QUEENSTOWN

The Homemakers' Club will meet with the Homemakers' Club of Carmichael on Thursday, Dec. 16, at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Roy H. Wilson, in Centreville. Mrs. Wilson was our former Home Demonstration Agent.

Miss Edith Chance, of "Talisman" was a visitor to Baltimore this week. Mrs. J. Clyde Embert left on Monday for a few days in Baltimore and a personal visit to Santa Claus to make sure that he could read her letter. Mrs. J. Harvey Kilbourne, of Baltimore spent the week-end with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bishop. On Saturday evening, Mrs. Kilbourne was entertained informally at the Pivot Club by Mrs. J. C. Embert.

Miss Margaret Mitchell Gibson, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, of "My Lord's Gift" farm.

Some people get the breaks. Here is a sure-fire example. Mr. Robert Hitch, a student of Maryland University, College Park, just outside of Washington, on Sunday afternoon called his parents from Annapolis saying he had hitchhiked that far and was coming over on the ferry so would they please come down to meet him. Here is the first break, Mrs. Margaret Cross was taking her son William Cross to the ferry at that time so brought Mr. Robert to town for a short stay. And it was short too, as Mr. and Mrs. Allen Weiss and son David were leaving on the next ferry for Washington so it might appear that Mr. Robert merely came to Queenstown to turn around for he returned with the Washington group. The hostess at the contract club was Mrs. George Aldridge on Tuesday evening. Top score went to Mrs. John T. Daisy McConnor cut for the floating prize which went to the former.

W. I. Tuttle, Mrs. John T. Bishop for the day of Monday with also Master Sonny Gibson, of Queen Anne. Ever since Master Sonny's name was called at the Queen Theatre and he was not in attendace, now regular on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. George Tarbutton, Mrs. dren were guests Sunday of his parents, afternoon, he comes to town hoping Nelson Nelms and daughter, Melba Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everett. that lightning will forget and strike in and Mrs. Susie Jones were week-end Those who have moved this week

Mrs. G. B. Farr, Mrs. Walbert and Miss Bertha Truitt, who are in charge of the pageant want all the young folks to meet at the home of Mrs.. Alan Walls this Thursday evening. The community is very sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Harrington Knotts move from town. They moved the first of the week to the home of Mrs. Knotts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Bishop near Centreville, where Mr. Knotts will be associated with Mr. Bishop in farming. Miss Leila O'Rourke and Miss Helen Redden, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Miss Redden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Rededn.

Mr. Davis Walraven who has been in Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, for the past two months was able to return home last Thursday. He is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Foxx moved last week from the farm to their home in town. Mr. Paul Maule who has been living on the Sudler farm, one-half mile west of town, moved to the Foxx farm. The Choir of Calvary M. E. Church are practicing special Christmas music Junior Choir and Church Choir will render special numbers at the morning service and at the evening service they will have another of their much enjoyed "Evenings of Song." Everybody is cordially invited to worship at all the services.
