LAWS OF MARYLAND,

Passed at the December Session, 1845, of the Legislature of Maryland, relative to the Revenue of the State.

A SUPPLEMENT to the Act relating to Foreign Corporations and their Agencies, in this State, passed at December session, 1839, ch. 24.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to act as the agent or agents within this [State] for any individual or association of individuals or corporations not incorporated and authorized by the laws of this State, to make insurances on marine or fire risks, or insurances on lives, or other assurances, although such individuals or association of individuals, may be incorporated for these purposes, by the laws of any other State, District or Territory of the United States, or by the laws of any foreign Kingdom, State or Nation) to effect insurances or to receive or transmit offers for insurance to their principals, or receive or deliver policies of insurance, without first obtaining a license therefor, in the manner hereinafter required.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That a license for the purpose of effecting insurances or receiving or transmitting offers for insurance or receiving or delivering policies of insurance, as expressed in the preceding section, shall be granted by the Clerks of the several county Courts, and of Howard District Court, and of the city of Baltimore, to any person or persons, body or bodies, corporate or politic, who shall apply therefor, and pay to such Clerk the sum of one hundred dollars for the use of this State, which license shall authorise the person or persons, body or bodies corporate or politic, to whom the same shall be granted to effect insurances, or to receive and transmit offers for insurances, or to receive and deliver policies of insurance as aforesaid, from the day of its date, for the period of twelve months thereafter and no longer.

Section 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Clerks, to transmit to the Treasurer semi annually, on the days when by law they are required to transmit their other lists and accounts to the Treasurer, lists and accounts of all licenses which shall by them have been severally granted in pursuance of this act, and to account with, and pay into the Treasury all sums of money received by them for such licenses, at the same time, as by law they are required to account and pay monies received for other licenses; deducting the same commission and subject to all the penalties and forfeitures which in case of failure, they are liable to, for neglecting to pay other monies into the Treasury.

Section. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, body or bodies, corporate or politic, acting as agent or agents as aforesaid, shall effect insurances, or offer to effect insurances, or receive and transmit offers for insurances, or receive or deliver policies of insurance, as aforesaid, without a license first had and obtained as hereinbefore provided, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay for each offence, the sum of three hundred dollars, one half to the use of the informer, who shall be a competent witness, the other half to be paid to the clerk of the county, or of Howard District, or of the City Court of Baltimore, as the case may be, for the use of the State, to be recovered in the name of the State of Maryland, by action of debt or indictment, in the county Court, or Howard District Court, or the City Court of Baltimore, where such offence shall have been committed, and to be accounted for and paid into the Treasury, by the clerk receiving the same, at the periods limited for accounting for, and paying monies received for licenses as aforesaid.

Section 5. And be it enacted, That so much of the second section of the act passed at December session, 1839, chapter 24, as limits the sum to be paid to the Treasurer by said agents, to two dollars on every hundred dollars of the premiums received by them, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that from and after the first day of May next, the said agents respectively, shall, in addition to the license money by this act required to be paid by them, pay into the Treasury the sum of three dollars on every hundred dollars of premiums received by them, at the same time and in the same manner, as is directed by the said original act.

Section 6. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the several county courts, granting licenses under this act, shall annually publish in at least two newspapers, one of which shall be in the city of Baltimore, the names of such agent or agents so taking out licenses, with the names of the companies they represent.

Section 7. And be it enacted, That nothing in this contained, shall authorise any agent or agents to act as such, for more than two foreign corporations, individual, or association of individuals, by virtue of one license.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS.

LATE SHIN & SELLERS'.

For the cure of Liver Complaints and other diseases arrising from a deranged Liver.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER—Generally loss of appetite; sickness of the stomach; pains in the head, shoulders, back and sides; sense of weariness, with sleepless nights; costiveness of bowels, followed in some cases by looseness; slight, dry cough; low spirits, with disinclination to every duty are prominent symptoms of a diseased state of the liver. The liver is, however, often much deranged when the most formidable symptoms are absent, and becomes sadly out of order before it is known.

If the symptoms are present, and the pills used according to the directions without producing benefit, the money will be returned.

SELLERS' IMPERIAL COUGH SYRUP,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Tickling sensation of the Throat, Whooping Cough, &c. &c.

Pronounced to be the pleasantest and most efficacious remedy now in use.

Most of the mixtures sold for coughs are composed of spirituous and inflammatory articles, which, while they give a little relief, really do harm. The Imperial Cough Syrup contains no spirituous ingredient whatever, & may be used in all cases not requiring active medical treatment. The Imperial Cough Syrup has been used for the last six years by the most respectable inhabitants of Pittsburgh and vicinity

SELLERS' VERMIFUGE.

Warranted equal to any now before the public!! No family ought or will be without it after a trial.

WORMS frequently infest children, aggravate all other diseases, and are capable of producing great disturbances in the system, and consequently all medicines given to remove them should be prepared with great care and of the best materials; and it is to be feared that many of the worm medicines in use are totally destitute of these qualities The Vermifuge which the subscriber now offers to the public, is prepared of the best materials that can be procured; and it is gaining for itself a reputation which entitles it to a large share of pudlic patronage. The efficacy of this preparation to relieve the rising generation from one of its greatest enemies is fully attested by the accompanying Certificates in another column. Prepared and sold by R.
