Scouts Choose District Heads

F. D. Day Named County Vice-Chairman

Officers for the Tri-County District of Boy Scouts including Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot for 1938 include John Noble of Easton, chairman; Franklin D. Day, Centreville; J. Willard Davis, Easton, and Wilmer F. Davis, Federalsburg, vice-chairmen; and Dr. Norman P. Chanaud, Centreville, E. Samuel Hemming, Easton, and V. E. Unger, Federalsburg, district commissioners. The staff was named at the annual meeting of district heads at the Mechlenburg Club at Easton.

Reports of C. E. Andreas, Jr., Field Scout Executive, and Kenneth B. Spear, Scout Executive of the Del-Mar-Va council, indicated the growth of scouting in the past five years. A survey shows that nearly 12% of the boys of Scout age in Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline are now being reached by the Scout program.
