press arranged its own bed and it should not complain that it finds itself in company with strange bedfellows.

THE ESTEEMED CONTEMPORARY, the Baltimore Herald, in an editorial review of the completion of "The Queen Anne Railroad," enlightens its readers upon Eastern Shore history by announcing that the road passes through "Kent and Caroline counties," and touches such distinguished marts of trade as "Denton, Wye Mills, Greenwood and Milton." The Maine disaster, Congress, and the evolutions of the State Legislature have evidently unsettled the journalistic equalibrium of the Herald's staff.

MR. WESTCOTT'S WATER-WORKS BILL has created no small degree of discussion since the publication of the bill in the TRANSCRIPT of last week. Without regard to party many persons consider the provisions of the bill as extremely objectionable. Many tax-payers are unwilling to have the taxes of the town raised so materially, and claim that if Mr. Westcott's investment is one which would justify him in demanding the price indicated by the bill, then there could certainly be no hardship in insisting upon his continuing to reap a fair reward after so many years without returns from the plant.

THE DEATH of Miss Frances E. Willard removes one of the most conspicuous types of American womanhood from the field of public life. She has become a figure of history, and generations yet unborn will revere her name. The splendid individuality of Miss Willard put in motion forces which can never become inactive. As has been so beautifully said: "A million American mothers will rise up and call her blessed. Her crown will be the jewel thoughts of gratitude from a million mothers' hearts, and the memory of herself and her work will last while American history lasts. Her life was a marvelous illustration of what one good woman can do."

WHATEVER may be the final outcome of the investigation as to the causes of the Maine disaster, the complications existing between the United States and Spain at this time are of a most complicated and delicate nature. A mere spark would be fatal to the peace existing between the two countries. The details of the investigation will not be given to the public until the work is completed. Should it be found that the cause of the disaster was from the outside, the American people will demand something more practical than Spanish disclaimers and apologies. These are not the materials of which American battleships are constructed or by means of which the families of martyred sailors and fighters are fed and clothed. General Lee has advised Americans in Havana to remove their families to a place of safety.

DELAWARE'S social, political and business circles have been shaken to their foundations by revelations incident upon the surrender of William N. Boggs, the defaulting teller who looted the Dover bank out of one hundred and seven thousand dollars. Boggs returned on Friday and surrendered, and upon evidence given by him, Col. E. T. Cooper, T. S. Clark and C. H. Butler Amos Cole and several other of the prominent citizens of the State have been placed under arrest, and, it is claimed, United States Senator Kenney, and J. F. Saulsbury will be drawn into the maelstrom of disorganization before the matter is finally disposed of. The capital stock of the bank was but one hundred thousand dollars, and that a paying teller could loot the institution for one hundred and seven thousand dollars, is certainly calculated to impress the general public with an idea of a laxity of management of affairs of the bank scarcely short of criminal. Granted that Boggs was skilled in his professional stealings, it is difficult to apprehend, that with a careful management and proper oversight of the institution on the part of the bank officers and directors that the protracted series of manipulations in the bank's accounts could have been successfully carried out.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative power, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

REMEDY FOR INTELLECTUAL DEGENERACY.

EDITORS OF TRANSCRIPT:—From the copy of your paper of Feb. 10th, kindly sent to me, and received to-day, I learn from the article of "Questioner," (whose modesty compels him to withhold his signature) that I owe the readers of the TRANSCRIPT an apology for calling their attention to a problem which Questioner facitiously hints is of no utility, and therefore not worth knowing.

If the first idea that the problem developed in the mind of Questioner was, there is no money in it, I entirely agree with him and have to thank the writer for his prompt and confident suggestion of a scientific subject of unquestioned general interest and utility (the Maryland stomach.)

And now Messrs. Editors, we are on a scientific plane, the general importance and utility of which will not be questioned even by Questioner himself, and if it is, his decided conviction that undigested terrapin, oysters, canvas-back duck and fish are the sole causes of the decline of mental ability in the location indicated, I am happy in being able to furnish Questioner with a scientific remedy that is not hypothetical, but which has been demonstrated to be a scientific fact, simply that Questioner and his friends eat no more breakfast, and why.

Now give close attention,—It required seventy years for me to learn that there is a distinction between hunger and abnormal habit appetite. Hunger tending to health, and the normal continuation of life, while the gratification of habit appetite produces disease, misery, poverty, sensuality and premature death. Hunger is the divine law by which God intended man should eat his daily food, and means the conscious realization that the lost tissue of the body from activity must be restored. Rest and sleep cannot produce this result, therefore we cannot, according to the law of nature, wake up in the morning hungry. Appetite for breakfast is the result of habit and can be established at any home during the day or night. If science means the development of truth and law this may be classed as scientific fact and fully demonstrated by experience.

