Chester Woman By Small Margin

Nip And Tuck Race In Contest For Grand Money

Prizes

Spurred on to greater effort after announcement was made two weeks ago that the Record-Observer subscription contest would be brought to a close within the next few weeks, many of the contestants have taken new interest and are piling up numerous new names to the already large family of readers of the paper.

Within the past two weeks two new correspondents have entered the contest for the grand prizes being offered. They are Miss Evelyn Cannon, of Ingleside; and Mrs. Harry C. Reynolds, of Queenstown. The prizes are 1st, $35; 2nd, $25; 3rd, $15; 4th, $10;

Chester, who early in the contest took the lead, and has held it consistently with the exception of one week, is still leading by a small margin. Mrs.

Obituary

JOHN PINDER

John Pinder, former Sudlersville railroad man and lately a resident of Marcus Hook, died at the Chester Pa., Hospital on Friday, October 15, after an illness of a month. He was 58 years old. Mr. Pinder was born in Sudlersville Carter, Clerk of Court, during October: Greensboro, and Mary Ethel Walls 21, town and Mary Alice Turpin, 36, of James E. and Margaret Pinder. For many years he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, working on the Centreville branch and other Eastern Shore lines. He abandoned railroading about a dozen years ago and for the last seven years was a pumper at the Sinclair Oil works in Marcus Hook. About thirty years ago he married Miss Lillian Hill, who survives him.

There also remain three sisters, Mrs. Alice Councillor, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Cora Pinder of Queenstown, and Mrs. Hiram Briscoe of Centreville. Funeral services were held from Clough's Funeral Parlors at Marcus Hook on Monday afternoon, October 18, at 1:30 o'clock. The bearers were Otis Pinder, Madison Dadds, John
