THANKSGIVING.

By MARIAN DOUGLAS.

I counted up my little store
Why was to others given more?
Why were their lips with honey fed
While mine had labor's hard earned bread?
A weary, hopeless task seemed living
I could not bring to God thanksgiving

There came a poor man to my door.
I shared with him my scanty store
When, in my sense of want had flown
And rarest riches were my own:
So sweet is love's divided bread
I seemed with heaven's own manna fed
What blessed joy there was in living
I brought to God my glad thanksgiving.

—Harper's Bazar

THINGS TO BE THANKFUL FOR.

NOW Thanksgiving day we see,
And we all should thankful be.
If you do not know just what
Are the blessings you have got
Let us mention just a few
Which maybe pertain to you:

That your girls are not boys and are not therefore filled with a consuming ambition to play football.

That your boys are not girls and will not therefore tax your digestion later with the nice little things they have learned to make at cooking school.

That up to date none of the aviators have fallen down through your chimney flue, filling your drawing room with yells and soot.

That, thanks to the butcher having refused you a further extension of credit, that particular bill won't grow any bigger.

That, having during the last year lost the last remnant of your hair, your capillary attractions have at last ceased to fall out.

That, your joy riding chauffeur having reduced your $2,000 car to scrap iron, you are relieved of a $3,000 annual expense in maintaining him and it

That, whatever else happens in the way of draining your pocketbook, you won't have to draw a check for the payment of your own funeral expenses

That your well beloved wife considers her new winter hat a dream—only tread softly lest you both wake up when the first of the month brings the whistling postman to your door with sundry requests from the little milliner

That, if you remained a poor, obscure nobody all your days, there is no temptation for any mean spirited, envious person to try to pull you down off your pedestal and prove to posterity that you didn't know a bean when you met one

That, not being a woman, you don't have to wear a hobble skirt to trip you up when you go walking in public or carry your car fare in a small portemonnaie inside a pocketbook, inside a wallet, wrapped up in a handkerchief inside a chain bag, inside your muff.

That, not being a man, you don't have to smoke cheap cigars, pretending that you like them better than those made of real tobacco, or think up foolishly transparent explanations for having stayed at the club until 4 o'clock in the morning.—Harper's Weekly

Table Etiquette.

Don't scalp the Indian pudding; cut straight down

What is sauce for the goose is also sauce for the turkey

This is no day to pick a quarrel; try it on the bones

Don't try to paint the table cloth red with the cranberry sauce.

Out of respect to the fallen gobbler don't try to gobble everything in sight

Do not ask for helpings until you can no longer help yourself

Don't lean on the table; probably the turkey is lean enough for everybody.

You may rest assured it is in perfectly good taste to knock the stuffing out of your appetite.—Baltimore Herald

HOW THAT TURKEY LASTS.

Roasted turk on Thursday;
Friday eat it cold;
Saturday it's turkey hash
(Eat all that you can hold).
Sunday you will have croquettes—
Ha! Monday you'll eat stew;
Tuesday they will surely get
Some turkey soup in you.
"Durn this turkey! How it lasts!"
Every one will say.
"Don't let's have another one
Till next Thanksgiving day!"
—Philadelphia North American.

THE TRUTH OUT AT LAST.

Old Mother Hubbard she went to the cupboard
To get the poor dog a bone,
But when she got there the cupboard was bare,
And so the poor dog had none.
The cause of this osseous vacuum was,
The turkey, neck, stern and breast,
Being eaten, the cook had made up her mind
To make hash and soup of the rest.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

IMPORTANT TO EVERYONE

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water, and often eat more rich, heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

Many physicians claim that an herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcels Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the KENT NEWS, Chestertown, Md.

Mrs. Newhome—"Come in, Anty Drudge. I want to ask your advice, and I'm so glad to see you. What shall I use to get this pencil mark off of my nice, white woodwork? Baby did it—and I'm so worried over it."

Anty Drudge—"Why, my dear, use Fels-Naptha Soap. The mark will come off in a jiffy. Don't you use Fels-Naptha for all your work, as well as washing? You ought to."

Millions of women use the soap that makes their work easy—Fels-Naptha. Take the weekly wash, for instance. Instead of drudging over the tubs all day, heating water, keeping up a hot fire to boil the clothes and rubbing up and down on a washboard, put the clothes to soak in cool or lukewarm water with Fels-Naptha Soap. In thirty minutes rub them lightly, rinse and hang on the line.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper. Better buy it by the box or carton.

The Kent Building and Loan Company

desires to call the public's attention to the VERY BEST method whereby they can save money.

For Fourteen years this Company has continued with marked success and has paid its shareholders on an average of 6½ per cent. on their savings. In view of this liberal policy it is hardly necessary to advance an argument why you should deposit a small sum weekly, monthly or quarterly with this company. Dues received weekly every Monday evening at the Court House in Chestertown, between 7.30 and 8.30 P. M., or by mail at any time. The last statement of the company showed assets of over $80,000. Three years ago the assets were about $60,000. Shares are 25 cents per week, and we have some leading business men who have over 100 shares and have held shares in this company from the date of its organization. The company operates for the advantage of all its shareholders—not merely for a few—and this policy has resulted in a 5½ per cent. investment which must appeal to any one with any sagacity. Its books are regularly audited and it is managed by a capable and strong body of directors who give it their constant attention. The condition of the company's business is open at any time to the public. $1 paid weekly earns approximately at the end of 5 years and 6 months from $390 to $400. $1.50 paid weekly means about ½ more.