AN ENJOYABLE RECEPTION.

A Charming Programme Rendered by Friends and Members of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society.

One of the most pleasant anniversaries ever celebrated by the members of the Mount Vernon Literary Society, of Washington College, was enjoyed by the members and friends of the society on Tuesday evening. The members take no small degree of pride in being the oldest literary society in the State, as well as the fact that they never fail to keep in fond remembrance the name and unblemished honor of the Father of His Country by an annual celebration on the twenty-second of February.

Upon entering the parlors of Normal Hall, the following reception committee representing the Mt. Vernon and Pieria Literary Societies welcomed the guests: Misses Adele France, president of Pieria; Katharine Hobbs and Lydia Whitworth; Messrs. W. N. Sherwood, president of Mt. Vernon; T. Allen Goldsborough and C. C. Gum. The members of the Pieria society were honorary guests of the occasion and their society colors, purple and white, mingled conspicuously with seal brown, the Mt. Vernon color, in the decorations of the reception room. Potted plants and ferns added to the beauty of the surroundings.

The literary and musical programme consisted of an instrumental duett by Misses Maude Newnam and Stella Crew, and recitations by Miss Susie B. Culp, Miss Grace Whaland, Miss Freddie Strong, Messrs. T. A. Goldsborough, J. S. E. Pardee; instrumental solo by Miss Jessie Jones and a duett by Misses Mattie Davis and Stella Crew, and vocal duett by Messrs. W. L. Wheatley and J. S. E. Pardee.

At the conclusion of this portion of the programme elegant refreshments were partaken of and toasts enjoyed in the dining hall. The room was elaborately decorated with national banners and evergreens. President Sherwood made an eloquent address of welcome, after which Dr. C. W. Reid, Dr. Hall and Mr. Pardee responded to toasts. A feature of the evening was a graphophone concert by Prof. George B. Twilley. Miss Newnam's rendition of Ben Bolt with her sister playing the accompaniment was a charming bit of pleasure to all lovers of sweet music present.

A representative of the TRANSCRIPT expresses regret that he was unable to be present upon the delightful occasion.

A ROMANTIC ELOPMENT.

The steamer B. S. Ford took to Baltimore from Queenstown on Friday, one of the most constitutionally romantic young ladies on the Eastern Shore, in the person of Miss Mary Fitzhugh, daughter of Rev. George S. Fitzhugh, rector of the P. E. Church at Denton. Miss Fitzhugh had arranged to meet Mr. W. F. Padgett, of Florida, in Baltimore, where they were to be married. The parents of the young lady learned of the situation, telegraphed to Baltimore and had their daughter arrested, upon her arrival, which was done and she was placed in the watch house.

Early in the morning her devoted admirer, appeared before Judge Harlan and, through his atterney, Mr. Thomas Ruddell, secured a writ of habeas corpus. In the meantime Rev. Mr. Fitzhugh and Mrs. Fitzhugh, mother of the young lady, arrived from Denton, and employed Mr. Howard Bryant to act for them in the case.

All parties met in the matron's room at the central station, and after a long controversy Mr. Padgett agreed to withdraw the habeas corpus proceeding, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh agreed to allow their daughter to marry Mr. Padgett at the end of a year, provided that in the meantime he could satisfy them that he was able to provide a comfortable and happy home for their daughter. This seemed to be a satisfactory settlement of the differences, and so, in the evening, Mr. Fitzhugh and his wife and daughter went to the steamer Joppa, where they took passage for Denton. They were accompanied to the boat by Mr. Padgett, who carried the satchel which Miss Fitzhugh brought to Baltimore on the night of the elopment.

During the conference and on the way to the boat the young couple exchanged many significant and smiling looks and a whispered conversation took place between them. The meaning of all this came out later. When they boarded the boat Miss Fitzhugh made an excuse to leave her parents a moment. A few minutes later she flitted across the gangplank and joined her waiting lover, evidently according to a prearranged plan.

They went to 848 Edmondson avenue, the residence of Rev. U. F. Swedgel, pastor of Memorial Evangelical Church, where they were married. Mr. Padgett had thoughtfully secured a marriage license Wednesday, before the arrival of his bride in Baltimore. The ceremony was witnessed by one friend, who accompanied the couple. They left soon after on their honeymoon trip, smiling with the thought that they had carried out their own agreement.

This is the agreement of the lawyers, which was not carried out:

Mr. Padgett was to go back to Florida, but had the privilege of corresponding with the young lady of his choice, the father to have the right to read the letters. Six months from the date of the present agreement Mr. Padgett was to be accorded the right to visit the family at their Denton home and submit proofs of his financial standing.

When the anxious parents were informed by friends on the boat that their daughter had been married, the father sighed and said: "Well, we might as well go back to Denton." And they departed with the boat.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mrs. John Beck, of Sandtown, died on Friday, after a short illness of paralysis. She had been washing Wednesday, and feeling tired called to one of her children to give her a chair, and as soon as she sat down fell to the floor, and steadily growing worse died on Friday. Her funeral took place Sunday afternoon, interment in Millington cemetery. Her husband is just recovering from a serious accident which occurred while helping to fill the ice house of Mr. John Barnes, near town, some time ago.

The town commissioners began work again on the streets on Tuesday morning. They have ploughed the street from the Frame Hotel to the hill at E. W. Spear's flour mill, hauled some of the dirt off and are giving it a good covering of oyster shells, which, when completed, will greatly improve that portion of the town.

A very exciting incident occurred on Tuesday evening about dusk at the four corners. Mr. Fred Stevens, of Crumpton, accompanied by his cousin, Miss Susie Stevens, of Queen Anne county, were driving, when his horse became frightened and stopped. When urged to go on by Mr. Stevens, it sprang forward, and breaking the single tree, became unmanageable. Turning around in the road it ran into a new carriage belonging to Mr. Wm. Darrell, of near Massey's, and mashed a wheel down. Getting away from there it ran into another carriage and began kicking, and kicked the back of the carriage body to pieces. Soon it was quieted and gotten loose from the carriage which Mr. and Miss Stevens had not had time to get out of. His carriage was only slightly damaged.

Through an error it was reported last week that Mr. G. Warner had ordered for Mr. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, a traction engine of the Geiser Manufacturing Co., Waynesboro, Pa. Mr. Warner did not order it, but an engine and thresher for himself, and Mr. Shafer's engine came on the same car with Mr. Warner's.

Mrs. James Bowers, of near Crumpton, spent a few days of last week with her mother, Mrs. James Orem.

Mrs. M. E. Blackiston has been confined to her home for some time with a severe cold.

Mrs. A. C. Rasin has been quite sick at her home, but is reported better.

Mrs. John Amos is visiting at Townsend, Deleware.

Mr. T. J. McWhorter and daughter, Miss Ethel, of Philadelphia, spent last week with Mr. H. S. Cook.

Miss Geo. E. Weist and children, of Philadalphia, spent several days of last week with Mrs. John Weist.

Miss Gertrude Turner is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. T. C. Smoot is visiting her parents at Laretto, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern spent last Saturday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mary Satterfield and daughter, Mrs. Sallie Owens, of Greenwood, Del., are the guests of Mrs. Owens' daughter, Mrs. J. J. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Spayd have returned after a two months visit with relatives in Lebanon, Pa.

Misses Grace Lindale, Louise Merrick, Elsie George, Lillie Green, Messrs. Harry Booker and Edward Tarbutton, of Sudlersville, spent Tuesday afternoon with Miss Ollie Vansant.

Mr. C. M. Hurtt has made an addition to his store by opening a room adjoining. Mr. Hurtt has filled it with a large stock of china, glass, tin and enameleduare.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—GEO. E. WOLFF, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla. A Business Career

OF THIRTY-ONE YEARS!

From the A B C of Pharmacy still climbing the ladder, the top not yet reached and never can be, as it is a progressive science, and as long as nature exists Pharmacy will never have a limit.

Our experience has been a wide one through all these years. Step in the store and I will show you our Recipe No. It is number 239,200, and still gaining rapidly. We do not count repetitions, if we did the number would be as large again. These Prescriptions were all written by Physicians. They are true, honest Recipes. We believe in Physicians, they are the faithful servants of the people, to be called upon day and night, no matter the weather; a ride of 10 or 15 miles on a cold, stormy night, frequently not paid for (this is true charity), is one of the calls of their profession. Patent medicines we do not believe in. Their purpose is to take your money with no compensation. At least three-fourths are humbugs, but the people will have them, and we are compelled to keep them or lose a customer. Our advice is, when you feel sick with that achy, tired feeling so faithfully descriptive, consult at once your Physician, don't put it off, and it is likely one Prescription taken in time will save you a spell of sickness.

Our Physicians are well posted men, they keep in touch with all that is newest and best in Materia Medica and Therapeutics. All the new remedies are tested, and none but the best selected. They will serve you skillfully and faithfully, no matter the time or the weather. Some stormy evening when you are seated around your comfortable evening fire, you hear the rumble of the doctor's carriage as it hurries by on its errand of mercy, let your heart go out to him, reach up your hand, take down your copy of "The Bonnie Brier Bush," read the "Doctor's Last Journey," and you will know what mercy and sympathy mean.

Well, we have forgotten our advertisement, we want to tell you in this bright new year that we are ready to serve you faithfully, to prepare your Prescriptions and make prices as low as possible.
